

CONFESSED TO MURDER

MURDER WILL OUT NEW ST. MARY'S 12 SONDER YACHTS YOUTH AND OLD AGE

William Remington Makes a Strange Confession Struggle for Three Places on the American Team Society Girl to Marry a Professor 76 Years Old

Morphine Fiend at Tewksbury Says He Killed Boston Man Who Was Buried As a Suicide Two Weeks Ago—Remington Taken to Boston by Police

William Remington of Boston, an inmate of the State Infirmary at Tewksbury, a morphine fiend who is suffering the last agonizing stages of morphine poisoning, yesterday called the physicians of the hospital to his bedside and while writhing with pain and fever told them an awful tale of a murder which he claims to have committed in Boston on Sunday, July 31.

Meanwhile the remains of Max Sarokian have been exhumed by order of District Attorney Pelletier and a further investigation of his death, which occurred on July 31, discloses the fact that he was the victim of a foul play rather than suicide as was at first given as the cause of death.

That truth is stranger than fiction is borne out by Remington's story which appears to be the truth. Remington, whose mind appeared perfectly clear yesterday, informed the physicians that a week ago yesterday he entered the store of Max Sarokian, 228 Harrison avenue, and placing his revolver on the counter in front of the proprietor demanded that he purchase it. Sarokian told him that he had no use for the weapon and would not buy it. Then Remington, who was in a frenzy for want of money with which to purchase morphine, grasped the revolver and fired two shots into Sarokian and fled from the store leaving the revolver behind. Sarokian was found a short time later in a dying condition. Two bullet holes were found in Sarokian's body and with the revolver beside him and as there was no one in the vicinity as far as known at the time of the shooting, the conclusion of the police was that Sarokian had committed suicide and as such the death certificate was signed and as such he was buried.

But Sarokian had always lived happily with his family and had always been a good provider. He lived a simple life and his wife refused to accept the theory of suicide and appealed to District Attorney Pelletier. The latter was so impressed with her story that he ordered the remains exhumed. A second examination as will be seen below showed circumstances that tended strongly to uphold the theory of foul play. But assuming that foul play had been committed there was absolutely no evidence pointing to the identity of the murderer.

Engine Over-Loaded?

If so, avoid the heavy expense of a new engine.

Provide for present overload. Prepare for future growth.

Install electric motors as the load increases.

Lowell Electric Light
50 Central Street

Remington Visits Tewksbury

On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his cot though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Police Got Busy

Up to this morning when the Boston police learned from Lowell sources of the strange confession of Remington they still professed to believe that he had committed suicide despite the facts revealed by the second examination of the dead body. This forenoon Inspector Dugan of the Boston police headquarters came to Tewksbury and took Remington back to Boston. Remington was not placed under arrest on any formal charge but was taken to Boston for examination relative to the truth of the story which he told yesterday.

EVIDENCES OF MURDER

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—At the request of his relatives, who believe he did not commit suicide, as was reported by the police, but was murdered, the body of Max Sarokian, who was found dying from two bullet wounds a week ago yesterday in the little shop he kept at 203 Harrison avenue, has been exhumed for a further investigation. Saturday it was taken from the Emerald street synagogue cemetery in Woburn to the City Hospital, where an autopsy was performed by Associate Medical Examiner Waters. The result of this examination will be made known later. Sarokian died while on the way to the City hospital. One of the bullets passed directly through his heart. About six feet from the spot where he lay a 32 calibre revolver was picked up. It had six chambers containing three unused cartridges and three that had been discharged.

Max Sarokian, youngest son of the dead man, insists that the case is one of murder, and Sarokian's neighbors say that he was not the man to die by his own hand. The young man points out that one of the bullets passed through a packing case near the door at the rear of the store, probably passing over his father's head. The revolver, he says, was thrown behind the counter in a way which would indicate that it was not placed there by his father.

He says that on the morning of the shooting his father was in a particularly happy mood, and was seen feeding the pigeons in front of his shop, not ten minutes before his death.

Charles Frederick of 244 Harrison avenue, who was passing at the time the shots were fired, told the police some facts that seem to strengthen the theory of murder. He says that he heard a single shot within the shop and that immediately after he saw a man leave by the front door and disappear in the direction of Oak street. He noticed that the man had on a skull cap.

The police still profess to believe that Sarokian committed suicide.

NOTICE

Will the person who picked up the camera pin near the Lincoln street corner please return it to 237 West London st. or Home 2, Lincoln st. and receive reward, as they are well known.

August Quarter Month

—AT THE—
WASHINGTON SAVINGS INSTITUTION
207 CENTRAL STREET
Over Lowell Trust Company

NEW ST. MARY'S Will be Rededicated in Two Weeks

The rededication of St. Mary's church, Collinsville, will take place on Sunday, August 21, at 10.30 o'clock, and promises to be the most imposing religious event in the history of the village. The officiating clergyman will be Mgr. Dennis O'Farrell of Roxbury, Mass. The celebrant of the mass will be Rev. Charles J. Sullivan, D. C. L., assistant chancellor of the archdiocese of Boston, and Collinsville boy and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Patrick J. Supple, D. D. of Boston. A special musical program will be arranged for the occasion.

DEATHS

DUNKERLEY—Mrs. Mary A. Dunkerley, wife of James L. Dunkerley, a resident of Ballouville, Conn., died Saturday night at the home of her son, William Howarth, 46 West Fourth street, after a short illness, aged 62 years. She leaves her husband, four daughters, Mrs. Robert Rushton of Lawrence, Mrs. Leon Blodgett of Methuen and the Misses Clara and Sarah Howarth of Lowell, also three sons, William Howarth of this city and Frank and Joseph Howarth of Ballouville, Conn. Time of funeral will be announced later.

RACETTE—Mrs. Delphis Racette died yesterday at the Lowell hospital, aged 36 years. The body was removed to the residence of her sister, Mrs. Charles Ouellette, 103 Tremont street. Deceased left a husband, three brothers, Olga Grenon of Lawrence and Exidore, Laurent and Alphonse Grenon of Lowell, and three sisters, Mrs. Ouellette and Mrs. Leonie Chaurus of Lowell and Mrs. Florence Lee of Derry, N. H.

PIERCE—Bowen L. Pierce, for many years a familiar figure in the business section of the city, died yesterday at St. John's hospital, the age of 69 years. Two weeks ago he was struck by an automobile at the corner of Merrimack and John streets and never recovered from the shock. He will be remembered by many residents of Lowell as going from office to office and from store to store with his basket on his arm, selling fruit and candy. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertaker George W. Healey on Branch street.

DUNN—James Dunn, a well known resident of West Chelmsford, died yesterday at Worcester. He is survived by two brothers, John and Matthew, and three sisters, Margaret, Sarah and Elizabeth. The remains will be brought to his home in West Chelmsford this evening by J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FUNERALS

CUMMINGS—The funeral of James Cummings took place Saturday afternoon from the chapel of Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons. Funeral services were held at the Immaculate Conception church, Rev. Fr. Flynn, O. M. L., officiating. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery. The bearers were James McLaughlin, Patrick Carthy, James Carthy, Andrew Shannahan, James McDonough and Edward Byrne. C. H. Molloy & Sons were the undertakers in charge.

LENNON—The funeral of Mrs. Helen M. Lennon took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Thorne, 15 Coral street. The services were conducted by Rev. James M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Appropriate selections were sung. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery. The bearers were James McLaughlin, Patrick Carthy, James Carthy, Andrew Shannahan, James McDonough and Edward Byrne. C. H. Molloy & Sons were the undertakers in charge.

FRENCH—The funeral of William H. French took place from his residence, 379 Bridge street on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. R. A. Greene, D. D., pastor of the Grace Universalist church. The bearers were Harry Clifton, Frank C. French, John Gregg and Mr. Miller. The burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery in charge of Undertaker George W. Healey.

RAFFERTY—The funeral of Daniel Rafferty took place Saturday afternoon from the home of his parents, John and Della Rafferty, 57 Hall street. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

REILLEY—The funeral of Madeline L. Reilly took place Sunday afternoon from the home of her parents, Patrick P. and Mary A. Reilly, 9 Ellis avenue, Pawtucketville, and was largely attended. There were many beautiful floral tributes including a large pillbox inscribed "Our Baby" from the parents, large sprays from Miss Anna Murphy, Miss Mary Reilly and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Reilly, and a large bouquet from Mrs. Gormley. The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

MIDDLE AGED WOMAN wanted for light housework and caring for two children. Apply four 54 North st. If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

12 SONDER YACHTS Struggle for Three Places on the American Team

MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 8.—A baker's dozen of sonder yachts began a week's struggle today for three places on the American team that will meet the Spanish boats next week in the international races for the President Taft and Governor Draper cups. The thirteen yachts will sail in two divisions and will be given three 12 mile races a day until Thursday night when the regatta committee of the Eastern Yacht club will eliminate all but three in each division. The survivors will then race two days more that the committee may finally determine the three best boats. It is expected that the Spaniards will arrive at Marblehead before the American trials are concluded. The Spanish challengers are the sonder yachts Mosquito II, Papoose and Chouta. These three little boats left Spain July 20 and are expected in New York on Thursday. They will be immediately shipped to Boston and the colors of the Federation of Spanish Yacht clubs are expected to fly in Marblehead harbor by next Sunday. The international races will begin Aug. 17. Of the thirteen yachts that started in the trial races today, only the Ellen, was built in 1906, seven, the Demon, Eel, Joyette, Lady, Skeezix, Spokane III, and Wolf in 1909, and five, the Beaver, Bonive, Clima, Harpoon and Sally XI, are the latest productions in this popular class of one ton boats. To the eye of the landman the thirteen American yachts are singularly alike except in the matter of color and cut of their mainsails. All are under the jib and main-

FOUND NOT GUILTY Man Was Charged With Larceny of Money

One of the most interesting as well as lengthy cases that has been heard in police court for a long time was aired before Judge Hadley this morning, when a hearing was given John Thomas, a young man, who it was alleged stole $73 in money from a safe in the rear of the store at 478 Merrimack street occupied by Frederick P. Crawford, who deals in barbers' supplies. The government offered three witnesses, while the only witness for the defense was the defendant himself. The court after considering the evidence in the case found the defendant not guilty, and ordered him discharged. Lawyer William A. Hogan appeared for the defendant.

The first witness was the complainant, Mr. Crawford, who after answering the usual preliminary questions, gave a description of the stores occupied by him in Merrimack street. He is a member of the Frye & Crawford Drug Co., which occupies the store at 478 Merrimack street, while the store just beyond in the same building and numbered 475 is occupied by him alone where he deals in barbers' supplies. The stores are connected in the rear where the safe is located. Witness during the course of his testimony said that the clerks in either store had access to the other store by passing through the rear room, also that it was necessary to go near the safe in order to go from one store to the other.

Continuing with his testimony, Mr. Crawford said: "I met Thomas once or twice previous to his visit to my place on Wednesday afternoon. At that time he told me that he had closed his barber shop in Paige street and had his furniture stored away and would like to have me dispose of it for him. I gave him permission to bring the stuff to the store and shortly before six o'clock Thursday evening the furniture was brought on a moving van to the shore. Thomas was with the men and he assisted in unloading the furniture. Everything with the exception of the mirrors was placed in the rear room, the latter being placed in the front shop. He named a price which he wanted for the furniture and I told him that I did not want to buy it, but that if he wanted to I would sell it for him. He seemed to be very anxious to realize on the articles at once, but I refused to buy and finally we agreed that he would try the different articles, placing on the tags the amounts which he wanted for each.

"At about that time I was left alone in the store and was called from one store to another on several occasions, leaving Thomas in the rear room alone. While I was waiting on a boy in the front store I heard my cash box, which was in the safe, rattle. I rushed into the rear store and found Thomas standing beside the safe. I turned the knob on the door and then turned the combination, looking the furniture. Thomas remained in the rear room for about an hour after that.

"During almost the entire time that we were conversing Thomas carried a big rubber coat over his arm and also had it on his arm while he was talking the furniture.

"About an hour before Thomas entered the place there was $73 in the cash box in the safe. There was $23 and some change in there and I placed

Women's Accounts

Women should have bank accounts—they stimulate thrift and independence.

Every care, courtesy and consideration is given women who transact their banking business with us.

We extend you an invitation to call and open an account.

THE OLD LOWELL NATIONAL BANK

25 Central Street
Incorporated 1828
Oldest Bank in Lowell.

Poland Water

For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.

Society Girl to Marry a Professor 76 Years Old

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—A romance of youth and old age was disclosed yesterday with the formal announcement that the Rev. Herriek Johnson, 76 years old, professor emeritus of McCormick Theological seminary of Chicago and a former president of that institution, is to wed Miss Margaret Dunnean, 22 years old, a society girl of Louisville. The announcement of the engagement was made by Mrs. Herriek G. Gray of St. Louis, a sister of Mr. Johnson, and with whom he has been living. Details have not yet been announced. Dr. Johnson's wife died about four years ago. He is widely known in the Presbyterian church and was moderator of the general assembly. Dr. Johnson and Miss Dunnean met a year ago at Atlantic City.

$50 there prior to the man coming because I had to meet a draft of $73 the following day. I did not know that the money was missing until the next morning when my bookkeeper notified me that it was missing.

On cross-examination witness said that the safe was open between about 4.30 in the afternoon and 7 o'clock at night. He admitted that although he heard the rattle of what he claimed was his cash box, when he returned to the rear of the store, he looked almost every place excepting in the safe, where he had left the box. He did not even look in the safe before he locked the door. He also said that he never said a word to Thomas about suspecting him of having been fumbling about the safe and that Thomas stayed around the store for an hour or more afterwards.

The young lady who acts as bookkeeper for both Mr. Crawford and the Frye & Crawford Drug Co. and takes care of the cash for Mr. Crawford said that she and Mr. Crawford were the only ones who knew the combination of the safe. She testified to the time of arrival of Thomas and the furniture, and corroborated to a certain extent the testimony offered by Mr. Crawford. She left the store at 6 o'clock, went home to supper and returned about 2 o'clock. She had no occasion to go to the safe that night. As a general rule she places the money taken in during the day in the safe at night when she closes the store, but on several occasions when she would lose her car if she went to the safe she has taken the bag of money and placed it in her desk. On the night of the alleged larceny she left the money in the desk. The next morning when she opened the safe she found that the box was missing. She later notified Mr. Crawford.

Joseph Miller, a salesman for the Crawford company, testified that on Thursday night he left his bag of money with the bookkeeper and went to supper. When he returned Mr. Crawford and Thomas were talking. Witness said he saw Thomas with a rubber coat over his arm but during a portion of the conversation the rubber coat was lying on an ice chest. He assisted Thomas in tagging the furniture. Later Thomas went to the front of the store and had an ice cream soda. Inquired for Mr. Crawford, saw him and then went outside the store and remained standing there for ten or fifteen minutes.

At this point counsel for the defense asked that the defendant be discharged inasmuch as the government had not made out a case, but Judge Hadley decided that he would like to hear the defendant's side of the story.

Thomas, after being sworn, testified as follows: "I formerly kept a barbers' shop in Paige street, but closed it about two months ago and stored my goods. I saw Mr. Crawford on Wednesday and as a result of our conversation I brought the furniture to his place of business. I wanted $35 for the stock, but he would not offer me more than $40. We finally agreed that the goods would remain in the store and when he sold them he was to turn the money over to me minus 25 per cent commission which I was to allow him. I then wrote out checks and with the assistance of one of the young men in the store tagged the different articles. While I was writing out the checks the rubber coat was on an ice chest or ice cream box nearby. I was left alone for about half a minute at one time that the telephone rang and Mr. Crawford went to answer it. I did not go near the safe, neither did I see him lock it.

After I got through tagging the articles I went to the front store and got a glass of ice cream soda and later saw Mr. Crawford. It was raining hard at the time and knowing that Mr. Crawford was going home I offered to let him take my raincoat, but he said he had his covered buggy in front of the store.

All the money that I had at the time was two cents and after staying around the store for a few minutes I went across the street and pawned a watch which cost me $35 for $2.50. I paid my gas bill out of that and Friday night about eleven o'clock the inspector called at my house and brought me to the police station and upon searching me found 83 cents, which was part of the money which I secured on the watch.

This concluded the case and Judge Hadley found the defendant not guilty and ordered him discharged.

Drunken Offenders

There were many drunks brought before Judge Hadley this morning despite the fact that it was released yesterday and early this morning. Of the number which appeared in court this morning 13 were Sunday drunks.

Patrick Fels was charged with drunkenness and entered a plea of not guilty. Patrolman Wesley A. Wilson testified that he found the man in front of his home in Andover street about 12.50 o'clock yesterday morning. He said that he had got on the wing car and finding that there were no more cars running and that he would have to walk to his destination he walked into the barn to rest himself. Inasmuch as he is on parole from the state farm he will be returned to that institution. Jeremiah F. Sullivan and Michael Burke, who are also on parole, will return to the farm with Fels.

Joseph J. McDermott and James McDermott, brothers, were in for drunkenness. James escaped with a $6 fine, but Joe was sentenced to four months in jail.

Lizzie Harris was given six months in jail. James Walsh will spend four months at that place and Catherine Boyle will remain there for the term of one month.

The following were assessed $6 each: Joseph Anasewicz, William Purcell, Thomas Severell, and Thomas F. Macdonald.

William Fleming and Frank McGovern were taxed $5 each and five first offenders were fined $2 each.

THREE INJURED

Patrick White, Mrs. Salome Johnpeter and a woman whose name could not be learned, were injured in an accident which occurred about seven o'clock last night on what is known as Dyers hit near Chelmsford, when the axle on an inbound Woburn car of the Boston & Northern broke and crashed into a telephone pole on the side of the road.

But for the pole the car would undoubtedly have toppled over an embankment and several of the passengers would probably have been fatally injured.

Mrs. Salome Johnpeter, aged 32 years, of 19 Pleasant street, was sitting on the third seat of the car, and when it crashed into the pole she was thrown from her seat and was bruised and shaken and suffered severely from nervous shock. She was rushed to St. John's hospital in a carriage. It is expected that she will have need of surgery sufficiently to go to her home within a day or two.

Patrick White of North Billerica, who was riding on the front seat of the car on the side which was damaged by the pole, was also cut and bruised to some extent. He was taken to his home in a carriage.

One other woman, a resident of Lowell, was also so injured that she had to be removed to her home in a carriage.

FUNERAL NOTICE

DUNKERLEY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. Dunkerley will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her son William Howarth, 46 West Fourth street. Friends are cordially invited to attend. Interment in the Edison cemetery in charge of Funeral Director James W. McKenna.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

CENSUS FIGURES

Will be Made Known About the Middle of October

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—By the middle of October, but scarcely before the people of the United States will know their own number, as revealed by the 13 census. The figures will not be given out until the count is entirely completed and minutely verified, and by that time every man, woman and child will know the total for himself, for the details for all such sub-divisions as states, cities and counties will have become known previously through the census office's announcements.

Some people think that Director Durand already knows now the exact number of population, but he declares "really and truly" that he does not. If so disposed, however, he could ascertain approximately the number of people somewhat in advance of this announcement to the public. This could be done by means of the preliminary count of the schedules which is made necessary for the payment of the enumerators for their services. The enumerating districts for each supervisor's area are numbered, and it is intended that each of them should contain one hundred names. As soon as they are received they are turned over to counters and a virtually active statement is thus made possible. Up to date the names in more than 55,000 of the 70,000 districts have been counted.

The process is moving forward rapidly and practically completed the population of the United States could be easily, by footing up the totals, arrived at. Mr. Durand, however, is not having the figures totalled, and he says that it is his purpose not to do so. He is not curious as to the outcome of his work. Nor will he be, for the population as it is what the result will show. It is known, however, that the census officials generally fall in with the popular idea that there are about 90,000,000 people in the United States. Between the census of 1890 and that of 1900, there was an increase of about thirteen millions, and only a slightly larger increase would now be necessary to bring the figure up to the ninety million mark. This result is arrived at by a purely arithmetical calculation, and not by any compilation of the figures recently taken.

About three hundred middle-aged men and women are engaged night and day in determining the figures which, when the final computation is made, will show the total population. All told, there are some eighteen hundred clerks employed in the census office in the compilation of all the facts gathered in by the field agents, but, while the greatest activity is directed toward the ascertainment of the population, there is still much doing in other directions. Indeed, a large number of those at work in the population division are engaged in classifying the facts relative to the sex, race, and other conditions in connection with the people numbered. Also, there are many employed in the manufacturing, agricultural and mining branches.

The first announcements, however, will cover only enumeration figures, and these will continue for two months and a half. The sociological and industrial figures will come later, and will be announced as a rule in special bulletins prepared by the bureau itself.

Up-to-date population figures have been given on two states only, Rhode Island and Oklahoma, but many announcements have been made for cities, towns and counties in various parts of the country. All the returns so far given to the public have been prepared to meet the especial demands of the localities affected. In Rhode Island, for instance, there is to be a reapportionment for legislative purposes, and in Oklahoma the franchise is involved. Texas has state laws affecting county administration, and has made a special demand upon the bureau. There also have been some extensions of a legal nature from various cities in Illinois, as from some other states. From this time forward, however, these requests will receive comparatively little attention, and as a consequence, the regular work of the bureau will proceed more rapidly.

The director's intention is first to tabulate the population of the large cities, and after the announcements for these centers of population shall have been made, the figures for the states will be given out as they are ascertained. The returns for all the counties of each state will be announced at the same time that the state figures are made public.

Many of the announcements are likely to be delayed beyond the time when they may be expected by the public. This delay, if it occurs, will be due to the necessity for careful scrutiny of all the schedules. All of the enumeration sheets are counted from three to four times, and if there is any error, or even if there is any circumstance indicating a possibility of an error, an investigation is ordered, and if necessary a correction is made. In two cities, evidence of fraud has been discovered, and in one, Great Falls, Montana, a prosecution has been undertaken for fraudulent enumeration. In Massachusetts, all of the figures have been withheld to accommodate the state in some of its own statistical work.

Contrary to the general opinion, all the counting of the people is done by hand. The tabulating machines, of which several hundred are employed in the office, are used only in classifications as to race, sex, and other conditions.

The census office is a busy place. The present force of clerks will be increased eventually to about 2000. There are two shifts of them, one working from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4:30, the other taking up the work at the latter hour and going forward until 11 o'clock at night.

Combining enumerators, special agents and supervisors, no fewer than 50,000 people will have been employed in the work of the thirty-third census by the time it is completed. So far about six million dollars have been expended upon it, and it is probable that the total cost will be about fifteen million dollars. Of this sum twelve million dollars has been appropriated by congress.

NEW COMPANIES
Have Been Formed in This State

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The following new corporations filed the required articles of incorporation last week with the secretary of state:

Doll's hospital, incorporated, of Boston, capital stock $10,000, "to carry on the business of manufacturing, buying and selling at wholesale or retail and of repairing all varieties of dolls, dolls' clothing and accessories, etc.," the incorporators being Almee V. M. Hockaday of Medford Hillside, Herman LaLue Brown and Elias Field of Boston, the Manhattan Grocery & Provision company of Boston, with a capital stock of $500,000, the incorporators being Henry C. Richardson of Brookline, Joseph H. Solida of Dedham, Harry D. Partridge of Dedham, Geo. P. Holbrook of Wills and Bertha W. Glover of Brookline.

Investor's Laboratory company of Boston, capital stock, $50,000; Oneimus Medical company of Boston, capital stock $125,000; Massachusetts Junk Collectors' corporation of Boston, capital stock $5000; Lester Sales company of Boston, capital stock $50,000; Hatfield Union Storage company, capital stock $6000; Marshall Supply company of Lynn, capital stock $25,000; Mawhinney Art company of Pittsfield, capital stock $5000; Stearns & Waterman Co. of Boston, capital stock $50,000; Andrew M. Casack Co. of Boston, capital stock $25,000; Atlantic Machine Supply company of Boston, capital stock $15,000; Interchangeable Rubber Sheet Co. of Boston, $50,000; Essex County Medical Institute Co. of Lynn, capital stock $10,000; Guildford, Kendrick & Ladd of Boston, capital stock $50,000; Moving Picture company of Massachusetts Boston and New York, capital stock $10,000; New York Leather Co. of Boston, capital stock $50,000; T. H. Crane Co. of Foggara, capital stock $10,000; German Rubber Co. of America, Boston, capital stock $15,000.

FELL FROM WINDOW
CHILD BADLY INJURED WHILE AT PLAY

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The childish play of two-year old Theodore Chiquette and his older sister, Florence, in a bedroom of their home, 241 Border street, East Boston, early last evening, ended fatally for the little boy, who is in a dying condition at the East Boston reformatory hospital.

In the excitement of play the little boy, to avoid being tugged, is said to have jumped onto a chair which was near an open window, and losing his balance fell into the yard below, a distance of about 15 feet.

The father and mother rushed out and picked the boy up and hurried him to the hospital with him, where upon examination it was found he had sustained internal injuries.

A. O. H. NEWS
The report of the treasurer of Division 1, A. O. H., Brockton, read at a meeting last week, shows that during the past six months one thousand four hundred and twenty-five dollars was paid in sick benefits. A communication was received from State President John J. Rogers, urging the members to attend the Lowell convention and state parade. Carroll B. Dandy and James Lucey are the official delegates from the division.

The Juvenile Cadets of the A. O. H. of Boston have voted to participate in the state parade in this city. Captain

Owen McGivern is in charge of Company A, and Captain Peter Dineen is at the head of Company B.

More than seven thousand tickets have already been sold or secured for the field day to be held at the Locust street grounds, South Boston, on Labor day, under the auspices of the Suffolk County A. O. H. At the regular meeting of the committee next Friday evening in Hibernian hall, B street, South Boston, the sub-committee on sports will report that the best hurdling teams and football clubs in this vicinity will compete that day.

A series of conferences with Chief Marshal O'Sullivan of this city on the final arrangements for the state parade on Aug. 24 is being held. The arrangements for the parade have been made on an elaborate scale. It is the purpose of the chief marshal to make it the greatest procession of the organization in Massachusetts. Prizes are being offered to the officers of divisions and uniformed military companies of the state, for the largest in number and best in appearance of the visiting contingents in the parade.

The chief marshal has issued a circular to the presidents of divisions informing them that the line will be made up by counties.

All Hibernian military companies will appear in the military division, with Adm. Gen. John McCarthy of Fall River as commander. Special places will be reserved for the members of the Ladies' auxiliary, who will ride in floats. The state convention, to be held the day following the parade, will be opened with solemn high mass in one of the city churches. The celebrant will be the Rev. Philip J. O'Donnell of Boston, state chaplain of the order. Aside from the election of state officers, the principal feature of the convention will be the address of State President Rogers, who will report on the deliberations and decisions of the Portland National convention.

MUNICIPAL BAND CONCERT
The City band gave an excellent concert on the South common last night, and several thousand people were present to enjoy the music. The program was a varied one and carried out in a manner which elicited much applause.

The GILBRIDE Co.

OUR AUGUST SALE OF Brass Beds, Enamel Beds, Bedding

BEGINS TODAY A Special Invitation Is Extended to Hotel Keepers, Proprietors of Lodging Houses and Other Institutions.

THIS IS THE YOUNGEST DEPARTMENT IN THE STORE AND IT HAS PROVEN ONE OF THE MOST SUCCESSFUL. AT THE VERY START WE LAID DOWN A POLICY—"THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE COMPATIBLE WITH THE VERY BEST QUALITY"—AND WE HAVE NEVER DEVIATED FROM THAT PRECEPT. BY ADVANTAGEOUS FOREHAND BUYING WE ARE ABLE TO START THIS SALE WITH VALUES THAT WILL LEAVE A LASTING IMPRESSION.

The Choicest Selections Ever Known In a Special Sale Are Here

ALL THE BRASS BEDSTEADS ARE CAREFULLY MADE AND FINISHED WITH THE NEW PROCESS OF LACQUERING BRASS ON A HOT SURFACE, WHICH IS PRODUCED BY AN ELECTRIFIED HEAT PASSING THROUGH THE TUBES OF THE BEDSTEAD AFTER THE PARTS HAVE BEEN ASSEMBLED AND THE BEDSTEAD SET UP. ALL THE BEDDING OFFERED IN THIS SALE IS MADE UNDER THE STRICTEST SANITARY CONDITIONS AND WE GUARANTEE THE MATERIAL TO BE JUST AS REPRESENTED.

The finest collection of Metal Beds ever brought to this section and at the lowest prices in this August Sale we ever heard of. This is the opportunity of a lifetime to buy a first class bed at the price of a cheap one.

WHITE IRON BEDS

$3.50 All Iron Bedstead, straight foot.....$1.98
$5.00 Brass Trimmed Iron Bedstead.....$2.98
$6.50 Continuous Pillar, Extended Foot, Bed.....$3.98
$7.50 Brass Rail and Brass Nap Iron Bed.....$4.98
$9.00 One Inch Brass Rod Continuous Post.....$5.98
$12.00 Bessemer Steel Bed, with heavy brass spindle.....$8.98
$16.00 Bessemer Steel Bed, with 3-4 inch brass hunk rods.....$11.98
And about 20 other different designs and prices.

IRON COUCH BEDS

$7.00 Drop Side Couch Beds complete with mattress, August Sale.....$4.98
$9.50 Sliding Couch Beds complete with mattress and pillows; can be separated and make two couches or two single beds. August Sale price.....$5.98

BRASS BEDS

$22.50 Full 2-inch post Brass Bed, with seven fillers and double head rods.....14.98
$35.00 2-inch post with 2-inch top rod and seven 1-inch fillers, heavy 2 1-2 inch T balls on corners.....22.50
$40.00 2-inch continuous post and heavy hunk rods, and seven 1-inch fillers.....28.00
$65.00 continuous 2-inch post Brass Bed with 13 1-inch fillers and heavy T balls on each spindle, extra heavy hunk.....38.00

BED SPRING SPECIAL

All iron, guaranteed standard quality National Spring.....$2.49

THE ANNUAL AUGUST SALE OF BLANKETS

A yearly bargain occasion upon which we spend months in an endeavor to excel in quality and value-giving worth. A sale wherein the saving is not problematical but so unusual that you can note the price advantage at a single glance.

69c pair, 10-4 Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border, only 2 to a customer.....19c each
98c pair, 11-4 Full Size Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border.....79c pair
$1.25, 11-4 Extra Heavy Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border.....98c pair
$2.25, 11-4 Soft Finish Blankets, in gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.49 pair
$2.50, 11-4 Wool Finish Blankets in tan, gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.69 pair
$3.00, 11-4 Wool Finish Blankets, in tan, gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.98 pair
$3.50, 12-4 Extra Heavy and extra large Blankets, in white and gray, in pink and blue border. Special.....$2.49 pair
$4.50, 11-4 Extra Heavy Beacon Blankets, silk bound.....$3.49 pair
$7.00, 11-4 Wool Blankets, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$5.00 pair
$8.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$6.00 pair
$10.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$8.00 pair
$11.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$9.00 pair
$12.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$10.00 pair
$15.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$12.00 pair
$1.25 each Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton.....98c each
$1.50 each, Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton.....$1.25 each
$2.49 each, Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton.....$1.98 each
$3.00 Sateen Comforters, extra heavy.....$2.49 each
$5.00 Best Quality Sateen Comforters.....$3.98 each
$6.50 Down Puffs, full size.....$5.00 each
$7.50 Down Puffs, full size.....$6.00 each

August Sale of Household Linens, Bed Spreads, Towels, Sheets and Pillow Cases

Prices reach their lowest level during this August sale. It's the one special sale to which our patrons annually turn for the coming season's supply. These prices will astonish you. They surprise even us.

Sheets, Pillow Cases and Spreads

89c, 81x90 Full Size Extra Heavy Sheets at.....69c each
98c, 81x90 Full Size Extra Heavy unbleached Sheets at.....75c each
19c Hemstitched Pillow Cases, at.....15c each
15c, 45x36 good quality Pillow Cases at.....12 1-2c each
$2.00 Crochet Bed Spreads, extra weight, at.....$1.49
$2.98 Marseilles Spread. Special price.....$1.98

TOWELS

17c Turkish Towels, good size at.....12 1-2c each
19c Turkish Towels, extra size at.....15c each
25c German Hand Towels at.....19c each
12 1-2c Round Thread Crash Toweling, all linen, 9 1-2c yard
15c Pure Linen Crash with white, red or blue border, at.....12 1-2c yard
50c, 18x45 and 54 in. Scarfs and Squares to match, 39c each

All of our Fancy Linens, such as scarfs, squares, doilies and centre pieces, slightly soiled, will be sold at less than 1-3 of regular price.

TABLE DAMASK

50c, 60 in. good quality Table Linen at.....39c yard
72 in., 98c extra heavy pure linen at.....79c yard
With Napkins to match at $1.95 doz.

THE AUGUST SALE OF RUGS

Is the ONE supreme opportunity of the year where the savings are so strikingly magnetic that you owe it to yourself to anticipate your wants. Rugs of all sizes and patterns, contracted for months ago, are here, from one mill only; several mills of world-wide reputation are represented in this sale—Schofield, Mason & Co., of Philadelphia; S. Sanford & Son, Amsterdam, N. Y.; Bigelow-Lowell Carpet Co.; Alexander Smith & Sons, Yonkers, N. Y.; Firth Carpet Co., Firthcliffe, N. Y.; and other mills.

In order that other dealers cannot get any quantity of these rugs we will not sell over two Room Size Rugs to any one customer. These sale prices are lower than wholesalers can get them from the mills.

BRUSSELS TAPESTRY RUGS

Made by Sanford & Sons, Amsterdam

$7.75 6 ft. x 9 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$4.98
$9.75 7 ft. 6 in. x 9 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$6.98
Beautiful Patterns for Dining Room or Living Room
$15.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$10.98
As Is—NOT Mismatched—Rugs
Genuine Full Five Frame Body Brussels Rugs
Manufactured by Schofield, Mason & Co., Phila., Pa.
9 ft. x 12 ft., worth $32.50. August sale price.....$25
Absolutely perfect in every way.

BIGELOW, LOWELL, AXMINSTER RUGS

$25.00 8 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. August Sale.....$16.95
$30.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. August Sale.....$18.50
$3.50 30x60 Axminster Rugs.....$2.19
$5.00 36x72 Axminster Rugs.....$3.50
Slightly imperfect.

MATTRESS SPECIAL

Combination Mattress, heavy grade ticking, nicely made with cotton tufts. A regular $6.00 value. August sale price.....$3.90
OTHERS UP TO $20.00

Sensational Sale of HODGES' FIBER CARPET CO. RUGS

Remember the copyrighted name Fiber on the genuine. Not "Fibre," which is an imitation.
$10.00 6 ft. x 9 ft. Rugs. August Sale.....$3.95
$12.00 7 ft. 6 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. Rugs. August Sale.....$5.95
$14.00 8 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. Rugs. August Sale.....$6.95
$15.00 and $18.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. Rugs. August Sale.....$8.95

There are four different qualities of fiber and a lot of wool and fiber, all grades, are in this sale at the same price; so attend early if you want the plums. Lot of small rugs at 39c, 49c, 79c, 98c, etc., worth double.

Nervous?
Sleepless?

Knocked out by hot weather? Sanford's Ginger will put you on the track again. It overcomes exhaustion, allays nervousness, centers the blood at the stomach and promotes refreshing sleep.

Sanford's

Ginger quickly checks disturbances of the stomach and bowels due to excessive heat, unexpected change of temperature, and unripe fruit, bad water or unwholesome food. Delicious, refreshing, strengthening and always healthful.

Look for the Owl Trade Mark on the wrapper. It guarantees the standard of purity, flavor and strength. A delicious combination of ginger, lemon and French Vanilla. Sold by druggists and grocers everywhere.

CARDINAL GIBBONS TWO CABINET OFFICERS WATCH ALASKA ELECTIONS AND PROBE FEDERAL OFFICES

World is Approaching Reproduction of Age of Extravagance

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—That we are closely approaching a reproduction of the age of extravagance and inordinate pleasure in which the Romans lived just before their city was destroyed is the belief of Cardinal Gibbons. He made that plain in an interview yesterday.

Cardinal Gibbons is spending a few weeks with Rev. Fr. James F. O'Hara of Southampton, L. I.

"Yes," said the cardinal, "I think we are very closely approaching the age of extravagance and inordinate pleasure enjoyed by Rome just before her fall. The cry today is for more and more riches. The rich man is greedy for more. He seems to never have enough to satisfy his desire. It is the same with the well-to-do. The cry is the same everywhere."

"Then there is the desire for inordinate pleasures. We have many more channels of pleasures than there were in the days of Julius Caesar, yet there is the desire for new pleasures and for greater enjoyments."

When the cardinal was asked what he thought would be the result of this condition of extravagance, he replied: "I believe the gospel of Christ will save the situation. There was not Christ, you remember, to save Rome. I hope the people will see their folly and realize the true situation. The spirit of self-denial, unselfishness and love of the principles of Christ's teaching will be practiced by the people. Then more largely and will save where Rome could not be saved."

"This great desire for riches is making people very selfish," he went on with deep earnestness. "I do not speak of individuals, for we have many generous ones among the rich, but I wish that more of them would be a little less selfish and a little more considerate of the unfortunate."

The cardinal spoke of the great extravagances of women and added, significantly, that the women of Rome were very extravagant, too.

"But I do not care to enter into any discussion of that subject just at this time," he added.

As to the comparative degree of happiness enjoyed by the rich and by the poor, Cardinal Gibbons mentioned the European peasants, who live on simple food with much contentment, and who have good appetites and good digestions which, he added, cannot be said of all the rich men of this country.

"Do you mean Mr. Rockefeller?" was asked.

"Oh, there are several," replied the cardinal, smiling. He went on: "I think this little story illustrates this difference pretty well."

"A certain nobleman was taking an early morning walk through the forest. He suffered greatly with indigestion. He met a peasant carrying a gun. The poor man had come out early to hunt, as the forest contained much fine game."

"The peasant was surprised to meet anyone at so early an hour, and, not recognizing his lordship, inquired: 'What are you in search of at this hour?'"

"I came out here, my man, in search of an appetite," replied the nobleman. "And you?"

"I came out here in search of something to satisfy my appetite," replied the peasant.

"After all," said the cardinal, rising, "nothing pays so good returns as good health."

ATTORNEY GENERAL WICKERSHAM

SECRETARY NAGLE

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 8.—Great interest attaches to the elections that are to be held here soon for several local offices and the seat of delegate to congress. Secretary of Commerce and Labor Charles Nagle and Attorney General Wickersham are both in Alaska and will remain until after the ballots are counted. At the famous Treadwell mines, where thousands of miners are employed, charges of fraud were made and several scores of special deputy United States marshals sworn in to prevent illegal voting. Besides watching the election, the two cabinet officers are visiting various government stations and inspecting affairs of the federal offices. This is the first time in years that two cabinet officers have visited Alaska at the same time.

KING ALFONSO

Again on Board the Shamrock

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 8.—King Alfonso again tempted fate by sailing aboard Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, disregarding the accident of Saturday when the Shamrock, with the king aboard, lost the tonnage in the still breeze. The Shamrock, having repaired the damage, is again meeting its old rival of former seasons, the White Heather, in the race for the Commodore's cup. A. S. Cochran, American schooner Westward, which did not start in the races last week sailed under the handicap system, entered today in the race for the international gold cup which is sailed under the close measurement rule. The Meteor and Germania allow the Westward a minute and is seconds in the 18 mile course. These three yachts, together with the Cyclo and Sassano, started in the race, the Cyclo getting across the line first with the American boat a close second. The Meteor made a bad start, being blown across the line six minutes behind the other boats.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR WEEK

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—This is the real beginning of Knights Templar week in Chicago. A hundred thousand Knights were expected to arrive today, arrayed in full uniform for the 31st triennial convocation which was opened officially Sunday with divine services in Orchestra hall. Today's arrivals included English foremost knight, the Earl of Easton, grand commander of the great priory of England and Wales, and his party, who later will give a reception to the officers of the order. The day will be given over to receptions to the incoming knights and at 4 p. m. the annual dinner of the grand recorder and correspondent will be given at the Chicago Athletic club. Tomorrow will be the first of the "big" days beginning with the biggest parade ever engaged in by Knights Templars. It will require three hours to pass a given point.

Wednesday the competitive drills begin and Thursday and Friday will be devoted to drilling, boating, a regatta and an unorganized tour of inspection of Chicago. Headquarters officials today estimated the guests to number 500,000.

JOHNSON TO MEET KAUFMAN

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Australia, where Jack Johnson won the championship, will probably be the scene of his next encounter with anyone who seeks heavyweight honors. The champion announced yesterday that in all probability he would head for the Antipodes next summer following his theatrical engagements in Europe. Jack said that he had a number of flattering offers from Hugh McIntosh, the promoter. McIntosh is on his way to the British metropolises where he will unfold his plans for a fight in England or Australia. The title holder said that if Langford or Kaufman wanted a match all he need do was to put up the money.

TO PASS ON ENGRAVERS CASE

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—To assemble all the facts in the controversy between half a dozen engraving companies and photo engravers union, number 3, the superior court today appointed Elbridge H. Anderson, master, to take evidence. Mr. Anderson will receive $50 a day for his services and will probably report to the court in about a month.

When a strike was declared last month for the purpose of enforcing recognition of the union, Folson & Sanderson obtained an injunction from Judge Richardson who in his opinion said:

"The strike was ordered and made because the plaintiffs refused to sign articles of agreement and now left the employ because of fear of their standing in the union. The initiative of a strike ought to depend upon free action of employees. A strike ordered to minimize a shop goes much too far."

WILL FIGHT FOREST FIRES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—President Taft has authorized the use of troops to fight forest fires in Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

ASKS A PARDON

As Reward for Making Mathematical Discoveries

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 8.—Ascertaining that he has made mathematical discoveries which will have a sweeping influence on that science, Michael Angelo McGinnis, serving a ten year sentence for forgery in the Missouri penitentiary, has asked to demonstrate his discovery to any committee of mathematicians Gov. Herbert Hadley may designate if a pardon will be considered his just reward for success. It was learned today. His communication was sent to the governor through Dr. Simpson of Clarkson, Mo. Dr. Simpson says the discovery made by McGinnis is the reduction of the general equation of the tenth degree to an equation one degree lower. Among the discoveries claimed by McGinnis are:

First: That for the general solution of an equation containing literal coefficients there also lies a general logarithmic solution for its corresponding numerical equation, thus establishing a general method for solving numerical equations by logarithms.

Second: That he has found the exact ratio of the diameter of a circle to its circumference.

Since the time of Euclid, centuries ago, the ratio has been supposed to be 3.1415 plus. McGinnis says he knows just what the "plus" is. He says he has discovered the exact root of all numbers and that "imperfect squares" will be no more.

McGinnis is a descendant of John Napier, inventor of logarithms.

"I have known McGinnis for years," said Prof. Greenwood, superintendent of Kansas City schools. "He taught mathematics at a college at Wichita, Kan., also in southern Missouri. A brook of his on algebra, written, I am told, during a former term in prison, is a marvelous work. But for his use of intoxicating liquor this man would be an international authority."

"Mathematicians so far never have been able to solve literal equations containing the fourth degree. McGinnis says he can work them in the tenth. Erroring a general method for solving numerical equations by logarithms, have proved it impossible to work them above the fourth."

BIG INCREASE IN EXPORTS

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The July statement of the board of trade shows a decrease of $660,000 in imports and an increase of $14,500,500 in exports. The principal changes in imports were decreased $10,000,000 in food stuffs and an increase of $5,000,000 in rubber. In the exports manufactured goods showed the largest gains.

RIFLES WERE SEIZED

While on Way to San Sebastian by Authorities

BILBOA, Spain, Aug. 8.—Six thousand rifles were seized today by the authorities on board a tug which had chartered to go to San Sebastian where the anti-government demonstration was proposed to be held yesterday before the clerical leaders abandoned the manifestation. Local authorities at San Sebastian had held that the Christians were planning to take advantage of the Catholic manifestation to start a movement against the government. No statement, however, is made as to a party to the conflict who chartered the tug and loaded it with arms.

CITY IS QUIET

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Aug. 8.—The city is quiet today, no further attempts at demonstration having been made. The troops, however, will remain in the summer capital for some time yet. The authorities express the greatest confidence that the peace of the anti-government manifestation marks the end of Carlist and of any attempt at an insurrection in favor of the pretender, but they are plainly nervous as they fully realize the devotion of the peasant population of the Basque provinces. Sixteen priests and monks were among the persons arrested Saturday on charges of attempting to provoke disorder.

LOYAL TO VATICAN

ROME, Aug. 8.—The pope and Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, today received from Spain many telegrams expressing loyalty to the vatican in the conflict with Spain.

The telegrams were sent yesterday, having evidently been delayed by the Spanish authorities. The telegrams encouraged the Catholics to resist the anti-clerical movement in Spain, the senders assuring the pope and Cardinal Merry del Val that the movement does not find deep root among the Spanish people.

TROUBLE THREATENED

LISBON, Aug. 8.—Portugal, like Spain, is almost on the verge of an open rupture with the vatican. Due to friction over the governmental censure of the Roman Catholic archbishop of Braga for suppressing a Portuguese Franciscan newspaper without submitting the order to the Portuguese government for approval, and other incidents.

Danger also threatens the government from the side of the republicans on account of the refusal of the king to redeem the promise made by the government of amnesty for political offenders including the members of the secret societies involved in the assassinations of his father and brother. The government has been trying to appease the republicans by appointing prominent members of the party to important positions in the provinces. The monarchist press fears that this policy will enable the republicans to turn the machinery of the government against itself in future elections to the cortes, the results of Portuguese elections being largely swayed by the influences in control of the election machinery.

NO OFFICIAL NOTICE

MADRID, Aug. 8.—An official of the government stated today that the government has no confirmation of the report current in European capitals, that the pope has addressed a personal letter to King Alfonso asking the king to use his influence for a settlement of the conflict between the government and the vatican. He further denied that Spain had presented a protest to Austria against the conduct of Don Jaime, the Carlist pretender, who was an officer in the Austrian service.

BRITISH STEAMER BEACHED

London, Aug. 8.—Advises from Wick, Scotland, received today, report that the British steamer Indian, which was submerged during a fog, a hole being stove in her port side. She is beached at Sinclair bay. The Indian sailed from Shields August 5, for New Orleans.

THE FISHERIES CASE

THE HAGUE, Aug. 8.—Henry C. Brown, former associate justice of the United States supreme court, was a listener today in the New Foundland fisheries case before the arbitration tribunal. United States Senator Root, continuing his summing up argument for the American case, argued that neither in 1783 nor 1818 did regulations exist regarding the time and methods according to which the fisheries should be conducted off Labrador and New Foundland and that during the negotiations for the treaty of 1818 the negotiators were actuated by the understanding that England could not frame regulations for the fisheries except in cooperation with the United States.

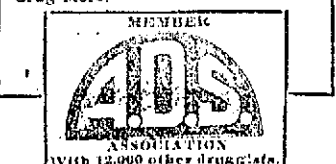

is the best cream made for the skin. If you have a red, rough, blotched, sore, unsightly skin, try this great product of the American Drugists Syndicate.

You can use it for massaging wrinkles and for a sallow complexion, as it whitens and beautifies, is safe, harmless and does not grow hair.

No woman who values her appearance and who wants a smooth clear skin should let a day go by without trying it for the face, neck, arms and hands.

Get it for 25c. at any A. D. H. drug store.

Frank J. Campbell, 255 Central St.; Falls & Burkinshaw, 418 A. Idlesax St.; Houle's Pharmacy, 462 Moody St.; R. J. Lang & Co., 374 Merrimack St.; Wm. H. Noyan & Co., 305 Bridge St.; John H. O'Neill, Lawrence St. cor. Wamesit; Routhier & Delisle, 632 Merrimack St.; Charles W. Tromblay, 415 Bridge St.; Fred Howard, 197 Central St.; John T. Sparks & Co., 747 Lakeview Ave.

Hour Sales All Day Tuesday

We have planned a series of sales for Tuesday. Every item advertised is extraordinary. Look the list over and see if you could earn money easier.

9 to 10 A. M. Your choice of all our Panama Skirts selling at $6 and $7..... Large and small waist bands.	10 to 11 A. M. All our Dresses selling at $5 and $6, at... 2.90, 3.90
11 A. M. to 2 P. M. Long, Loose Silk Coats, $12 to $20 styles, at..... Here are bargains that you can not afford to miss.	7.00 Slip-on Raincoats, gray and tan shades, all sizes..... 3.95
2 to 3 P. M. Long, Loose Silk Coats, $12 to $20 styles, at..... Here are bargains that you can not afford to miss.	3 to 4 P. M. Your choice of 100 Suits selling at $15 to $25, tan, reseda, gray and Copenhagen blue..... 8.90
4 to 5 P. M. 50 Coats in Serges, Sicilian and Rajah; coats that sell at $12 to $20. Choice.....	5.95
5 to 6 P. M. $3.50 Bathing Suits in all sizes to 44, 3 dozen only in the lot, at.....	1.98
All Day We Will Sell Waists That were $1.50 and $2.00, at..... And $4.00 Silk Petticoats.....
95c 2.90

New York Cloak and Suit Co.
12-18 JOHN STREET.

WON DOUBLE HEADER

Lowell Gave Lawrence Two Bad Trouncings

Batted Three Spicket Pitchers for 25 Hits While Wolfgang and Parsons Were Invincible — Cooney Makes Six Hits in the Two Games

Some 2500 fans yelled themselves hoarse with delight at Spalding park Saturday afternoon, when the home team redeemed itself by vanquishing Lawrence twice to the tune of 7 to 1 and 8 to 1, knocking out three of the Spicket City's crack pitchers, Maybohm, Pearson and Hicks. They made 11 hits off Pearson in the first game; seven off Pearson in one-third of an inning and seven off Hicks in five and two-thirds innings, making six runs in the first inning of the second game. In the first game Cooney made four hits, while in the second game Cooney made two hits out of four times up.

In the first game the strong wind robbed Fitzpatrick of a home run over the left field fence. The ball appeared to be going over the fence and high over at that. Just as it reached the top of the wind caused it to drop and it struck the top part and bounded back to the field. Fitz making a two-bagger out of it. Many people were confident that the sphere had gone over and couldn't see where the fielder got the ball to hold Fitz on second.

In both games the home team fished well, while Wolfgang and Parsons were both in great form.

First Inning

There was no scoring in the first inning. Miller hit to Boutles and died at first. Kyle died to Fitzpatrick and Bannan followed with a true pass; but Crisham was third out on a fly to Fitzpatrick.

In the latter half of the inning Blakely hit to Carl and was out at first. Fitz hit to Parsons and was out at first. Cooney made the first hit in the game sending the ball to center field for a single. Magee hit to Miller for a single. Cooney at second and the side was retired.

Score—Lowell 6, Lawrence 0.

Second Inning

The visitors started the scoring in the second inning by sending one man across the plate, but Lowell's hoodoo had a strong grip and the home team failed to rally.

Catterson opened the inning by hitting to Fitz and being retired at first. Carleton got hit by a pitched ball and a minute later stole second. Noyes singled to left field and Magee fell asleep with the ball allowing Carleton to score. Sebastian singled and Maybohm flied to Tenney. Miller hit in front of the plate and reached first on Sullivan's throw. With the bases filled Kyle hit to center field for a single. Sullivan was much quicker on his feet and nailed the runner at first.

In Lowell's half Tenney flied to Kyle. Fitzpatrick singled by short stop, but when Sullivan hit to Miller, the latter tagged Fitzpatrick and then threw the ball to first for a double.

Score—Lowell 6, Lawrence 1.

Third Inning

Bannan foul flied to Boutles and Crisham hit to left field but was caught while trying to purloin second. Catterson drew a base on balls and was called while trying to steal second. At this point Carleton was taken out of the game and Kruger sent to shortstop. Boutles opened the latter half of the inning by going out on strikes. Wolfgang hit an easy fly to Catterson but the latter dropped it and the runner got on first. Blakely flied to Kruger and Fitzpatrick flied to Bannan.

Score—Lowell 6, Lawrence 1.

Fourth Inning

Lowell tied the score in the fourth inning. Kruger flied to Blakely, Noyes hit to Cooney and died at first. Senus

7-20-4
10c Cigar
Factory's output now upwards of half-million weekly. Largest selling brand of 10c cigars in the world.
Factory, Manchester, N. H.

CLEAN OUT SALE OF Lawn Mowers
ALL OUR $3 TO $4 MOWERS WE OFFER AT $2.29
"MONEY BACK IF NOT SATISFACTORY"
(Our Guarantee)
Ervin E. Smith Co.
43-45-47-49 MARKET STREET.

NATIONAL LEAGUE STANDING

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Chicago	62	32	66.0
Pittsburgh	54	39	58.1
New York	54	39	58.1
Philadelphia	47	47	50.0
Cincinnati	47	47	50.0
Brooklyn	43	51	45.8
St. Louis	39	55	41.2
Boston	36	58	38.4

AMERICAN LEAGUE STANDING

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Philadelphia	55	31	63.7
Boston	55	31	63.7
New York	52	34	60.4
Detroit	56	37	59.8
Cleveland	44	50	46.8
Washington	42	52	44.7
St. Louis	36	58	38.4
St. Louis	28	66	30.1

N. E. LEAGUE RESULTS

Saturday Games

At Lowell: (First game) Lowell 7, Lawrence 1; (second game) Lowell 8, Lawrence 1 (called at end of seventh inning by agreement).

At Worcester: (First game) Worcester 1, Fall River 3 (15 innings); (second game postponed on account of darkness).

At Haverhill: (First game) New Bedford 7, Haverhill 5; (second game) New Bedford 1, Haverhill 0 (called at end of eighth inning by agreement).

At Lynn: (First game) Lynn 4, Brockton 2; (second game) Lynn 1, Brockton 3.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RESULTS

Sunday Games

At St. Louis: Philadelphia 6, St. Louis 0.

At Chicago: Chicago 4, Washington 0.

At Detroit: Detroit 4, New York 0.

Saturday Games

At Cleveland: Cleveland 5, Boston 2 (first game); Boston 3, Cleveland 4 (second game).

At Detroit: Detroit 5, New York 6.

At St. Louis: Philadelphia 6, St. Louis 3 (11 innings).

At Chicago: Washington 5, Chicago 1.

EASTERN LEAGUE RESULTS

Sunday Games

At Rocky Point: (First game) Rochester 6, Providence 0; (second game) Rochester 7, Providence 5.

At Newark: Toronto 8, Newark 7.

At Jersey City: Jersey City 5, Buffalo 4.

N. E. LEAGUE GAMES THIS WEEK

Monday.

Fall River at Lowell.
New Bedford at Lawrence.
Brockton at Worcester.
Lynn at Haverhill.

Tuesday.

New Bedford at Lowell.
Lawrence at Haverhill.
Fall River at Lynn.
Brockton at Worcester.

Wednesday.

Lowell at New Bedford.
Lynn at Lawrence.
Brockton at Haverhill.
Worcester at Fall River.

Thursday.

Lowell at New Bedford.
Brockton at Lawrence.
Haverhill at Lynn.
Worcester at Fall River.

Friday.

Lowell at Fall River.
Lawrence at Haverhill.
Lynn at Brockton.
Worcester at New Bedford.

Saturday.

Lowell at Fall River.
Lawrence at Brockton.
Lynn at Haverhill.
Worcester at New Bedford.

GAMES TODAY

American League

Boston at Cleveland.
Philadelphia at St. Louis.
New York at Detroit.
Washington at Chicago.

National League

Pittsburgh at Boston.
St. Louis at New York.
Chicago at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at Brooklyn.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The O. M. C. Cadet Juniors, defeated the O. M. C. A. team by the scores of 12 to 1 and 12 to 3 Saturday. The Cadets got 18 hits in the first game to the Y. M. C. A.'s 4.

The Pawtucket Grays and the Orioles divided a double header Saturday afternoon, the first game going to the Grays, 10 to 7, and the second to the Orioles, 10 to 3. The batteries for the first game were: Orioles, Deporter and Clarke; Grays, Sturtevant and Clark.

The Amity campers defeated a team of Centralville Saturday afternoon at Long pond by the score of 12 to 8.

The U. S. Buntings defeated the fast going Tynsbury team Saturday afternoon by the score of 17 to 11. The feature was the batting rally of the Buntings in the 5th inning when they batted Pitcher Stone for 10 runs and the game. The pitching of Curtin for the Buntings was good. Errors being responsible for the large score. Batteries, Curtin, Funnell and Trainor, Stone and Whipple. The Buntings want a game for Aug. 13 with any team in or out of the city. Write G. M. Roberts, 21 Potter street, city.

DIAMOND NOTES

Double-header with Fall River today.

Tyler and Yount and Wood and Boedient, all big league propositions, will work today.

What a difference from Wednesday's game! Watching Saturday's game one would believe that Lowell had a team composed entirely of natural born hitters.

Poor Pearson received a most complete trouncing. Lowell made seven hits off him in one-third of an inning. Then a new pitcher comes in and Parsons to keep the good work going on cracks a single off him right off the reel.

Wolfgang and Parsons both pitched classy games.

Tommy Catterson has fully recovered from his illness and is as fast as ever.

Umpire Lanigan was right on the job Saturday and there were no justifiable kicks.

The N. E. League fight for the pennant is the closest and most interesting to be found in any league. It's a four-cornered battle with Lowell trailing along with the hope of making the first division.

Six hits out of 10 times at bat is what Cooney did with his bat Saturday. In the second game he got four strikes out of four times at bat. In the first game, two out of four. Between Cooney and Tommy Devine of Fall River the honor of Jamaica Plain isn't suffering in the N. E. League.

The fans had a lot of fun with Jimmie Bannan, especially after he had dropped an easy fly. Bannan accepted the chaffing gracefully.

If the Lowell team would play as well nearly all the time as they did Saturday, we'd be safely in the first division ere long.

STANDING OF CITY LEAGUE

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Chippewas	8	1	88.9
South Ends	6	1	84.4
Solid Jers	1	1	50.0
Shawbills	5	3	60.2
Glenmoors	5	7	59.1
Y. M. C. A.	4	6	40.0
Princeton	3	8	26.9
Tigers	0	8	0.0

AT CHELMSFORD: Chelmsfords 6, Quakers of Lowell 4.

At Merrimac, S. H. Pellums 4, Merrimacs 2.

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

THE ZIONS WON

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Zions went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 25 to 18 and had three wickets to spare. W. Briggs

TO ERECT BLEACH HOUSE

It is reported that the Hamilton Mfg. Co., in Jackson street, contemplates the erection of a large bleach house and that the company will give its operatives a ten days' vacation sometime before Labor day.

WHITE PINE SEED

What State Forester Rane Has to Say—

The Massachusetts state forester, F. W. Rane, requests the newspapers to call the attention of the public to the numerous green cones to be seen on the white pine trees in many sections of the state at the present time. These cones will mature about the latter part of August or the first part of September and it is possible that many people, particularly those interested in nature study or forestry, may care to collect some and extract the seed. This will give some active boys or others who like to climb trees an opportunity to have a reason for so doing. A pamphlet entitled "How and When to Collect White Pine Seed" can be had free of charge by dropping a postal card to the State Forester, 6 Beacon street, Boston. This pamphlet goes into detail but the main points at present are to locate the trees containing the green cones and then plan to collect them before they drop their seed. When they ripen the scales on the cones open up and two seeds each having wing attachments drop out and fly over the surrounding country. To secure the seed, therefore, the cones must be collected before this happens. Mr. Rane reports the squirrels already bearing the pine cones apart and eating the seeds which go to show that over at this date the seeds are fairly well formed. If collected before they begin to turn brown, however, the cones are plucky and disagreeable to handle and too it is a question whether the seed would be good. A bushel of cones will yield about a pound of seed when they are extracted.

If anyone desires further instruction about planting and growing the young trees after they have harvested the seed, the state forester's office will gladly assist them with still further information and directions.

ENJOYABLE TIME

Whist Party Held at Hampton Beach

One of the leading events at Hampton beach last week was the grand whist party given in honor of the Lowell visitors. The party was held at the hotel which is one of the largest and most popular hotels on the beach. Mr. Ashworth, the proprietor, kindly gave the Lowell guests the freedom of the parlor, which is a very large and spacious room, and was the largest dining-room for their exclusive use. The house was filled with people and progressive whist was the order of the evening. Some very large scores were made. After two hours of whist, time was called and after the scores were counted it was found that William Gookin had won the grand prize. The party was a success and the guests were most cordially received. The party then retired to the dining-room, where a dainty lunch was served, after which an entertainment program was given. The party was considered one of the largest and most successful that has yet been held at Hampton beach and one of the things that helped to make it such a success was the fact that the hotel is so large and roomy and is presided over by such a genial host as George Ashworth, who is considered by everybody to be a prince of good fellows.

Among the people present at the party were the following: Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McGuire, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Slattery and family, Dr. Dorgan, Mrs. Dorgan, Mrs. James Gookin, Mrs. John Gookin, Mrs. Miss Mary Dunn, Miss Julia Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. James Kelley, Mr. William Gookin, Mr. John Adams, Miss Margaret Cawley, Miss Kittie Cawley, Miss Alice Donohoe, Miss Kittie McQuaid, the Misses Fitzpatrick, Mr. Joseph Gaggery, Mrs. John H. Moore, Mrs. Mary Gookin, Mrs. M. J. Gookin, Mr. and Mrs. John Nolan, Mr. of Lowell; Miss H. W. Ford of Haverhill, Mrs. John Hickey of Brighton, Mr. and Mrs. Moore of Jamaica Plains. Others were present from Newburyport, Dorchester, Worcester and Somerville.

NO SHORTAGE

Of Pulpwood for the American Market

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Despite the policy of the government of Quebec, Canada, prohibiting the exportation of pulpwood out on crown lands subsequent to May 1, 1910, the fact is no apprehension of a pulpwood shortage for their province for the American market, according to a report from Gehard Willich, American consul general at Quebec.

"Competent authorities say," reports Mr. Willich, "that only about fifteen per cent of all the pulpwood out of this province was cut on crown lands; the percentage, while not considerable, was sufficient to provide the sale at fair prices of large quantities of such wood cut on private lands which has accumulated in large quantities. Despite the new policy of the government the market for pulpwood has been poor. The report further shows that the second largest article of export from Quebec in 1909 was wood pulp, representing a value of nearly a million. The value in 1909 was $217,184, an increase in two years of over 100 per cent.

In contrast to the foregoing figures are the export figures for pulpwood, all for which is taken by the United States because its bulk prevents transportation across the ocean. In 1908 the exports of pulpwood to the United States amounted to 10,476 cords valued at $197,662 in 1909, 10,781 cords valued at $225,827. Exports declared at this consulate of pulpwood by water as well as by rail show a value of $436,186 during 1908 and of $1,150,029 in 1909, making an increase of $713,843 for last year.

BRIGHT, SEARS & CO.

BANKERS AND BROKERS
Wyman's Exchange
SECOND FLOOR

BOXING GOSSIP

The bouts this week are:

MONDAY

Mike Glover vs. Ted Nelson and Matt Wells vs. Paddy Sullivan, New York.

Eddie Curtis vs. Willie Gibbs, Memphis.

Cy Smith vs. Bert Keyes, Albany.

Chas. Brown vs. B. Dwyer, Glens Falls, N. Y.

TUESDAY

Bill McKinnon vs. Jimmy Gardner and Joe Kelly vs. J. Thippen, Portland, Me.

A. Wolgast vs. Freddie Cole and Earl Denning vs. J. Albanese, Muncie, Ind.

Charley Sieger vs. J. Waltz, New York.

WEDNESDAY

Sam Langford vs. Al Kaufman, Philadelphia.

Jeff Doherty vs. Jack Nelson, New York.

Abe Attell vs. Eddie Greenwald, Winnipeg.

THURSDAY

Tony Ross vs. Jim Smith, New York.

Bill McKinnon vs. Kyle Whitney, Webster.

FRIDAY

Stanley Ketchel vs. Bill Lane, New York.

SATURDAY

Freddie Welsh vs. Jack Ward, Hull, Eng.

RACE TRACK NEWS

S. C. Hildreth's failure to start Fitz Herbert in the Saratoga handicap on Thursday has provoked much severe criticism. Hildreth's plea that the famous Kithreth horse could not to himself justice in the muddy going with no stand the acid test in view of the fact that Fitz Herbert was the Jockey Club Weight for Age race at Babylon on May 15's excellent track. On that occasion Fitz Herbert, who ran in J. E. Madden's colors, defeated Grassie handily and ran a mile and a far longer in 1:34. The going did not seem to

THE SHAW HOSEERY

The Shaw Stocking company is to close its plant from August 13 to 23.

RAIDED BY POLICE C. T. A. U. CONVENTION

Men and Women Found in Exclusive Club in Newport

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I. Aug. 8.—After standing guard single-handed for more than nine hours, after a midnight raid on the Narragansett club, which he had led, Constable John G. Cross was yesterday placed under arrest on a warrant charging him with assault and was taken from the clubhouse and to police headquarters.

He did not leave, however, until he had secured a good survey of the place and its fittings and had stuffed his pockets with chips, balls and other articles which he intends to use as evidence in substantiation of charges of gambling.

Cross, acting at the instigation of a number of prominent residents of Narragansett, went to the club with four assistants. They experienced little difficulty in securing admittance and, according to Cross, stood for a full minute in the doorway watching some 30 prominent men and women gathered about roulette wheels, a faro bank and a game of hazard.

Then he ordered the crowd into a corner and proceeded to take their names. Some of the men and women he easily recognized because of their prominence and the others gave names which it is believed were in most instances fictitious. The people were formally summoned to appear in court on Aug. 22.

Meanwhile Cross had dispatched two of his assistants for teams with which to cart away the fittings of the rooms, but once they were outside the doors were locked and they were not able to get back again. The other two assistants were finally induced to leave and Cross was thus left alone on guard.

During the early morning the constable succeeded in getting word of his predicament to the outside world and some time later Asst. Atty. Gen. Harry P. Cross took a hand in the matter and asked Chief of Police James D. Caswell to go to the constable's aid.

The police, however, could not get into the place at the time. Some time later a warrant was sworn out for Constable Cross, charging assault upon an employee of the club, and officers again visited the place.

This time they secured admittance and the constable was placed under arrest. He was immediately bailed out, but in the interim, he says, all evidences of the gambling which he alleges was taking place when he raided the club, except that which he carried in his pockets, was spirited away.

When he first entered, he says, there were three costly roulette wheels, a faro bank and a game of hazard, all of the latest and most approved type and with the most expensive fittings.

ROSE PITONOF

The First Woman to Swim to Boston Light

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Little Rose Pitonof, of Dorchester, Boston's marvelous 15-year old schoolgirl swimmer, must be accredited with the laurels and glory that go with the proud title of champion female swimmer of the world, for yesterday the diminutive, but intrepid young woman swam from the pier at Charlestown bridge to Boston light, a feat never before accomplished by one of her sex and only once before beyond question by a human being.

The wonderful little girl dived off the harbor end of the pier beneath the big bridge connecting Charlestown and Boston at 11:30 and after battling with the waves, riddles, cross currents, wind and changeable temperature of the open waters of the harbor for six hours and fifty minutes she gripped the jagged rocks from which rears the whitewashed beacon, a fraction less than ten miles away at 6:35. Then she nonchalantly scrambled up over the rocks and greeted Levi B. Clark, the lighthouse keeper, with a smile and a hand-shake that would have made an ordinary man wince.

With the utmost unconcern Rosie listened to the cheers that were shouted toward her by the small group of attendants and erstwhile competitors that accompanied her in rowboats, dories and launches; to the distant shouts of acclaim that floated over the waters from the soldiers on the parapets at Fort Warren, and to the shrieking of steam sirens and whistles on passing craft, as she clambered up the jagged, rocky beach.

With the praises of the small, but intrepid gallery ringing in her ears her first thought, after she had calmed her nerves after the terrible ordeal, was of the members of her immediate family who had accompanied her on her long, arduous battle with the waves.

They were about the small naphtha launch, which had been chartered the day before, and she was greeted by the smiles and nods and kisses waited from the tips of her berry-brown fingers.

Then the stocky little phenomenon of the water was hurried into the light-house and her attendants, including her joyous father, Eli Pitonof of Freeport street, Dorchester, rubbed and massaged her flesh until it glowed like the flower from which she took her name.

Although still in the depths of girlish coyness over her accomplishment, the powerful young swimmer was in danger of chills from her long stay in the unusually cold water, and after she had been thoroughly rubbed and massaged, she was divested of her swimming trunks and shirt, hustled into an extra thick bathrobe and enveloped in blankets.

her father, Eli Pitonof of Freeport street, Dorchester, rubbed and massaged her flesh until it glowed like the flower from which she took her name.

Although still in the depths of girlish coyness over her accomplishment, the powerful young swimmer was in danger of chills from her long stay in the unusually cold water, and after she had been thoroughly rubbed and massaged, she was divested of her swimming trunks and shirt, hustled into an extra thick bathrobe and enveloped in blankets.

With the utmost unconcern Rosie listened to the cheers that were shouted toward her by the small group of attendants and erstwhile competitors that accompanied her in rowboats, dories and launches; to the distant shouts of acclaim that floated over the waters from the soldiers on the parapets at Fort Warren, and to the shrieking of steam sirens and whistles on passing craft, as she clambered up the jagged, rocky beach.

With the praises of the small, but intrepid gallery ringing in her ears her first thought, after she had calmed her nerves after the terrible ordeal, was of the members of her immediate family who had accompanied her on her long, arduous battle with the waves.

They were about the small naphtha launch, which had been chartered the day before, and she was greeted by the smiles and nods and kisses waited from the tips of her berry-brown fingers.

Then the stocky little phenomenon of the water was hurried into the light-house and her attendants, including her father, Eli Pitonof of Freeport street, Dorchester, rubbed and massaged her flesh until it glowed like the flower from which she took her name.

Although still in the depths of girlish coyness over her accomplishment, the powerful young swimmer was in danger of chills from her long stay in the unusually cold water, and after she had been thoroughly rubbed and massaged, she was divested of her swimming trunks and shirt, hustled into an extra thick bathrobe and enveloped in blankets.

With the utmost unconcern Rosie listened to the cheers that were shouted toward her by the small group of attendants and erstwhile competitors that accompanied her in rowboats, dories and launches; to the distant shouts of acclaim that floated over the waters from the soldiers on the parapets at Fort Warren, and to the shrieking of steam sirens and whistles on passing craft, as she clambered up the jagged, rocky beach.

With the praises of the small, but intrepid gallery ringing in her ears her first thought, after she had calmed her nerves after the terrible ordeal, was of the members of her immediate family who had accompanied her on her long, arduous battle with the waves.

They were about the small naphtha launch, which had been chartered the day before, and she was greeted by the smiles and nods and kisses waited from the tips of her berry-brown fingers.

Then the stocky little phenomenon of the water was hurried into the light-house and her attendants, including her father, Eli Pitonof of Freeport street, Dorchester, rubbed and massaged her flesh until it glowed like the flower from which she took her name.

Eye Glasses at Less Than Half

Broken Lenses replaced, Gold Filled Riding Goggles, $2.00, Aluminum Glasses, $1.00, Finest Eye Glasses, $1.00.

Office hours 10 to 8, Sundays 2 to 4. Closed Wednesdays.

J. W. GRADY, GRADUATE OPTICIAN, Rooms 418, 419, 420 Wyman's Exchange Building, City Center and Merrimack sts. Telephone 1644.

A Burning Question

THE COAL SUPPLY

Make up your mind to have the most satisfactory kind mined by ordering from William E. Livingston Co., 15 Thorndike St. Business Established 1828

Vanguard of the Temperance Body Has Arrived in Boston

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The vanguard of visitors to this city for the 49th annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America arrived here yesterday morning, when more than 500 of the uniformed regiment from the neighborhood of Wilkesbarre, Pa., came into the South station and later in the day went into camp at Castle Island.

This morning at 10 o'clock the camp will be dedicated "Camp Wilkesbarre." The regiment came to the city from Providence, having arrived there very early in the morning from New York, from which city they sailed Saturday night on one of the sound boats. The regiment is composed of companies from the inland section of Pennsylvania, and they were glad to get a glimpse at the salt water and happy that their camp had been pitched on an island where they would get the salt breezes for the whole week.

The train that brought the regiment up to the city from Providence was followed by a second section, and aboard this was a party of half a hundred young women from Wilkesbarre, Pittston and other towns in the neighborhood. The young women were for the most part sisters of the boys in the regiment and others who took advantage of the week's outing.

The visiting young women were met by a delegation of the women's temperance organization of St. James' church and escorted to Cheverus hall, Harvard street, where they were registered and then taken to the Commonwealth hotel, where the Pennsylvania party will have their headquarters for the week.

Crowds Visit Castle Island

In addition to the Pennsylvania contingent there were many more arrivals of delegates and visitors, and the advance number reaching town yesterday would seem to indicate that quite a large number will be in the city for the week.

The chief interest of yesterday centered in the Wilkesbarre regiment. This is the only uniformed regiment in the United States affiliated with the Catholic total abstinence movement, and the local workers were pleased with the good showing the organization made.

Throughout the afternoon and last evening it was quite apparent that the people of the city, too, were much interested in the regiment, for late in the afternoon it was estimated by many who are familiar with the crowds that go to Castle Island for Sunday afternoon that the crowd there during the afternoon was greater than any previous Sunday this summer.

The band concert and evening parade held about sundown attracted great numbers.

Col. William S. Murphy and the other officers of the regiment were pretty busy during the greater part of the day getting the camp in condition, and a leader in this work was Major Patrick Gibbons, one of the most prominent members and a general favorite with officers and men.

The major seemed to know about everything that was to be known and everyone appeared to be looking for him. The major is in himself a genius for getting things into shape and his ability is that won from good, hard practical experience.

Major Gibbons, like practically all the other members of the regiment is a soldier the whole way through. When the Spanish war broke out he jumped into the service at the first call and went to Cuba and then to the Philippines, serving for a part of the time as adjutant of the Pennsylvania regiment.

Imbued with the spirit of it all, the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Devey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the service and was one of the men who was entrusted with that gigantic and successful tour of duty.

He came on here in charge of the advance detail to prepare the camp at Castle Island, and though he had but 48 hours in which to do it with a dozen men, he had the place in ship shape yesterday morning when the regiment arrived and everyone said, "Well, Maj. Gibbons was on the job."

There are many other members of the regiment who have seen military service too, quite a number of the boys being Spanish war veterans, and the whole command is a well-disciplined, well-organized outfit that speaks well for the idea.

The train bearing the regiment arrived in the South station at 7:15 o'clock, and as soon as the men were off the cars they were placed in convenient restaurants for breakfast. They were assembled at the station at 3:30 o'clock and marched to St. James' church, Harrison avenue, where a special mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock.

To Have Mass Every Morning

Rev. Fr. J. J. O'Malley of St. Mary's church, Wilkesbarre, was the celebrant of the mass, and during the stay of the regiment he will be the chaplain.

It was announced during the week that each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the church the regiment was escorted by about 100 boys comprising a part of the Temperance cadets of the St. James' church. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan P. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the mass was the governing board of the St. James' church, one of the oldest in the city.

Each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the church the regiment was escorted by about 100 boys comprising a part of the Temperance cadets of the St. James' church. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan P. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the mass was the governing board of the St. James' church, one of the oldest in the city.

Each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the church the regiment was escorted by about 100 boys comprising a part of the Temperance cadets of the St. James' church. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan P. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the mass was the governing board of the St. James' church, one of the oldest in the city.

Each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the church the regiment was escorted by about 100 boys comprising a part of the Temperance cadets of the St. James' church. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan P. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the mass was the governing board of the St. James' church, one of the oldest in the city.

Each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the church the regiment was escorted by about 100 boys comprising a part of the Temperance cadets of the St. James' church. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan P. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the mass was the governing board of the St. James' church, one of the oldest in the city.

Each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the church the regiment was escorted by about 100 boys comprising a part of the Temperance cadets of the St. James' church. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan P. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the mass was the governing board of the St. James' church, one of the oldest in the city.

Each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the church the regiment was escorted by about 100 boys comprising a part of the Temperance cadets of the St. James' church. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan P. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the mass was the governing board of the St. James' church, one of the oldest in the city.

In charge of the cadets. The Paulist cadets of New York city will also arrive Tuesday.

Rev. Fr. M. A. Lambing, V. F. of Scotland, Pa., president of the Priests' Total Abstinence league, reached here yesterday morning and registered at the Parker house. While the C. T. A. U. convention is in progress the priests' league will also hold its sessions. The headquarters will be at the Parker house.

The headquarters of the C. T. A. U. will be at the Adams house. Other arrivals yesterday included Rev. Fr. J. V. Moylan of Nanticoke, Pa., and J. Washington Logue, who with a party motored here from Atlantic City.

It is expected that quite a large number of state and archdiocesan delegations will arrive during today and the western tourists' clubs will begin to put in an appearance late tonight and tomorrow. The local officers are confident that the 49th annual convention will be the most successful in the history of the C. T. A. U.

LIEUT. J. E. BURNS

To Coach the Bay State Rifle Team

First Lieut. James E. Burns of Company C, Sixth regiment, M. V. M., of this city, who is a member of the rifle team picked from the state militia for the annual national matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, left with the other members of the team Saturday.

Besides being a member of the team, he is also to act as coach of the Massachusetts aggregation.

The Massachusetts team is to take part in all of the big matches of the tournament, the national matches, the events under the auspices of the National Rifle association and others.

The tournament this year is expected to be the biggest and most important of any ever held in the United States. Teams from all branches of the regular service and from the National Guard of the various states and the District of Columbia will take part.

SECTION BOSS

Was Stabbed by One of His Help

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8.—Maurice O'Brien of 18 Maplewood terrace, Middleburg, who is employed by the Boston & Albany railroad as a section boss on the West Springfield division, was seriously stabbed on Westfield road last night, his throat being cut from ear to chin.

Mr. O'Brien was walking along Westfield road with William Whalen, and when near Black Brook in Tullahoma, they were overtaken by three men riding in a wagon. O'Brien spoke to the men, who had evidently been drinking, and advised them to make less noise.

This was resented by one of the three, for drawing a knife he leaned over the side of the wagon and made a lunge at O'Brien, opening up an ugly gash about five inches long, extending from the left ear to the chin.

The men in the wagon drove on quickly and Mr. Whalen assisted the injured man to the home of E. A. Benedict. O'Brien was taken to the Springfield hospital in the ambulance. The knife did not reach the arteries and it is expected that O'Brien will recover, although he is very weak from loss of blood.

Chief E. A. Phelps of the West Springfield police was notified and started at once in chase for the three men. The Springfield and Chicopee police were also notified to look out for them.

No accurate description of the three men in the wagon can be given, although Mr. Whalen believes he can identify the man who did the stabbing.

GOING TO REVERE

ANNUAL OUTING OF FEDERAL SHOE CO.'S EMPLOYEES

The Federal Shoe company's employees are making arrangements to turn out en masse, at their annual outing, which is scheduled to take place at Revere beach on Saturday next.

Notwithstanding the fact that this is the company's busy season, everything being now on the "rush," the management, which at all times takes a kindly interest in the social affairs of its employees, has decided to close down the entire plant for the day.

Shirley Smith, the popular superintendent of the Federal, will accompany the party to the beach. An interesting feature of the day's program will be a "decision" ball game between two yet undetested teams composed of Federal employees, which will take place at Orient Heights.

ALL READY FOR A. O. H. WEEK

Mr. C. F. Young, the local decorator, has just returned from Providence, where he was engaged as official decorator for the recent celebration there. Mr. Young has also been engaged as official decorator for the A. O. H. week in Lowell. Those intending to decorate for that occasion should place their orders early with Mr. Young.

Mr. Young has no agents representing him. He gives all orders his personal attention and to be in keeping with the spirit of the times we should patronize home industries. Telephone 1348, or address C. F. Young, 733 Central street.

LOWELL MAN

TO HAVE CHARGE OF WALTHAM PUBLIC LIBRARY

Orlando C. Davis of this city has been elected librarian of the Waltham public library, and he will assume his new duties on Sept. 1. Mr. Davis while attending high school was connected with the local city library and is well versed in the work. During his college course at Dartmouth he was also connected with the college library. During the past three years since his graduation from Dartmouth he has been cataloguer of the Dartmouth college library and has been in charge of the reference room.

BANNER BLESSED

A beautiful banner, representing the apparition of the Virgin to Bernadette at Lourdes, was blessed last night at the Church of Notre Dame de Lourdes. It was Rosary Sunday and a procession of the members of the Congregation of Notre Dame de Lourdes, to whom the banner belongs, was held after the Rosary service. Rev. Fr. LaMoigne, O. M. I., blessed the banner and preached the sermon.

The Bon Marche

Monday Evening Sale

FROM 6 TO 9.30 O'CLOCK ONLY

HANDKERCHIEFS (Near Door) Fancy colored border handkerchiefs for fancy work, variety of patterns. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 3 for 25c
BELT PATTERNS (Art Dept.) New designs stamped for embroidery on mercerized corded belt. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 10c
SHELL BARRETTES (Near Elevator) An extraordinary bargain in barrettes and back combs, shell and amber, in a large variety of kinds and patterns; sold regularly from 10c to 25c. See special window display.	MONDAY EVENING 7c
MIDDY BLOUSES (Waist Dept.) Regulation style, soft twill cotton, broadcloth collar of blue; some few are white; sizes 32 to 40; regular prices 79c and 98c.	MONDAY EVENING 59c
SATEEN PETTICOATS (Second Floor) Deep flounce, extra full, Jersey top; sold at ways at $2, $2.50 and $3.50.	MONDAY EVENING 98c
FLOOR MOPS (Basement) Spring end mop stick and heavy cotton twine mop; regular price 35c.	MONDAY EVENING 21c
TRIMMED HATS (Millinery Dept.) 25 Grass Hats, trimmed with silk in all colors; regularly sold at 98c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
MISSIE VESTS (Underwear Dept.) Lisle Vests, low neck and sleeveless, fancy yoke; regular price 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 2 for 25c
SILK SHIELD BOWS (Men's Dept.) All colors, good quality poplin. Regular price 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 11c
WOMEN'S HOSE (Street Floor) Fine gauge cotton, black and tan, ribbed top and plain; all sizes. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 10c
MOIRE RIBBON (Street Floor) All Silk Moire Taffeta, 5 inches wide, colors, white, pink, and blue; regularly 20c.	MONDAY EVENING 19c
STORM SERGE (Dress Goods) All wool, navy blue-storm serge, 42 inches wide for vacation suits or for school wear. Regular price 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
INFANTS' DRESSES (Second Floor) White lawn dresses, lace and hamburger trimmed, sizes for 6 months to 2 years. Regular prices 75c and 95c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
CHILDREN'S SHOES (Shoe Dept.) White canvas low shoes, sizes 5 to 8. Regular price 49c.	MONDAY EVENING 29c
TOILET SOAP (Street Floor) Cocoa Oil Buttermilk Soap, large cake. Regular price 10c.	MONDAY EVENING 3c

WE CALL ATTENTION

To the fact that another Big Bargain Sale is in preparation at our store. Look for the two-page ad in Thursday's papers for further particulars.

B. & M. ENGINEERS DROPPED DEAD

Enjoyed Outing at Canobie Lake Park

A merry party of about 500, comprising members of Boston division 61, long since you were home," said Mrs. Abbie Brown, 62 years, when her son, Charles of Lowell, Mich., entered her home after a long separation. With these words she dropped dead. She was so excited when her son appeared that heart trouble caused her death.

After Greeting Long Missing Son

SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 8.—"Oh, I am so glad to see you again, it seems so long since you were home," said Mrs. Abbie Brown, 62 years, when her son, Charles of Lowell, Mich., entered her home after a long separation. With these words she dropped dead. She was so excited when her son appeared that heart trouble caused her death.

Young Men's Christian Association Building

Scaled proposals will be received at the Young Men's Christian Association Building, Third street, Lowell, Mass., until 12 o'clock, noon, August 21st, 1910, for the erection of a four-story Young Men's Christian Association building in Lowell.

Plans and instructions to bidders may be secured by contractors at the Young Men's Christian Association Building every week day from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Proposals for constructing the entire building only will be received. Any person desiring to submit to general contractors bids for any portion of the general contract may obtain the requisite information at the same time and place. Copies of said plans will also be on file at the Builders' Exchange, Lowell, Mass., and at the Master Builders' Association, No. 106 Franklin street, Boston, Mass.

F. A. FLATTIEB, Chairman Executive Committee.

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.

Wm. Winslow's BOOTHBY'S SYRUP has been used for over SIXTY YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS FOR THEIR CHILDREN WHILE SUFFERING WITH PERIODIC COLIC, SCOURING, STOMACH DISTRESS, THE QUINSE, ALLAYS ALL PAIN, CURES WORMS, COLIC, AND IS THE BEST REMEDY FOR DIARRHOEA. It is a simple, harmless, reliable and safe for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pliotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

Well, what do you think of this? The state of Minnesota has such a surplus in the treasury that state taxes are likely to be omitted for the year 1911. Wait till the grafters of the east hear of this, then look for a big exodus to Minnesota.

While the police officers are enforcing the ordinance, preventing needless delay in the square, they might pull in a few of the wild joy riders who swing around the corners without any regard for the people getting on and off the cars. A few examples will bring these violators of the law to their senses.

WHERE THE BLAME LIES

It is rather amusing at times to hear prominent local republican politicians hold forth on the necessity of a city charter for Lowell which would take the city business out of politics. Yet everyone knows that nothing but the republican party and republican politicians and grafters prevent us from getting the kind of charter we need.

TOO GOOD TO LAST

In a circular letter sent out by a company manufacturing automobiles, soliciting subscriptions for increased capital, the statement is made that the profits run from 40 to 60 per cent. on the cars sold. If that's the case, then some one is in for a big bump when competition begins to get in its work. The Selden patent runs out in about two years, and then the trouble for automobile manufacturers will commence.

WE HOPE IT'S TRUE

We notice that a new industry is expected to come to Lowell through the efforts of the Board of Trade. People have been hearing so much in that line that they are likely to take as much stock in this new statement as in the frequently renewed story that Keill's theatre is to be built on Bridge street. We hope, however, that there is something more substantial to the last rumor than there has been to the theatre talk. All is well that ends well. If we get both the theatre and the new manufacturing concern, of course we will be thankful.

ONE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE

Don't stand around in idleness and say there is no opening for an ambitious man. If you cannot secure employment why not take up farming which offers greater inducements in New England today than ever before. Anyone can get started on a small farm who wants to work and become independent. The cost of living is high for everyone these days except the farmer. For him the cost of living is always the same. A good day's work always produces a good day's living and a little more for the farmer, no matter what the condition of the stock market or any other market may be. The most independent man in the world during good times and bad times is the farmer who is willing to work and let rum and style alone.

PEOPLE GET WHAT THEY VOTE FOR

People vote to put grafters in office because a majority of the voters like graft. If they thought differently they would vote differently. If the majority is wrong on this question perhaps they can be made to see their error. If they are right perhaps they will bring the minority over to their way of thinking and make it unanimous one of these days. Who knows? Many people believe in putting good, capable men in office, but the vast majority believe in putting small, cheap politicians in office, and that's why we have so many of them. The majority rules. The majority does not want economy in city affairs; if they did they would vote that way. There is a large element in every community who like to elect a man to high office who will act like a bull in a china shop. They enjoy the fun; they gloat over the destruction and the turmoil; in fact they like to go on a political spree once in awhile. These voters never count the cost, indeed they don't believe there is any cost to them, but when they wake up, as they do once in awhile, and realize that there is a cost, and that it comes out of their pockets in the end, they are apt to do some thinking. Isn't it about time that some voters did a little serious thinking hereabouts?

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY

The old slogan in labor circles used to be a fair day's pay for a fair day's work, and a proper slogan it was. Surely a man is entitled to a fair day's pay if he delivers a fair day's work. The justice of this principle is now generally conceded. But in some quarters employers are beginning to start a new slogan which in reality is the original one reversed. They argue that nearly every craftsman is now receiving a fair day's pay, and should deliver a fair day's work, and employers say they are justified in insisting upon this. If a fair day's work is worth a fair day's pay surely a fair day's pay should secure a fair day's work. But there is no denying that there is a growing tendency in many trades to pocket a fair day's pay, and then scheme and plan to see how small a day's work can be delivered for it. This, we are happy to say, is not very common as yet, but it is gradually creeping into many crafts which once were honorable, and it is a species of injustice that will surely bring disaster to those who practice it or deliberately wink at it.

The workman whose main object is to see how little work he can do, how few hours he can put in, and how much money he can get for loafing will sooner or later come to grief for he is dishonest. The honest workman who is willing to deliver a fair day's work for a fair day's pay will have steady employment when his tricky and dishonest fellow workman finds himself wondering why he cannot hold a steady job.

SEEN AND HEARD

Of all the greedy animals the big Alaskan bear at the Bronx zoo comes first, according to a keeper.

"Perhaps his size makes him unusually hungry, for there seems to be no limit to his appetite," the keeper says. "Two big chunks of meat and a dozen dollars of bread are thrown into the enclosure occupied by the big fellow and a grizzly. The grizzly seizes a piece of meat and goes into a corner to eat it. It is when the time comes for the bread that the Alaskan shows himself a glutton. The loaves are scattered over the enclosure and the big fellow proceeds to collect them in a heap. Some he carries in his mouth while pushing others along the asphalt with a paw. If the grizzly can grab a loaf and scurry away with it he is lucky. He is glad to get the crumbs left by his giant cage mate."—New York Sun.

The pair of slanders we recently got from South Africa present an example of domestic felicity that beats anything in the animal line we have had in a long time," said the keeper in the Central Park menagerie.

"In this case the female is the boss as she is three years older than her mate. Some observers might say that he was a henpecked spouse, but he is contented. In fact they are a happy pair as you can see by the way they churn together in the paddock. They are the handsomest and most graceful of all antelopes. There is a frank growl in one of the female's long horns which gives her a decided advantage in a fight as she can jab an opponent whichever way she swings her head.

"At meal time she keeps her mate off until she gets the best of the fender, but he doesn't seem to mind that."—New York Sun.

The female eland is simply acting the part of the wise and generous husband.

HER FAULT

She has so many matchless charms. Time fails me to recite them. Had I a pen of shorthand speed. 'Twould take a week to write them. She's fair of figure, fair of face. And even the most spiteful Admit her loveliness and grace— In short she's just delightful.

Her mental faculties are keen. She's wonderfully witty. She's something more than a fair doll And not just merely pretty. Yet one thing all my ardent checks— I cannot but disclose it— She is the fairest of her sex. But, oh, good Lord! she knows it! —Somerville Journal.

He laughs best who has his vacation last—provided it doesn't rain all the time he is away.

Now that dog days are here, it is almost time for the true pessimist to begin worrying for fear it is going to be unusually cold next winter.

Anybody who has ever been fishing will agree right away that it is much better fun to catch a two-pound trout than it is to clean it.

There are a great many people who pass for highly cultivated and who

A Chemist's Discovery

NEW REMEDY FOR ECZEMA AND OTHER SKIN TROUBLES

The most remarkable feature about Cadum, the new remedy for skin diseases, is that its beneficial action is seen in every case where it is applied. Not a single instance has been found where it failed to allay the terrible itching of eczema at once. People who have battled with this terrible skin disease and have tried everything without being relieved should take fresh courage, for the new remedy Cadum is different from anything else. It is the discovery of a chemist, who felt for years that the world needed a cure for eczema and other skin diseases, and as a result of his studies and experiments Cadum was the outcome. While possessing such remarkable powers in overcoming different forms of skin troubles, Cadum contains no dangerous ingredients. When applied over unsightly sores on the face and hands, it forms a thin, almost invisible coating, so that the disease is covered up while the healing process is going on. The 10c size is intended for trial purposes by those who wish to test its wonderful virtues in skin troubles such as hives, pimples, blotches, tetter, itch, acne, herpes, scaly skin, rash, psoriasis, ringworm, chafing, eruptions, sores, scabs, itching piles, scurvy, etc. Large boxes, 25c, at all druggists.

When You Know How

To select good burning coal, or if you know now—you will come to me with your fuel requirements aware of the fact that the mines whose output I represent send me nothing but the most desirable sort of condensed fuel. For my part, I deliver only a well seasoned article, of full weight, and have it at your door promptly. At ruling prices my coal makes for real economy.

Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

JOHN P. QUINN

Office and Yards, Gorham and Dix Sts. Take any Gorham street car. Telephones 1180 and 2480; when one is busy, call the other.

SAVE TIME AND MUSCLE

Goodale's Wash Clean

Will do it. We have customers who have used it for years and say it does not injure the clothes and saves 90 per cent. of the labor on wash day.

GOODALE'S DRUG STORE, 217 CENTRAL STREET

ST. THOMAS' SALVE

Piles, Old Sores and Skin Diseases

At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores

SPECIALS

Lobster salad, 25c; plain lobster, 30c; steamed clams, 20c; fried oysters and French fries, 25c; fried clams and French fries, 25c. Call and see us

LOWELL INN

Busiest place on Central street

have never read half of all that Shakespeare wrote.

Even if Noah Webster spelled strictly according to his dictionary, he allowed himself considerable variety.

The farmer, used to making hay, can't see why the city man should regard it as such a dreadful task to cut the grass on the front lawn with a lawn mower.

If there were no such thing as fashion, half the workmen in the world would lose their jobs.

The man who fusses about the weather not only increases his own discomfort, but he bothers every one around him.

When you are going camping in the woods, a can opener is just as important as a corkscrew.

A reporter sent to cover the recent auction at Huber's museum felt queer when the auctioneer chanted:

"Here we have a copy of the first American newspaper ever published in the Philippines. The American Soldier, edited by an American private on his own hook. This is the first copy printed in Manila."—New York Sun.

The reporter was himself the one time soldier editor. He bid that particular curiosity in.—New York Sun.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The post of Prof. Schlapparelli as director of the Milan observatory has been filled by Dr. Giovanni Celoria, who has been on the staff since 1878, and since 1878 has been professor of geodesy at the technical institute.

Miss Lucy Page Gaston, superintendent of the anti-cigarette league of America, has been elected to be an active campaigner against the use of cigarettes by women. Miss Gaston is the founder of the league.

Gov. Hadley has recognized the efficiency of the college of agriculture of the University of Missouri by placing in its charge all the charitable institutions and the county farms of the state. There are 114 county farms and 25 institutions. It is the plan to send inspectors around regularly. These inspectors will make reports to Dean Hadley and in this way the farms will be managed by the college of agriculture.

Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., one of the largest universities of the country, has a magnificent gymnasium, the gift of James A. Patton, the grain "king." The annual commencement exercises are now held in this building. Ernest Palmer, a graduate of the law school, who was one of the speakers at the last commencement, in the course of an address on "The workingman's day in court," asked "What was on this spot 75 years ago?" "I'll warrant," he continued, "that it was not a field of wheat, and it is more than likely that a bear was in possession." Mr. Patton's friends in the audience are reported to have applauded loudly at the sly reference to the famous "bull."

Rear-Admiral Winfield Schley, U. S. N., retired, has gone to Lake George to stay for the remainder of the summer.

Milo Proctor, who for the past sixteen years has been the operator of the state elevator at the state house, has been placed on the retired list at half pay. Mr. Proctor is a veteran of the Civil war, having served with the old Sixth Massachusetts. He is in his seventieth year.

Miss Frances Taft, Wellesley, 09, is soon to start for China, where at Peking she will work under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association of this city. While in her senior year at Wellesley Miss Taft was president of the college Christian Association. She will be accompanied to Peking by Miss Ruth Paxton and they are to be joined another year by Miss Anna Brown, who until that time will act as traveling secretary for the Student Volunteers, succeeding Miss Taft in that office.

Miss Susan D. Huntington, a graduate of Wellesley in the class of 1909, is to become director of the International Institute for Girls in Spain, and early in the fall will sail for Madrid, to assume her duties in that office.

On the White Star liner steamer Romanic, on her way to Italy is a party of New England men and their wives, who are going to Constantinople to take charge of the construction of the buildings of the American College for Girls. The party includes W. S. Hibbard of Boston, manager of the construction department; Alexander Wright, Boston, foreman mason; L. L. Griebel, of Providence, foreman carpenter; Clarence Mathewson, Providence, foreman stone-cutter and quarryman; George Eddy, also of Providence, master mechanic. Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Griebel and son complete the party. A large quantity of machinery and contractors' tools are being carried out for use of the native workmen. R. R. Kendall, of Boston, superintendent of construction for the architects, is already in Constantinople.

STABLE FIRE

GAVE MANCHESTER PEOPLE A BAD SCARE

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 5.—The city was given a scare at an early hour yesterday morning when an alarm of fire from box 21, at the corner of Merrimack and Pine streets, in a crowded tenement section, was quickly followed by two more alarms, calling out the entire fire department.

The fire had its origin in a stable at the corner of Pine and Laurel streets, and owned by the heirs of the late Nelson Hall. The blaze was spectacular and, as the flames ascended many feet in the air above the tops of the neighboring buildings, it was taken to mean that a large conflagration was under way and excited the residents pulled in the successive alarms, although not authorized by the fire department, which was able to cope with the fire on one alarm. The flames were confined to the stable except that a shed, 20 feet away, caught fire. The loss was small, and is covered by insurance. The stable was occupied by Joseph Pomeroy and Adam Bourgeois.

FOUND DYING

HAVERHILL MAN VICTIM OF GAS POISONING

HAVERHILL, Aug. 5.—James J. Devine, 54 years old, was found in the rear room of his store on Elm street, in the Bradford district, early yesterday morning, and he died at 2:15, an hour later, after three physicians had worked in vain to save his life.

Mr. Devine was found by Patrolman Smith and the cook in a small gas stove was open. A burned match found near the stove gives evidence to the theory of accident. His place was raided by the police earlier in the night.

REV. DR. BARTLETT

Preached From Former Pulpit Yesterday

Rev. W. A. Bartlett, D. D., of Chicago, formerly pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church, this city, occupied his old pulpit yesterday and preached to a large midsummer congregation. His text was the story of the breaking of the alabaster box of ointment, by Mary, the sister of Martha.

During the little controversy when Martha broke in upon the Master and Mary, asking if it was nothing to him, that Mary had left her to serve by herself, he said, "Martha, thou art troubled and anxious about many things; but Mary has chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her." His suggestion to Mary, to my mind, was that much of the anxiety and the trouble was unnecessary. Mary was giving him higher commendation by sitting at his feet and listening to his words, than Martha, by making a preparation which was superfluous.

From what we read, we know that trouble was in the air. The disciples did not understand his mission. Mary having sat at his feet, was surcharged with love for him, and with that deep intuition of woman, was conscious that evil was threatening him. She thought herself of something which she might do for this man who had bestowed so much upon her life. She remembered the box of extremely rare and costly nard, the most precious thing she had, that which might do her own person. She took this Syrian nard in her hand, and broke the box, and immediately the fragrance of the perfume filled the air. Then there arose the murmurs of an indignant body of men, who said, "Why this waste, this throwing away of money that might have been given to the poor?"

Judas had bargained with the high priests to sell the Lord for $18.80. It was the price of a slave in the Old Testament days. The value of Jesus in the eyes of Mary was the most precious possession that she had. Undoubtedly these murderous and grasping Jews would have given Judas a hundred times that sum, but his greedy and voracious soul took the first offer, and was glad to get it. And so you have the two extremes. Mary had sat at the feet of Jesus and heard his words and received the good teaching into her heart, and her life was illumined, ennobled, sweetened and refined. She had come into the possession of the secret of God.

Judas had never come into loving fellowship with Christ. Hence he was willing to sell him for the paltry sum of the price of a slave. How much is Christ valued at, by us? I think that some of the fanaticism of the church universal is because we have failed in the first place to sit at the feet of Jesus. We have heard so many voices and have been sitting at so many feet, that we have been shut out of the privilege of listening to him. Hence the religious obligation and the church relationships are light with us. When we have sat at his feet we say "What have I to give, in return for all that has been done for me?"

Sometimes I think that the word "economy" should never be heard in connection with the church. If we desire in our homes to renounce a little, very good. But Mary gave prodigally. I think every church ought to be doing something enlarging all the time. They tell me of the mills that are not in larger numbers, and that is not indication of lack of growth. Yet we say in our churches, let us minimize. Let the church have the mission of breaking her alabaster box of ointment.

Let us enlarge our borders individually. What is there in your life sweet and precious, laid out for yourself? Being it forth for the Master's use. Though you will hear some murmuring, you will also hear his voice saying "She hath wrought a good work upon me while I am alive."

Monday Bargains

Discontinued styles of $1.97 lingerie and silk waists, the biggest values of the season, all sizes but not in every style.

97c

Dutch neck dresses of sea island percale, unusual style and quality for

$1.50

Lingerie and silk waists, formerly priced $2.97, $3.97 and $5.00, now reduced to

$1.97

New styles of tailored white waists and $1.97 colored striped madras waists, now reduced to

97c

Lace and embroidery trimmed petticoats, deep flounce, finished with wide ribbon and heading, copies of $1.98 petticoats, now

97c

Lawn and gingham $1.50 and $1.97 dresses, now reduced to

97c

Cross bar lawn and black sateen tea aprons, look like the 25c kind, now

10c

The White Store

116 Merrimack St.

A.G. Pollard Co.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

More Specials for This Week

FROM THE

TRUNK and BAG SECTION

Besides our most unusual offering of $7.50 and $8.50 English Club Bags at only $5.00 each this week we offer these

100 Matting Cases

24 in. size, with solid brass lock and catches—Regular price $1.39, at only

98c Each

32 Sample Trunks

All sizes, regular prices $6.50, $7.00 and 8.50, at only

$5.00 Each

PALMER STREET, NEAR AVENUE DOOR

Basement Bargain Dept.

50,000 Yards of Best Prints

We have now on sale 50,000 yards of best quality Print Remnants, Hamilton and American Print, in light, medium and dark, all new patterns and guaranteed all fast colors; quality usually sold at 7c yard.

See Our Large Display, Palmer Street Window

Only 5c Yard

FOUR CASES CAMPING BLANKETS

Just received from the mill four cases of Camping Blankets, in fancy colors, stripes and checks, in very handsome coloring, all 11-4 size and good heavy quality, we offer the

$1.00 Quality	At 89c Pair
$1.50 Quality	At $1.10 Pair
$2.00 Quality	At $1.39 Pair

Now On Sale

About 50 Automobile Robe Samples

At a Liberal Discount From Regular Prices

About 50 Automobile Robe Samples bought from the manufacturer at a liberal discount from regular price. Plush on both sides and plush with rubber interlining, covert, heavy wool plaid, light, medium and heavy weight. Robes worth from $3.00 to $15.00. We offer the lot at about 25 per cent. less than regular prices.

On Sale at Blanket Counter—Basement

40 Inch Cotton

One bale of 40-inch Brown Cotton, good fine quality and easily bleached for pillow cases and sheets; 11c value on the piece.

At 7c Yard

Special for Tonight in Our Underprice Men's Furnishings

Men's 50c Summer Underwear, fine balbriggan shirts and drawers in all sizes; garments made of the best quality of trimming, ribbon facing, pearl buttons, drawers made with fine jenn waist band and double gussets; regular 50c value.

For Tonight Only 25c Each

EIGHT LIVES LOST

In Sunday Drowning Accidents in New England

KEENE, N. H., Aug. 8.—Patrick Moran, aged 28 years, of this city, was drowned about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Spragueville pond in 10 feet of water.

Moran was in a centerboard boat with four others—Axel Lagerberg, who was sailing the boat, Harry and John Hascombe and Louis Rowland, all of this city. They had been out about an hour and a half and had made several trips around the pond. The wind had not been steady and after tacking several times the boat shipped water and began to sink. Lagerberg was assisted to the shore while the Hascombes and Rowland clung to the side of the boat. Moran could not swim, and despite the endeavors of his companions to save him he sank and did not rise.

Moran was a reporter for a local paper. He came here from Fall River, Mass., where he had been connected with the Herald. He has brothers and sisters living in Fall River, Springfield, Mass., and Surry, N. H.

SANK AND NEVER ROSE

WARWICK, R. I., Aug. 8.—Returning to his wife and child on the other side of the channel at Oakland beach with a bag of quail eggs strapped about his neck, Arthur M. Turville of Providence, 40 years old, was drowned yesterday. The burden apparently proved too much for him. He had crossed the channel to dig the shellfish and had shouted to his wife that he would soon be ready to go home. He sank and never rose. The body was recovered.

SANDY RAMSAY DROWNED

MERIDITH, N. H., Aug. 8.—The first drowning in Lake Umbagog since this season occurred yesterday afternoon. Sandy Ramsay of Meridith accompanied Thomas H. Hatchelder, manager of the estate of Lewis K. Spear of Newton Centre, Mass., to Bear Island, opposite the Sprague farm on Meredith neck, to deliver cattle which were to be put out to pasture on the island. They went to L. C. Mansfield's landing and there one of the steers fell into the water, taking Ramsay with him. He weighed about 235 pounds and was 29 years old. He is survived by his wife.

SUDDENLY WENT DOWN

HOLYOKE, Aug. 8.—James M.

Crown, aged 24, married, was drowned while bathing in the Connecticut river near the ice houses just above Prospect park about 5 o'clock yesterday morning. He had taken a boat out a little way and while clinging to it suddenly sank. It is believed that he must have been seized with cramps, as he was known to be a good swimmer.

Patrick Lalley and three other young men who were some distance away attempted to find the body but failed. The police were notified and they dragged the bottom of the river but were unable to locate the body.

STEPPED OFF WHARF.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 8.—The body of James McNeil, 65 years old, a gardener, was found on the river shore near the Brewer bridge yesterday morning. In the other hand was his pocket knife and it is believed that he accidentally walked off the wharf.

McNeil was a well-known character about the city. He was called "Doc" McNeil, as he made and sold herb medicine.

CANOE WAS UPSET

HOULTON, Me., Aug. 8.—Harry Berry, 25 years old, son of Charles H. Berry, was drowned at Nickerson's lake yesterday afternoon. Berry and two friends were out in a canoe. His companions jumped into the water, upsetting the boat. The body was recovered in 15 minutes and physicians summoned, but life was extinct when they arrived. He leaves a wife and infant.

SANK WHILE SWIMMING

AUBURN, N. H., Aug. 8.—Albert Fay, 21 years old, who lived in Manchester, was drowned here yesterday afternoon in Tower Hill pond.

With eight companions young Fay arrived at the pond early Saturday evening on a fishing expedition. They went into camp on the shore. Yesterday afternoon, among their diversions they started to swim across the pond. When about 200 feet from shore Fay suddenly disappeared and did not again come to the surface. It is believed that he was attacked with cramps.

he has been training steadily at Traverse Island for this fixture.

When Johnny Mack, the Yale trainer, who is stopping at Winthrop beach, heard that his protégé was entered he remarked, "Kilpatrick has an excellent chance of winning the honor, because he seems to be the only other candidate outside of Sheridan who could defeat the field."

Kilpatrick was elected captain of the Yale track team last June. As an all-around athlete he has few equals and locally he seems to be the logical candidate to win the distinction of all-around champion.

Charley Kilpatrick, who is handling the boy, says there will be no danger of John R. Kilpatrick overtraining, because he will continue to keep in shape until next Wednesday. Bernie Webers, formerly of Georgetown, and now the New York A. C. trainer, will accompany Kilpatrick to Chicago as his trainer.

Seattle Entrant Promising

Reports from the Pacific coast speak very favorably of the ability of B. Gish, the Seattle entrant for the championship. Gish has been doing some all-around training since the summer season opened and claims that he is the best of shape for the event. Gish is well known throughout the country as a quarter-mile for the Seattle A. C. Very little has been said about the ability of W. Draper, who is entered from Notre Dame. He is regarded as one of the best short-patters in the country and it is said that he can sprint as well as he can toss the leaden pellet.

John H. Gillis of Vancouver, B. C., Archibald of Toronto, Austin Menaul of Chicago, J. H. Furey of Philadelphia, J. J. Elder of St. Louis, C. T. Quannan of St. Louis, R. G. C. Quannan of Chicago, W. W. Philbrook of Cleveland, Fred Thompson of Los Angeles, L. Byrd of Illinois, H. W. Fitzpatrick of New Orleans, and A. Brundage of Illinois are among the other entrants.

The system of scoring the all-around championships is based upon 1000 points for the record in any event and a fraction thereof is awarded for the record made by each athlete. In the sprints and hurdle races, Kilpatrick should at least score 1600 points. He was slowed by his knee in a football fall, but not enough to make any difference.

Kilpatrick's Chance

There are other star sprinters entered but Kilpatrick has the advantage of such athletes as Draper, Clark, Crawley, Fitzpatrick, Brédens, and Eller. He is also likely to make a high score in the shotput and should not be far behind in the 56-pound weight.

In the jumps he has good enough records to put him through. He holds the Princeton interscholastic broad jump record and has twice been placed in the broad jump in the interscholastic. It is expected that he will make a goodly number of points in the field events.

John Brédens was a clever all-around athlete at Exeter and later at Dartmouth was conspicuous as a true star. He should do some wonderful work in the field events.

KILLED HIMSELF

Brain Affection Due to Hair Dye

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 8.—The body of a man who committed suicide by shooting in the Central hotel, Delaware city, last Thursday night, after removing all marks of identification, was last night identified as Elias P. Joseph, aged 53, of 313 17th street, New York.

The identification was made by telephone. Mrs. Tracy of Coney Island, a sister of Joseph's wife, who called up Deputy Coroner Chandler.

He was a native of New Bedford. The body will be sent there for interment.

Joseph who was ticket clerk at Madison square garden, New York, had his wife an affectionate farewell July 20, saying he was going to Baltimore for treatment for a brain affection, due, it is said, to hair dye.

From Baltimore he is expected to take a sea voyage to South America for his health. He stopped in Wilmington and July 21 sent his wife a letter from the hotel Wilmington enclosing $50 and stating she would hear from him August 4 or 5.

He probably had planned the suicide at that time, for he ended his life August 4.

ANNUAL PICNIC

Of St. John's Parish, North Chelmsford

The annual parish picnic of St. John's parish, North Chelmsford, was held at Nabunnet grove Saturday afternoon and evening, and was a grand success. In addition to the large gathering of North Chelmsford folks, there were many present from Lowell, Graniteville and Pough Village. Rev. Fr. Schuchard and Dorothy of St. John's parish were present and were delighted with the success of the affair. To make drowning accidents impossible, the picnic committee barred boating, and no boats were let during the day. The street railroad furnished excellent accommodations throughout the day. In addition to the usual lunches and refreshment stands, a real live midway did a thriving business.

At 2:30 the program of sports was started with a ball game between the North Chelmsford team under the management of John Larkin, and the Graniteville team under the management of Albert R. Wall. It was a hard fought six inning game, and the North Chelmsford team won by a score of 7 to 2.

Martha of Graniteville had two strike-outs and Cronin of the North Chelmsford team had four strike-outs. The many plays made during the game received much applause from the spectators.

Harry Hartford of Westford and John McQuaid of North Chelmsford were the umpires, and gave excellent satisfaction.

The score by innings:

North Chelmsford: 4 0 0 2 1 0 7

Graniteville: 1 0 1 3 0 0 5

The lineup and batting order of each team was as follows:

North Chelmsford: Gaudette 3b, Thatcher 1b, Howland 4b, Bourdon 2b, McGinnis 5b, Bailey cf, Grady 2b, Gaudette 3b, Thatcher 1b, Howland 4b, Bourdon 2b, McGinnis 5b, Bailey cf, Grady 2b.

Graniteville: Hanson 3b, Buckleham cf, Hughes 5b, Gilson 2b, Gower 1b, De la H. Healy 1b, Ledwith cf, McCarthy 2b.

The winners in the other sports were

MONEY LOANED

To Workingmen and Housekeepers.

$10 AND UPWARDS.

Low rates. Easy payments. Strictly confidential.

HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO. Wyman's Exchange, Cor. Merrimack and Central Sts.

Fifth Floor, Take Elevator, Rooms 503 and 505.

If you need money fill out blank below and mail it to us and our agent will call and see you.

Name _____

Town _____

Street _____

Amount wanted _____

as follows:

Three-legged race—Walter Gaudette and John Howland, first; Thomas Bourdon and Stanley, second; John Howland, third.

Hop, step and jump—John Howland, first; Edward Riney, second.

Standing jump—Thomas Bourdon, first; Edward Riney, second.

Girls' race—Miss Florence Shanahan, first; Miss Emma Wood, second.

Boys' race—Francis Gower, first; John Haffey, second.

There was also a quoit-pitching contest.

After the sports were over at six o'clock, supper was served and dancing was enjoyed from six until ten o'clock, the music being furnished by the Colonial orchestra.

Committees in Charge

The officers and different committees who had charge of the successful affair were:

General manager, Henry D. Miner; assistant manager, William J. Quigley; treasurer, James P. Quigley; general committee, chairman, James P. Quigley, secretary, Miss Mary Valentine.

Committee on sports—James B. McQuaid, chairman; John Larkin, James Walter, Henry Thatcher.

Girls' committee—John Finnegan, Patrick Welch, James P. Quigley, Arthur Miner, James Daley, William J. Quigley, James Long, James Walker, Michael McPhillips, John O'Connor, Owen Scollan, Patrick Cummings.

Refreshment committee—Mrs. Michaela, chairman; Miss Josephine McCabe, assistant; Misses Lizzy Ready, Maggie Ready, Theresa Ready, Blanche Kelly, Helen Remmes, Hannah Cummings, Nellie Ward, Lilla Welch, Annie Welch, Esther Pore, Margaret Star, Mrs. Perle Constantine and Mrs. Lavell.

Doctor, John J. O'Connell; assistant, John J. Curry, chief of aid, Lewis Seymour; aids, George Stanley, Edward Duffy.

Bar committee—James Gookin, chairman; Michael Neilon, John Long, Patrick McMahon, John Coffey, James Daley, check sellers, Miss Mary Garvey, Patrick McMahon, John O'Connor.

The food in the dining room was James McTeague.

The outside booths and stands were in charge of the following persons: West Chelmsford, "Wistaria" table Miss Minnie Savage, chairman; Misses Mary Dunn, Kitty Donohue, Mary Donohue, Margaret Mary Ryan.

The duck pond connected with the West Chelmsford table was a prettily arranged attraction, and was in charge of Miss Nellie Savage, chairman; Misses Catherine Dunn, Mary Flynn, Mary O'Brien.

Candy table—Miss Belle Valentine, chairman; Misses Rose Garvey, Gertrude Quigley and Rosalie Mountain.

Ice cream table—Miss Mary Valentine, chairman; Misses Maud O'Neil, Margaret Star, Grace Cummings, Jessie Tooley, Clara Valentine, Nellie Ward, Mary Garvey, Verna Lowe.

Drinks table—by ladies of the Social. Miss Mary Tobin, chairman; Misses Mary Cox, Hannah Cummings, Nellie Ward, Mary Fallon, Charlotte Love, Verna Lowe, Helen McAdams.

Throwing balls at the balloons—Perle J. Constantine; throwing the balls at Diana, Fred Gaudette; popcorn stand and striking machine, Mr. Wistaria; shooting outfit, John Daley; picture machine, John Murphy.

LOST AND FOUND

CARDED PIN lost, either on London, Quebec, Lincoln and West End streets, late Saturday night. Finder will be rewarded by leaving at 217 West London st., or Rose S. Lincoln st.

THREE-PIECE SILVER MEDAL

lost in vicinity of Lowell cemetery, last Sunday afternoon. Finder please return to 32 Pleasant st., and receive reward. Charles J. Allen.

BUNCH OF KEYS AND Lady's gold watch lost Sunday afternoon at Crystal Lake, North Chelmsford. Liberal reward. Call on Mr. Sun Office.

TWO PATHEMATIC RUBBER TIRES marked James Butler Co. missing. Please return from team on Tuesday forenoon, either on School, Liberty, Hale or Washington streets. Finder please notify A. J. Thos. 415 Stevens st., or telephone 1485-1.

FOUND The place to get your baby carriage tires put on while you wait. Call on C. H. Stevens at 335 Bridge st. O. P. Bennett.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

HOUSE OF 6 ROOMS, located at 225 Hale st., near Lincoln square, for sale. Call evenings.

HOUSE FOR SALE, Highlands 13, built by owner, hot water steam heat, No. 50, on Westford and Forest sts. Inquire on premises.

7-ROOM COTTAGE for sale, large country and bath, large piazza, large garden, 15 minutes to Washington street. Inquire on premises.

MODERN COTTAGE for sale, 8 rooms, bath, pantry, set tubs, concrete cellar, fine condition, excellent location, reasonable price, set tubs, call on Mr. J. J. Thos. 415 Stevens st., or telephone 1485-1.

MONEY LOANED

To Workingmen and Housekeepers.

$10 AND UPWARDS.

Low rates. Easy payments. Strictly confidential.

HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO. Wyman's Exchange, Cor. Merrimack and Central Sts.

Fifth Floor, Take Elevator, Rooms 503 and 505.

If you need money fill out blank below and mail it to us and our agent will call and see you.

Name _____

Town _____

Street _____

Amount wanted _____

SUMMER RESORTS.

SHALL, FURNISHED CAMP with boat on lake, to let at Mountain Rock, $20 for rest season. Alfred Thibault, 217 Gorham st.

7-ROOM COTTAGE at Salisbury beach, to let; good water, clean beds, for cooking and lighting. Apply to Mrs. M. E. Carlton, 115 School st. Telephone 1918-1.

SUMMER BOARDERS wanted at the Ocean Park House, Lynn Beach. Ideal bathing purposes; best home cooking; right opposite the boulevard and rear of ball grounds.

SUMMER COTTAGE of 7 rooms, all furnished, to let at Beaver Lake, for last two weeks only. For terms address Geo. W. Brown, Derry Village, N. H.

HELP WANTED

YOUNG LADY wanted; must be good dancer. Apply Brunswick Park Academy, Brunswick Bldg., Merrimack st.

HORSESHOER AND JOURNAL wanted at Twine's blacksmith shop, 40 Adams street.

MIDDLE AGED WOMAN wanted an experienced typewriter operator for hotel at beach, for general housework, and cooks in the city. Apply Bellevue Employment Office, 164 Anderson street.

YOUNG WOMAN wanted for general housework in small family. Inquire 167 Howard st.

EXPERIENCED READERS wanted at once on slippers. Mrs. Green, 10 Fifth st.

TEN WANTED, age 18 to 25, for summer, $100 monthly, and breakfast $50 on railroad, in Lowell, N. H. Experience unnecessary; no strike. Promotion to engineers, conductors, Railway employments headquarters—over 500 men sent to positions monthly. State office, 505 Main st., Lowell, N. H.

OPERATORS WANTED for making machines and hand screw machines; first class men only. Write factory, P. O. Box 100, Lowell, N. H.

LONG CHAIN BEAMERS wanted. Apply Fred Libbey, overcoat, Boston Manufacturing Co., Waltham, Mass.

LEVELER WANTED on boys' shoes. Apply Federal Shoe Co., Dix st.

COINCE MAKERS—First class inside and outside coince makers wanted at once. S. D. Hicks & Son, 35 Bowker st., Boston, Mass.

ADOLESCENT MEN wanted for the U. S. Marine Corps, between the ages of 16 and 25. Must be native born or have three papers. Monthly pay $15 to $20. Additional compensation possible. Food, clothing, quarters and medical attendance free. After 30 days' service, can choose to receive cent of pay and allowances. Service on land ship and ashore in all parts of the world. Apply at U. S. Marine Corps Recruiting Office, 15 Hunsell Bldg., Lowell, Mass.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES wanted. Write for Lowell examination schedule. Franklin Institute, Dept. 124 S. Rochester, N. Y.

Young Men

With a complete grammar or high school education, who desire to enter the apothecary service, or the general training of chemists and tool makers, pattern makers and molders, or mechanical engineers, electrical engineers (the latter two courses open to high school graduates only) should apply at once, personally or by letter, to the American Loan Co., 45 Merrimack st., Lowell, Mass. High grade young men with good references need apply.

FOR SALE

LODGING HOUSE for sale, best bargain in the city; 18 rooms and bath; rooms all full; quick sale for cash; other business out of the city. Address 217 West London st., or Rose S. Lincoln st.

RAY HOUSE, for sale, 3 years old; safe and sound; excellent location; built by owner. 65 Elmwood st., Pawtucket, R. I., or 217 West London st., Lowell, Mass.

SCOTCH COLDS of good breeding, for sale. Apply 74 Barlett st.

GOOD VARIETY STORE for sale, well located, doing over $200 weekly business; reason for selling. Write J. Sun office.

PIANO BARGAIN—Large size, upright, good make, warranted, almost new; used only few times; 1 must sell; for reasonable price, call at 307 Westford st., Lowell, Mass.

FREEK CAFE for sale; three goodly tables and six seats. G. E. Gould, Westford, Mass.

AN ENGLISH ROSEWOOD PIANO and cabinet for sale in good condition. Can be seen at 55 State st., Lowell, Mass.

SMALL BOARDING HOUSE for sale, in a good location. Address, P. S. Sun office.

ONE BUZZ TABLE for sale cheap, 12-inch blazer, table 36 inches long. Inquire of W. H. Backus, 11 Wilson st.

YEAR-OLD BLACK HORSE for sale; about 1100 lbs.; guaranteed in every way; we have bought and truck, reason for selling. Phillips & Schutz Furniture Co., 312 Middlesex st.

NEW "FITCH" STOVE, used for two months, and other household furniture for sale. Apply 2 Barlett st., W. G. Glavin.

NEW WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE with drop head, for sale; the very latest machine made, with Singer home, cost $18; $25 cash, or $12.50 paid in three months. Inquire 408 Concord st., fourth street past Eagle grounds.

MONEY LOANED

To Workingmen and Housekeepers.

$10 AND UPWARDS.

Low rates. Easy payments. Strictly confidential.

HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO. Wyman's Exchange, Cor. Merrimack and Central Sts.

Fifth Floor, Take Elevator, Rooms 503 and 505.

If you need money fill out blank below and mail it to us and our agent will call and see you.

Name _____

Town _____

Street _____

Amount wanted _____

SUMMER RESORTS.

SHALL, FURNISHED CAMP with boat on lake, to let at Mountain Rock, $20 for rest season. Alfred Thibault, 217 Gorham st.

7-ROOM COTTAGE at Salisbury beach, to let; good water, clean beds, for cooking and lighting. Apply to Mrs. M. E. Carlton, 115 School st. Telephone 1918-1.

SUMMER BOARDERS wanted at the Ocean Park House, Lynn Beach. Ideal bathing purposes; best home cooking; right opposite the boulevard and rear of ball grounds.

SUMMER COTTAGE of 7 rooms, all furnished, to let at Beaver Lake, for last two weeks only. For terms address Geo. W. Brown, Derry Village, N. H.

HELP WANTED

YOUNG LADY wanted; must be good dancer. Apply Brunswick Park Academy, Brunswick Bldg., Merrimack st.

HORSESHOER AND JOURNAL wanted at Twine's blacksmith shop, 40 Adams street.

MIDDLE AGED WOMAN wanted an experienced typewriter operator for hotel at beach, for general housework, and cooks in the city. Apply Bellevue Employment Office, 164 Anderson street.

YOUNG WOMAN wanted for general housework in small family. Inquire 167 Howard st.

EXPERIENCED READERS wanted at once on slippers. Mrs. Green, 10 Fifth st.

TEN WANTED, age 18 to 25, for summer, $100 monthly, and breakfast $50 on railroad, in Lowell, N. H. Experience unnecessary; no strike. Promotion to engineers, conductors, Railway employments headquarters—over 500 men sent to positions monthly. State office, 505 Main st., Lowell, N. H.

OPERATORS WANTED for making machines and hand screw machines; first class men only. Write factory, P. O. Box 100, Lowell, N. H.

LONG CHAIN BEAMERS wanted. Apply Fred Libbey, overcoat, Boston Manufacturing Co., Waltham, Mass.

LEVELER WANTED on boys' shoes. Apply Federal Shoe Co., Dix st.

COINCE MAKERS—First class inside and outside coince makers wanted at once. S. D. Hicks & Son, 35 Bowker st., Boston, Mass.

ADOLESCENT MEN wanted for the U. S. Marine Corps, between the ages of 16 and 25. Must be native born or have three papers. Monthly pay $15 to $20. Additional compensation possible. Food, clothing, quarters and medical attendance free. After 30 days' service, can choose to receive cent of pay and allowances. Service on land ship and ashore in all parts of the world. Apply at U. S. Marine Corps Recruiting Office, 15 Hunsell Bldg., Lowell, Mass.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES wanted. Write for Lowell examination schedule. Franklin Institute, Dept. 124 S. Rochester, N. Y.

Young Men

With a complete grammar or high school education, who desire to enter the apothecary service, or the general training of chemists and tool makers, pattern makers and molders, or mechanical engineers, electrical engineers (the latter two courses open to high school graduates only) should apply at once, personally or by letter, to the American Loan Co., 45 Merrimack st., Lowell, Mass. High grade young men with good references need apply.

FOR SALE

LODGING HOUSE for sale, best bargain in the city; 18 rooms and bath; rooms all full; quick sale for cash; other business out of the city. Address 217 West London st., or Rose S. Lincoln st.

RAY HOUSE, for sale, 3 years old; safe and sound; excellent location; built by owner. 65 Elmwood st., Pawtucket, R. I., or 217 West London st., Lowell, Mass.

SCOTCH COLDS of good breeding, for sale. Apply 74 Barlett st.

GOOD VARIETY STORE for sale, well located, doing over $200 weekly business; reason for selling. Write J. Sun office.

PIANO BARGAIN—Large size, upright, good make, warranted, almost new; used only few times; 1 must sell; for reasonable price, call at 307 Westford st., Lowell, Mass.

FREEK CAFE for sale; three goodly tables and six seats. G. E. Gould, Westford, Mass.

AN ENGLISH ROSEWOOD PIANO and cabinet for sale in good condition. Can be seen at 55 State st., Lowell, Mass.

SMALL BOARDING HOUSE for sale, in a good location. Address, P. S. Sun office.

ONE BUZZ TABLE for sale cheap, 12-inch blazer, table 36 inches long. Inquire of W. H. Backus, 11 Wilson st.

YEAR-OLD BLACK HORSE for sale; about 1100 lbs.; guaranteed in every way; we have bought and truck, reason for selling. Phillips & Schutz Furniture Co., 312 Middlesex st.

NEW "FITCH" STOVE, used for two months, and other household furniture for sale. Apply 2 Barlett st., W. G. Glavin.

NEW WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE with drop head, for sale; the very latest machine made, with Singer home, cost $18; $25 cash, or $12.50 paid in three months. Inquire 408 Concord st., fourth street past Eagle grounds.

MONEY LOANED

To Workingmen and Housekeepers.

$10 AND UPWARDS.

Low rates. Easy payments. Strictly confidential.

HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO. Wyman's Exchange, Cor. Merrimack and Central Sts.

Fifth Floor, Take Elevator, Rooms 503 and 505.

If you need money fill out blank below and mail it to us and our agent will call and see you.

Name _____

Town _____

Street _____

Amount wanted _____

SUMMER RESORTS.

SHALL, FURNISHED CAMP with boat on lake, to let at Mountain Rock, $20 for rest season. Alfred Thibault, 217 Gorham st.

7-ROOM COTTAGE at Salisbury beach, to let; good water, clean beds, for cooking and lighting. Apply to Mrs. M. E. Carlton, 115 School st. Telephone 1918-1.

SUMMER BOARDERS wanted at the Ocean Park House, Lynn Beach. Ideal bathing purposes; best home cooking; right opposite the boulevard and rear of ball grounds.

SUMMER COTTAGE of 7 rooms, all furnished, to let at Beaver Lake, for last two weeks only. For terms address Geo. W. Brown, Derry Village, N. H.

HELP WANTED

YOUNG LADY wanted; must be good dancer. Apply Brunswick Park Academy, Brunswick Bldg., Merrimack st.

HORSESHOER AND JOURNAL wanted at Twine's blacksmith shop, 40 Adams street.

MIDDLE AGED WOMAN wanted an experienced typewriter operator for hotel at beach, for general housework, and cooks in the city. Apply Bellevue Employment Office, 164 Anderson street.

YOUNG WOMAN wanted for general housework in small family. Inquire 167 Howard st.

EXPERIENCED READERS wanted at once on slippers. Mrs. Green, 10 Fifth st.

TEN WANTED, age 18 to 25, for summer, $100 monthly, and breakfast $50 on railroad, in Lowell, N. H. Experience unnecessary; no strike. Promotion to engineers, conductors, Railway employments headquarters—over 500 men sent to positions monthly. State office, 505 Main st., Lowell, N. H.

OPERATORS WANTED for making machines and hand screw machines; first class men only. Write factory, P. O. Box 100, Lowell, N. H.

LONG CHAIN BEAMERS wanted. Apply Fred Libbey, overcoat, Boston Manufacturing Co., Waltham, Mass.

LEVELER WANTED on boys' shoes. Apply Federal Shoe Co., Dix st.

COINCE MAKERS—First class inside and outside coince makers wanted at once. S. D. Hicks & Son, 35 Bowker st., Boston, Mass.

ADOLESCENT MEN wanted for the U. S. Marine Corps, between the ages of 16 and 25. Must be native born or have three papers. Monthly pay $15 to $20. Additional compensation possible. Food, clothing, quarters and medical attendance free. After 30 days' service, can choose to receive cent of pay and allowances. Service on land ship and ashore in all parts of the world. Apply at U. S. Marine Corps Recruiting Office, 15 Hunsell Bldg., Lowell, Mass.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES wanted. Write for Lowell examination schedule. Franklin Institute, Dept. 124 S. Rochester, N. Y.

Young Men

With a complete grammar or high school education, who desire to enter the apothecary service, or the general training of chemists and tool makers, pattern makers and molders, or mechanical engineers, electrical engineers (the latter two courses open to high school graduates only) should apply at once, personally or by letter, to the American Loan Co., 45 Merrimack st., Lowell, Mass. High grade young men with good references need apply.

FOR SALE

LODGING HOUSE for sale, best bargain in the city; 18 rooms and bath; rooms all full; quick sale for cash; other business out of the city. Address 217 West London st., or Rose S. Lincoln st.

RAY HOUSE, for sale, 3 years old; safe and sound; excellent location; built by owner. 65 Elmwood st., Pawtucket, R. I., or 217 West London st., Lowell, Mass.

SCOTCH COLDS of good breeding, for sale. Apply 74 Barlett st.

GOOD VARIETY STORE for sale, well located, doing over $200 weekly business; reason for selling. Write J. Sun office.

PIANO BARGAIN—Large size, upright, good make, warranted, almost new; used only few times; 1 must sell; for reasonable price, call at 307 Westford st., Lowell, Mass.

FREEK CAFE for sale; three goodly tables and six seats. G. E. Gould, Westford, Mass.

AN ENGLISH ROSEWOOD PIANO and cabinet for sale in good condition. Can be seen at 55 State st., Lowell, Mass.

SMALL BOARDING HOUSE for sale, in a good location. Address, P. S. Sun office.

ONE BUZZ TABLE for sale cheap, 12-inch blazer, table 36 inches long. Inquire of W. H. Backus, 11 Wilson st.

YEAR-OLD BLACK HORSE for sale; about 1100 lbs.; guaranteed in every way; we have bought and truck, reason for selling. Phillips & Schutz Furniture Co., 312 Middlesex st.

NEW "FITCH" STOVE, used for two months, and other household furniture for sale. Apply 2 Barlett st., W. G. Glavin.

NEW WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE with drop head, for sale; the very latest machine made, with Singer home, cost $18; $25 cash, or $12.50 paid in three months. Inquire 408 Concord st., fourth street past Eagle grounds.

TURNED ON THE GAS

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

SOUTHERN DIV.				WESTERN DIV.
To Boston.	From Boston.	To Boston.	From Boston.	To Boston.	From Boston.	To Boston.	From Boston.
Low.	Arr.	Low.	Arr.	Low.	Arr.	Low.	Arr.
6:45	6:50	8:00	8:45	6:45	6:55	7:00	8:10
6:57	7:01	8:12	8:57	6:57	7:07	7:10	8:20
7:09	7:13	8:24	9:09	7:09	7:19	7:20	8:30
7:21	7:25	8:36	9:21	7:21	7:31	7:30	8:40
7:33	7:37	8:48	9:33	7:33	7:43	7:40	8:50
7:45	7:49	9:00	9:45	7:45	7:55	7:50	9:00
7:57	8:01	9:12	9:57	7:57	8:07	8:00	9:10
8:09	8:13	9:24	10:09	8:09	8:19	8:10	9:20
8:21	8:25	9:36	10:21	8:21	8:31	8:20	9:30
8:33	8:37	9:48	10:33	8:33	8:43	8:30	9:40
8:45	8:49	10:00	10:45	8:45	8:55	8:40	9:50
8:57	9:01	10:12	10:57	8:57	9:07	8:50	10:00
9:09	9:13	10:24	11:09	9:09	9:19	8:50	10:10
9:21	9:25	10:36	11:21	9:21	9:31	8:50	10:20
9:33	9:37	10:48	11:33	9:33	9:43	8:50	10:30
9:45	9:49	11:00	11:45	9:45	9:55	8:50	10:40
9:57	10:01	11:12	11:57	9:57	10:07	8:50	10:50
10:09	10:13	11:24	12:09	10:09	10:19	8:50	11:00
10:21	10:25	11:36	12:21	10:21	10:31	8:50	11:10
10:33	10:37	11:48	12:33	10:33	10:43	8:50	11:20
10:45	10:49	12:00	12:45	10:45	10:55	8:50	11:30
10:57	11:01	12:12	12:57	10:57	11:07	8:50	11:40
11:09	11:13	12:24	13:09	11:09	11:19	8:50	11:50
11:21	11:25	12:36	13:21	11:21	11:31	8:50	12:00
11:33	11:37	12:48	13:33	11:33	11:43	8:50	12:10
11:45	11:49	13:00	13:45	11:45	11:55	8:50	12:20
11:57	12:01	13:12	13:57	11:57	12:07	8:50	12:30
12:09	12:13	13:24	14:09	12:09	12:19	8:50	12:40
12:21	12:25	13:36	14:21	12:21	12:31	8:50	12:50
12:33	12:37	13:48	14:33	12:33	12:43	8:50	13:00
12:45	12:49	14:00	14:45	12:45	12:55	8:50	13:10
12:57	13:01	14:12	14:57	12:57	13:07	8:50	13:20
13:09	13:13	14:24	15:09	13:09	13:19	8:50	13:30
13:21	13:25	14:36	15:21	13:21	13:31	8:50	13:40
13:33	13:37	14:48	15:33	13:33	13:43	8:50	13:50
13:45	13:49	15:00	15:45	13:45	13:55	8:50	14:00
13:57	14:01	15:12	15:57	13:57	14:07	8:50	14:10
14:09	14:13	15:24	16:09	14:09	14:19	8:50	14:20
14:21	14:25	15:36	16:21	14:21	14:31	8:50	14:30
14:33	14:37	15:48	16:33	14:33	14:43	8:50	14:40
14:45	14:49	16:00	16:45	14:45	14:55	8:50	14:50
14:57	15:01	16:12	16:57	14:57	15:07	8:50	15:00
15:09	15:13	16:24	17:09	15:09	15:19	8:50	15:10
15:21	15:25	16:36	17:21	15:21	15:31	8:50	15:20
15:33	15:37	16:48	17:33	15:33	15:43	8:50	15:30
15:45	15:49	17:00	17:45	15:45	15:55	8:50	15:40
15:57	16:01	17:12	17:57	15:57	16:07	8:50	15:50
16:09	16:13	17:24	18:09	16:09	16:19	8:50	16:00
16:21	16:25	17:36	18:21	16:21	16:31	8:50	16:10
16:33	16:37	17:48	18:33	16:33	16:43	8:50	16:20
16:45	16:49	18:00	18:45	16:45	16:55	8:50	16:30
16:57	17:01	18:12	18:57	16:57	17:07	8:50	16:40
17:09	17:13	18:24	19:09	17:09	17:19	8:50	16:50
17:21	17:25	18:36	19:21	17:21	17:31	8:50	17:00
17:33	17:37	18:48	19:33	17:33	17:43	8:50	17:10
17:45	17:49	19:00	19:45	17:45	17:55	8:50	17:20
17:57	18:01	19:12	19:57	17:57	18:07	8:50	17:30
18:09	18:13	19:24	20:09	18:09	18:19	8:50	17:40
18:21	18:25	19:36	20:21	18:21	18:31	8:50	17:50
18:33	18:37	19:48	20:33	18:33	18:43	8:50	18:00
18:45	18:49	20:00	20:45	18:45	18:55	8:50	18:10
18:57	19:01	20:12	20:57	18:57	19:07	8:50	18:20
19:09	19:13	20:24	21:09	19:09	19:19	8:50	18:30
19:21	19:25	20:36	21:21	19:21	19:31	8:50	18:40
19:33	19:37	20:48	21:33	19:33	19:43	8:50	18:50
19:45	19:49	21:00	21:45	19:45	19:55	8:50	19:00
19:57	20:01	21:12	21:57	19:57	20:07	8:50	19:10
20:09	20:13	21:24	22:09	20:09	20:19	8:50	19:20
20:21	20:25	21:36	22:21	20:21	20:31	8:50	19:30
20:33	20:37	21:48	22:33	20:33	20:43	8:50	19:40
20:45	20:49	22:00	22:45	20:45	20:55	8:50	19:50
20:57	21:01	22:12	22:57	20:57	21:07	8:50	20:00
21:09	21:13	22:24	23:09	21:09	21:19	8:50	20:10
21:21	21:25	22:36	23:21	21:21	21:31	8:50	20:20
21:33	21:37	22:48	23:33	21:33	21:43	8:50	20:30
21:45	21:49	23:00	23:45	21:45	21:55	8:50	20:40
21:57	22:01	23:12	23:57	21:57	22:07	8:50	20:50
22:09	22:13	23:24	24:09	22:09	22:19	8:50	21:00
22:21	22:25	23:36	24:21	22:21	22:31	8:50	21:10
22:33	22:37	23:48	24:33	22:33	22:43	8:50	21:20
22:45	22:49	24:00	24:45	22:45	22:55	8:50	21:30
22:57	23:01	24:12	24:57	22:57	23:07	8:50	21:40
23:09	23:13	24:24	25:09	23:09	23:19	8:50	21:50
23:21	23:25	24:36	25:21	23:21	23:31	8:50	22:00
23:33	23:37	24:48	25:33	23:33	23:43	8:50	22:10
23:45	23:49	25:00	25:45	23:45	23:55	8:50	22:20
23:57	24:01	25:12	25:57	23:57	24:07	8:50	22:30
24:09	24:13	25:24	26:09	24:09	24:19	8:50	22:40
24:21	24:25	25:36	26:21	24:21	24:31	8:50	22:50
24:33	24:37	25:48	26:33	24:33	24:43	8:50	23:00
24:45	24:49	26:00	26:45	24:45	24:55	8:50	23:10
24:57	25:01	26:12	26:57	24:57	25:07	8:50	23:20
25:09	25:13	26:24	27:09	25:09	25:19	8:50	23:30
25:21	25:25	26:36	27:21	25:21	25:31	8:50	23:40
25:33	25:37	26:48	27:33	25:33	25:43	8:50	23:50
25:45	25:49	27:00	27:45	25:45	25:55	8:50	24:00
25:57	26:01	27:12	27:57	25:57	26:07	8:50	24:10
26:09	26:13	27:24	28:09	26:09	26:19	8:50	24:20
26:21	26:25	27:36	28:21	26:21	26:31	8:50	24:30
26:33	26:37	27:48	28:33	26:33	26:43	8:50	24:40
26:45	26:49	28:00	28:45	26:45	26:55	8:50	24:50
26:57	27:01	28:12	28:57	26:57	27:07	8:50	25:00
27:09	27:13	28:24	29:09	27:09	27:19	8:50	25:10
27:21	27:25	28:36	29:21	27:21	27:31	8:50	25:20
27:33	27:37	28:48	29:33	27:33	27:43	8:50	25:30
27:45	27:49	29:00	29:45	27:45	27:55	8:50	25:40
27:57	28:01	29:12	29:57	27:57	28:07	8:50	25:50
28:09	28:13	29:24	30:09	28:09	28:19	8:50	26:00
28:21	28:25	29:36	30:21	28:21	28:31	8:50	26:10
28:33	28:37	29:48	30:33	28:33	28:43	8:50	26:20
28:45	28:49	30:00	30:45	28:45	28:55	8:50	26:30
28:57	29:01	30:12	30:57	28:57	29:07	8:50	26:40
29:09	29:13	30:24	31:09	29:09	29:19	8:50	26:50
29:21	29:25	30:36	31:21	29:21	29:31	8:50	27:00
29:33	29:37	30:48	31:33	29:33	29:43	8:50	27:10
29:45	29:49	31:00	31:45	29:45	29:55	8:50	27:20
29:57	30:01	31:12	31:57	29:57	30:07	8:50	27:30
30:09	30:13	31:24	32:09	30:09	30:19	8:50	27:40
30:21	30:25	31:36	32:21	30:21	30:31	8:50	27:50
30:33	30:37	31:48	32:33	30:33	30:43	8:50	28:00
30:45	30:49	32:00	32:45	30:45	30:55	8:50	28:10
30:57	31:01	32:12	32:57	30:57	31:07	8:50	28:20
31:09	31:13	32:24	33:09	31:09	31:19	8:50	28:30
31:21	31:25	32:36	33:21	31:21	31:31	8:50	28:40
31:33	31:37	32:48	33:33	31:33	31:43	8:50	28:50
31:45	31:49	33:00	33:45	31:45	31:55	8:50	29:00
31:57	32:01	33:12	33:57	31:57	32:07	8:50	29:10
32:09	32:13	33:24	34:09	32:09	32:19	8:50	29:20
32:21	32:25	33:36	34:21	32:21	32:31	8:50	29:30
32:33	32:37	33:48	34:33	32:33	32:43	8:50	29:40
32:45	32:49	34:00	34:45	32:45	32:55	8:50	29:50
32:57	33:01	34:12	34:57	32:57	33:07	8:50	30:00
33:09	33:13	34:24	35:09	33:09	33:19	8:50	30:10
33:21	33:25	34:36	35:21	33:21	33:31	8:50	30:20
33:33	33:37	34:48	35:33	33:33	33:43	8:50	30:30
33:45	33:49	35:00	35:45	33:45	33:55	8:50	30:40
33:57	34:01	35:12	35:57	33:57	34:07	8:50	30:50
34:09	34:13	35:24	36:09	34:09	34:19	8:50	31:00
34:21	34:25	35:36	36:21	34:21	34:31	8:50	31:10
34:33	34:37	35:48	36:33	34:33	34:43	8:50	31:20
34:45	34:49	36:00	36:45	34:45	34:55	8:50	31:30
34:57	35:01	36:12	36:57	34:57	35:07	8:50	31:40
35:09	35:13	36:24</

SAYS HE KILLED A MAN

NIGHT EDITION

ALD. GRAY'S MISTAKE

The President of the Water Board Points it Out

Robert W. Van Tassel, president of the Lowell water board, was much surprised when he read what Alderman Gray, chairman of the board of aldermen and chairman of the appropriations committee, gave as the cause of delay in the purchase of a new pump for the Centralville pumping station.

"I do not understand how Mr. Gray stumbled into such a misstatement," said Mr. Van Tassel, but in view of what he said it is my duty to put the thing squarely before the public, so that the public who read may know that Alderman Gray's statement was not a statement of fact.

"He said that the board of aldermen had addressed a communication to the water board, asking that body to call for bids for a pump, and he said that instead of the water board replying to the board of aldermen, reply was made to the committee on appropriations. This is absolutely wrong and I wonder that the chairman of both the board of aldermen and committee on appropriations could make such a mistake.

"It was the committee on appropriations that sent the water board the communication asking the board to prepare plans and call for bids. The water board did not receive any communication from the board of aldermen and how Alderman Gray got so badly twisted in the matter is more than I can understand."

Mr. Van Tassel then produced the following letter in support of his statement that it was the committee on appropriations and not the board of aldermen that communicated with the water board:

Office of Clerk of Committees,
Lowell, Mass., June 8, 1910.

Mr. Robert W. Van Tassel, President,
Lowell Water Board, Lowell, Mass.

Dear Sir: At a meeting of the joint committee on appropriations, held on the 6th inst., consideration was given to the matter of an appropriation of $5,000 for new pumping engine for water department. The following opinion from the city solicitor was read:

"In reply to your request for an opinion as to whether or not the Lowell water board can legally call for competitive bids for a new pumping engine before money is paid for such an article is available, I can see no objection to their doing so, unless the call for bids involves the submission to the various companies of plans and specifications which cannot be had without expense; provided, of course, that the water board in their call set forth the fact that no money is at present available for the purchase of an engine and will not be unless the city council sees fit to make an appropriation. In this case the committee will have no ground for objection if no appropriation is made."

It was voted to recommend that the water board prepare plans and specifications for a new pump and call for competitive bids, if same can be obtained in this way the exact cost of pump and the water board may later, if it sees fit, make the necessary appropriation.

Yours truly,
(Signed) Frank M. Dowling,
Clerk of Committees.

Office of the water board, Lowell, Mass.,
June 22, 1910.

Mr. F. M. Dowling,
Clerk of Committees, Lowell, Mass.

Women's Accounts

Women should have bank accounts—they stimulate thrift and independence.

Every care, courtesy and consideration is given women who transact their banking business with us.

We extend you an invitation to call and open an account.

THE OLD LOWELL
NATIONAL BANK
25 Central Street

Incorporated 1828

Oldest Bank in Lowell.

For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.

August
Quarter Month
WASHINGTON SAVINGS
INSTITUTION
207 CENTRAL STREET
Over Lowell Trust Company

Poland Water

For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.

August
Quarter Month
WASHINGTON SAVINGS
INSTITUTION
207 CENTRAL STREET
Over Lowell Trust Company

Poland Water

For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.

THE HARPOON WON

The Beaver Was First in the Second Division

MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 8.—The Harpoon, owned by C. F. Adams, 2nd, and the Beaver, owned by C. H. Foster, finished first in the first and second divisions respectively in the first race off here today in the trial series to determine the American contestants in the Spanish-American sloop yacht races. The race was a three mile beat to windward and return.

Thirteen yachts started and twelve finished, the Steeple withdrawing half way out to the windward mark. The Harpoon and the Beaver led their respective divisions at the outer mark and were not headed on the run back to the finish. The Harpoon was closely followed throughout by the Lady. The Joyette pressed the Beaver somewhat closely. There was no infing.

After an hour's wait the yachts were sent on the second race, over a triangular course. The finish:

FIRST DIVISION
Harpoon, C. F. Adams, 2d, 1:14.13.
Lady, R. DeB. Boardman, 1:14.32.
Ellen, C. P. Curtis, 1:16.58.
Sally, M. L. E. Percival, 1:17.36.
Cima, Guy Lowell, 1:20.04.
Bonnie, G. W. Wightman, 1:21.05.
Ed, H. M. Sears, 1:23.04.

SECOND DIVISION
Beaver, C. H. W. Foster, 1:18.09.
Joyette, W. H. Childs, 1:17.58.
Demon, F. R. Crownsfield, 1:18.39.
Wolf, Caleb Loring, 1:18.59.
Spokane III, Hugh Bancroft, 1:22.35.
Steeple, F. M. Hoyt, withdrew.

ONE CHILD DEAD

Another Dying As Result of Playing With Matches

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Mary Thompson, of No. 204 South Eighth street, Brooklyn, E. D., took her two adopted children, Eugene, three years old, and James, one year old, up to their bed on the second floor about 7 o'clock last evening. She undressed the children, put on their night clothes and tucked them in for the night. Then she placed two of the three matches she had taken up with her on the mantel. The other she had used to light the gas.

She sat by the bed until she thought the children were asleep. Then she turned down the light and tiptoed out and down to the sitting room.

Half an hour later she was alarmed by a series of screams from the children's room above. She rushed up stairs and nearly fainted at the sight that met her eyes.

Little Eugene, terribly burned, was lying motionless on the floor. James, the baby, was writhing on the floor, his night clothes ablaze, and screaming at the top of his voice. Mrs. Thompson snatched a blanket from the bed and threw it over the child, smothering the blaze.

She lifted the baby in her arms and ran into the street calling for help. A neighbor telephoned to the Eastern District hospital for an ambulance, and Dr. Rosenberg responded in a few minutes.

The doctor found the children too seriously burned for treatment there, he wrapped them in sheets and hurried them to the hospital. As Eugene was being carried from the ambulance to the hospital he died. There was scarcely an inch of space on his little body that had not been scorched by the flames. In examination of the baby, James, showed him to be in a precocious condition.

Mrs. Thompson adopted the children out of an asylum at Sixty-ninth street and Third avenue, Manhattan, about six weeks ago. She is childless and took a fancy to the little brothers, who were sturdy, fine looking youngsters. Mrs. Thompson says she supposed that the matches she placed on the mantel were out of reach of Eugene. She says he must have been feigning sleep when she left the room, and that he probably watched her when she had laid the matches down. Mrs. Thompson suffered attacks of hysterics at frequent intervals last night.

HAVE BAD HEARTS

Trees That Look Good On the Outside Are Bad Within

Park Department Inspects Every Tree in Lowell by Request of the Mayor — Bids on New Boilers Will Be Called for Tomorrow

Supt. Whittet of the park department will have his tree report ready for the park commission at its next meeting. After the falling of an elm limb on the South common on the afternoon of July 1, Mayor McLean addressed a communication to the park commission asking that all trees throughout the city be inspected.

Acting upon the advice of the mayor, the park commission instructed its superintendent to examine the trees. It was a big job and the park department superintendent and his men have devoted a great deal of time to the task. They worked in Centralville today. Belvidere, South Lowell, Wigglesville and from the Chelmsford line to the South common have been gone over pretty thoroughly. Mr. Whittet said today that he would finish with Centralville in a few days and then he will turn his attention to Pawtucket, North Lowell, and the Highlands. He expects to finish the inspection within two weeks and he promises that his report to the park commission will be an interesting one. Judging from the few things that Mr. Whittet let drop, there is a surprise in store for the public in general and some of Lowell's best shade trees and old landmarks will have to bite the dust.

Mr. Whittet would not venture an estimate as to the number of trees that will have to come down, but he admitted that he was surprised to find so many of them in such tough shape. Trees that look perfect from the outside were found to be rotten on the inside and the littleness of their support renders them dangerous.

Mr. Whittet believes that the drought of the last two years have worked havoc with the trees and he is firmly of the belief that the falling of the limb in the South common was due to the fact that the tree was not properly nourished. It was noticed that while the limb did not show signs of decay it was dry and minus any semblance of sap.

Bids on New Boilers
James Dow, inspector of buildings, will ask for bids on two new boilers, one for the Edison school and the other for the Maine street engine house or Central fire station. Mr. Dow said that the specifications would be ready tomorrow.

Contracts Awarded
Bids opened at the office of the purchasing agent this forenoon were awarded as follows: Five hundred bushels of number one clipped oats for the health department, Joseph Mullin; 300 bushels number one clipped oats for the water works, Wilder & Wotton.

City Hall Meetings
The committee on accounts will meet at 6 o'clock this evening. Tomorrow night the committee on appropriations will meet at 7 o'clock; the aldermen will hold an adjourned meeting and there will be a special meeting of the common council. The committee on streets will meet at 9 o'clock.

Lowell People to Enjoy a Great Treat.

A party of Lowell business men left today for Fairlee, Vt., where they will spend the next two weeks at Rest-a-While camp. Included in the party are Messrs. Patrick Kelley, E. A. McQuade, William F. Higgins, John F. Kinsella, George B. McKenna, John J. Regan, Michael J. Garvey and Andrew L. Feudergast.

Mr. Higgins, who is the well known undertaker, has taken with him some apparatus to make airship tests. The different parts of the machine were shipped last week, so that the workmen could have them put together by the time the Lowell men arrived. On Wednesday Mr. Higgins will make his first experimental test, but the big affair will come on Aug. 18, when the people of that section of the country will be given a great surprise. Mr. Higgins has experimented on a small scale with his machine in Watson's field in this city, but the space there is limited, while at Fairlee he will have a great tract of open ground to carry on his work. He does not intend to enter the aviation field, in a sense that the professional does; his purpose being to get something after the style of the captive balloon that was enjoyed at Lakeview last week.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

MURDER WILL OUT

William Remington Makes a Strange Confession

Morphine Fiend at Tewksbury Says He Killed Boston Man Who Was Buried As a Suicide Two Weeks Ago—Remington Taken to Boston by Police

William Remington of Boston, an inmate of the State Infirmary at Tewksbury, a morphine fiend who is suffering the last agonizing stages of morphine poisoning, yesterday called the physicians of the hospital to his bedside and while writhing with pain and fever told them an awful tale of a murder which he claims to have committed in Boston on Sunday, July 31.

Meanwhile the remains of Max Sarokian have been exhumed by order of District Attorney Pelletier and a further investigation of his death, which occurred on July 21, discloses the fact that he was the victim of foul play rather than suicide as was at first given as the cause of death.

That truth is stranger than fiction is borne out by Remington's story which appears to be the truth. Remington, whose mind appeared perfectly clear yesterday, informed the physicians that a week ago yesterday he entered the store of Max Sarokian, 228 Harrison avenue, and placing his revolver on the counter in front of the proprietor demanded that he purchase it. Sarokian told him that he had no use for the weapon and would not buy it. Then Remington, who was in a frenzy for want of money with which to purchase morphine, grasped the revolver and fired two shots into Sarokian and then fled from the store leaving the revolver behind. Sarokian was found a short time later in a dying condition. Two bullet holes were found in Sarokian's body and with the revolver beside him and as there was no one in the vicinity as far as known at the time of the shooting, the conclusion of the police was that Sarokian had committed suicide and as such the death certificate was signed and as such he was buried.

But Sarokian had always lived happily with his family and had always been a good provider. He lived a simple life and his wife refused to accept the theory of suicide and appealed to District Attorney Pelletier. The latter was so impressed with her story that he ordered the remains exhumed. A second examination as will be seen below showed circumstances that tended strongly to uphold the theory of foul play. But assuming that foul play had been committed there was absolutely no evidence pointing to the identity of the murderer.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his bed, though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt as he claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Remington Vis

Telephone 1660

LATEST BARRYMORE TO WED

It is Said Lloyds Loses a Policy of $50,000

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Sidney Harris has confirmed the report that her daughter, Miss Katherine Corri Harris, is engaged to Jack Barrymore. The day of the wedding has not been decided, but it is expected to be within the next three weeks. The marriage will cost Lloyds $50,000.

Miss Harris' father is a wealthy lawyer and she is one of the prettiest and most popular members of the younger social set, though only 18 years old. Her father and mother were divorced in 1904.

Mr. Barrymore states that there was no romance in the affair. He just met Miss Harris, they liked each other and from friends became lovers in the ordinary course.

Mrs. Harris is very much in favor of the match. She has known Mr. Barrymore for a number of years, and considers him a very desirable son-in-law. Mr. Harris is much opposed, as he considers his daughter too young to get married. Mrs. Harris and her daughter announced the engagement to Mr. Harris before their recent return from Europe.

Before and daughter are living at the Hotel Brayton, Madison avenue and Twenty-seventh street. They have a house in Flushing, L. I. Mrs. Harris is the daughter of the late Judge John R. Brady of the supreme court and is wealthy. She and Mr. Harris eloped on the day her elder sister was married.

Jack Barrymore has been reported engaged many times during the last few years, and, according to a published interview, has been in love almost as many times as his reported engagements. He received much notoriety at the time of the Thaw trial, as it was said he was one of the many admirers of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw. As a result of this notoriety, he was in a sanatorium for several weeks suffering from nervous breakdown.

He was later seen much with Bonnie Maginn at the height of her popularity, and later with Miss Vivian Blackburn. He was also a great admirer of the late Lotta Faust. His engagement was announced to Grace Laine, a wealthy Chicago girl, but for some unknown reason it was broken off. During the past season his engagement has been announced five times.

Last May his managers, Cohan & Harris, took out a $50,000 policy with Lloyd's against the possibility of his getting married inside of a year. They alleged that his value to them would be lessened to that extent in case he should forswear single blessedness. He said at the time that he was not engaged to be married, although he reserved the right to wed should the right girl come along.

In a recent interview, Mr. Barrymore said relatively to marriage: "A true sporting spirit is indispensable to a happy marriage. The married sportsman does not believe that his wife is to forsake her old friends and devote herself exclusively to him. He knows that she requires friends and amusements just as much as she did before her marriage."

"The married sportsman will not nag nor scold. He will declare himself frankly and explicitly, but petty fault-finding will be beneath him. The husband with the sporting spirit will give his wife mental, financial and social freedom. The civilized woman is pretty nearly perfect, while the best man, compared with her, is only a rough-necked savage."

THE CRIPPEN CASE

QUEBEC, Aug. 8.—The week for which Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve, jointly charged with murder, were remanded by the provincial court, expired at 1 o'clock this morning but Judge Angers, before they were originally haled, said that in the ordinary course of events the prisoners would not be required to appear in court today or at any other time before they sail for England. The local authorities will permit Inspector Dew to sail with his charges any time after August 15 that the warrant from the Dominion at Ottawa is received.

THREE INJURED

When An Electric Car Crashed Into a Pole

Patrick White, Mrs. Salome Johnpeter and a woman whose name could not be learned, were injured in an accident which occurred about seven o'clock last night on what is known as Dyer's hill, East Chelmsford, when the axle on an inbound Woburn car of the Boston & Northern broke and crashed into a telephone pole on the side of the road.

But for the pole the car would undoubtedly have toppled over an embankment and several of the passengers would probably have been fatally injured.

Mrs. Salome Johnpeter, aged 32 years, of 39 Pleasant street, was sitting on the third seat of the car, and when it crashed into the pole she was thrown from her seat and was bruised and shaken and suffered severely from nervous shock. She was rushed to St. John's hospital in a carriage. It is expected that she will have recovered sufficiently to go to her home within a day or two.

Patrick White of North Billerica, who was riding on the front seat of the car on the side which was damaged by the pole, was also cut and bruised to some extent. He was taken to his home in a carriage.

One other woman, a resident of Lowell, was also so injured that she had to be removed to her home in a carriage.

There were 49 passengers aboard the car, which was in charge of Motorman Harry Morrill and Conductor P. Hogan and was due in Merrimack square at 7:18 o'clock. It was shortly after 7 o'clock as the car started over the top of Dyer's hill that the accident happened. The car had gone about 300 feet down the hill when Motorman Morrill felt the front axle of the truck give away. He applied the brakes and almost simultaneously the car swerved from the rails and crashed into the pole.

When the axle broke the passengers immediately realized that something was wrong and when the crash occurred it was only the presence of mind of some of the cooler headed ones that averted a panic.

trouble with it. They had only praise for the work of Motorman Morrill in sticking to his post and doing everything in his power to avoid serious damage to the passengers. Morrill has been with the road for some time and is considered a first class man, as is his companion in work, Conductor Hogan.

GREAT SALE

IS BEING CONDUCTED BY THE GILBRIDE CO.

The annual August sale of bedding furnishings was opened this morning at the store of the Gilbride Co. In connection with this sale, this year the company has included its bed department which while yet in its infancy has shown continual growth and caters to an ever increasing patronage. Bargains will be offered during the sales on the following articles: household linens, bedspreads, towels, sheets and pillow cases. In the bed department wonderful bargains in metallic beds will hold sway. These beds, made wholly of metal, are the rage of the west and are more hygienic than the old style wooden bedstead. All the brass bedsteads carried by this company are finished with a new process of lacquering brass on the surface. Electrified heat is flooded through the different tubes after the bed is assembled. In this sale is made under the strictest sanitary methods and the Gilbride Co. guarantee goes with each and every article.

While the sale is for the public generally, the firm extends a special invitation to all hotelkeepers, proprietors of lodging houses and other institutions to attend.

While you are attending the bedding sale do not fail to visit the rug department, for there is an annual sale of rugs being held which affords the opportunity, so very seldom given, for procuring rugs manufactured at the Bigelow Carpet Co. at low cost. In addition to the rugs from the Bigelow company the stock includes a varied number of designs from the foremost carpet manufacturers of the world which will be offered at ridiculously low prices during the sale.

12 SONDER YACHTS

Struggle for Three Places on the American Team

MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 8.—A baker's dozen of sonder yachts began a week's struggle today for three places on the American team that will meet the Spanish boats next week in the international races for the President Taft and Governor Draper cups. The thirteen yachts will sail in two divisions and will be given three 12 mile races a day until Thursday night when the regatta committee of the Eastern Yacht club will eliminate all but three in each division. The survivors will then race two days more that the committee may finally determine the three best boats. It is expected that the Spaniards will arrive at Marblehead before the American trials are concluded. The Spanish challengers are the sonder yachts Mosquito II, Papoose and Choncha. These three little boats left Spain July 20 and are expected in New York on Thursday. They will be immediately shipped to Boston and the colors of the Federation of Spanish Yacht clubs are expected to fly in Marblehead harbor by next Sunday. The international races will begin Aug. 17. Of the thirteen yachts that started in the trial races today, one, the Ellen, was built in 1906, seven, the Demon, Del, Joyetta, Lady, Skeezix, Spokane III, and Wolf in 1909, and five, the Beaver, Donive, Clima, Harpoon and Sally XI, are the latest productions in this popular class of small boat racing. To the eye of the landman the thirteen American yachts are singularly alike except in the matter of color and out of their main-sails. All are under the jib and mainsail rig with long over-hangs both fore and aft, smooth decks a small cockpit and no bowsprit. To the expert, however, the latest boats showed fineness in the carrying out of the lines and a tendency toward the narrow German type which has proved successful in the light water and fairly so in this country. The restrictions on a sonder boat are that the total length of the water-line, beam and draught, shall not be over 32 feet, the displacement not less than 4070 pounds and the sail area not over 550 square feet, while the cost is limited to $10,000. The measurements showed all boats are close to the limit. In fact that Harpoon and Clima are right on the line as to measurement and sail area while the Harpoon's displacement is only 15 pounds over the limit. The Clima is the longest overall and the Spokane III the shortest.

The yachts were divided into two divisions as follows: First division—Harpoon, Sally XI, Clima, Ellen, Lady, Eel and Bonive. Second division—Demon, Joyetta, Skeezix, Wolf, Spokane III and Beaver. The yachts were ordered to be at the start of 11 a. m. and the committee used the German system of holding a ball up a pole to start the boats with the second division leaving five minutes after the first.

The committee announced that the winner in each class will be given an 8, the second boat 1, the third boat 2, and so on, the boats having the smallest numbers at the close of the preliminary races being given places in the semi-finals Friday.

POPE RECEIVES AMERICANS

ROME, Aug. 8.—The pope today received J. J. McGrane of New York, delegated with a group of other Knights of Columbus on behalf of the governing board of the order, to thank the pope for the special blessing given to the Knights. Afterwards the pontiff received 200 American pilgrims and American tourists. Bishop Van De Vyver, who presented the Americans, delivered an address of loyalty. The pope, answering, expressed satisfaction at being among so many Americans. He imparted his apostolic blessing to the party and thanked them for the $1800 Peter's Pence they presented.

JOE GANS, FORMER CHAMPION, DYING OF CONSUMPTION

BALTIMORE, Aug. 8.—Joe Gans, the former lightweight champion of the world, who recently arrived here from Prescott, Ariz., in the last stages of tuberculosis, is not expected to live more than a few days. The former champion is a skeleton of his former self, unable to talk above a whisper and absolutely helpless. The old champion went to Prescott several months ago to stop the ravages of the disease. At first he rallied a bit and then began to weaken rapidly. He was anxious to see his mother once more, and the race with the grim reaper began. He had a trying time during the long trip, and at times the attendants feared he would not reach Baltimore alive. He rallied at Pittsburgh and stood the journey fairly well. Last March Gans contracted a cold and neglected to look after it. In April the doctors informed him that there were signs of tuberculosis, and he was advised to seek another climate. In his day Gans was the greatest of lightweights. For years he defended his title successfully. Many say that making the low weight demanded by Pat Nelson in their last two battles sapped Gans' vitality and he fell an easy victim to tuberculosis.

BANKER MORSE

Is Reported Ill in the Penitentiary

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 8.—Charles W. Morse, the New York banker, serving a term of fifteen years for misappropriation of funds in the federal penitentiary here, has been removed to the hospital, where he is reported quite ill. Mrs. Morse after her hasty visit said that she fears he will not survive the year and will redouble her efforts to secure a pardon for her husband from President Taft.

FUNERALS

CUMMINGS.—The funeral of James Cummings took place Saturday afternoon from the chapel of Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons. Funeral services were held at the Immaculate Conception church, Rev. Fr. Flynn, O. M. I., officiating. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery. The bearers were James McLaughlin, Patrick Carthy, James Carthy, Andrew Shanahan, James Carthy and Edward Byrne. C. H. Molloy & Sons were the undertakers in charge.

LIANNOX.—The funeral of Mrs. Helen M. Liannox took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Thomas, 15 Coral street. The services were conducted by Rev. James M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Appropriate selections were sung by Miss Katherine Gordon and Miss Elizabeth Parkinson. The bearers were John Chalmers, James M. Craig, John E. Houston and Edward D. Moffitt. Burial was in the family lot in the Westlawn cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. Miriam C. Brown under the direction of Undertaker George W. Healey.

FRENCH.—The funeral of William H. French took place from his residence, 379 Bridge street on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery at 3:30, by Rev. R. A. Greene, D. D., pastor of the Grace Universalist church. The bearers were Harry Clifton, Frank C. French, John Gregg and Mr. Miller. The burial was in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

RAFFERTY.—The funeral of Daniel Rafferty took place Saturday afternoon from the home of his parents, John and Della Rafferty, 37 Hall street. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

REILLEY.—The funeral of Madeline L. Reilly took place Sunday afternoon from the home of her parents, Patrick F. and Mary A. Reilly, 9 Ellis avenue, Pawtucketville, and was largely attended. There were many beautiful floral tributes including a large pillow inscribed "Our Baby" from the parents, large sprays from Miss Anna Murphy, Miss Mary Reilly and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Reilly, and a large bouquet from Mrs. Corley. The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FUNERAL NOTICE

DUNKERLEY.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. Dunkerley will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her son William Howarth, 46 West Fourth street. Friends are cordially invited to attend. Interment in the Eden cemetery in charge of Funeral Director James W. McKenna.

HOBBLE SKIRT

CAUSED WOMAN TO FRACTURE HER LEG

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Wearing her first hobble skirt, Miss Lillian Shuttleworth, 22 years old, of 245 Huguenot street, New Rochelle, tried to run down a steep incline at Glen Island Saturday afternoon and suffered a fracture of her left leg when she tripped and fell.

She was carried to the Glen Island Emergency hospital, where her injuries were attended to. She was then taken in a newboat to New Rochelle. An automobile met the boat at the pier and Miss Shuttleworth was taken to her home. It was said there last night that her injury was likely to keep her in the hospital for several weeks.

She was with several other young women when the accident occurred. The other members of the party, they heard her scream and saw her fall. When they reached her side they found she had fainted from the pain. The young women who were with her when she was hurt said that Miss Shuttleworth donned a hobble skirt Saturday for the first time, and that, accustomed to the restricted dimensions of the garment, she had tripped and fallen while running no faster than she might have run in safety had she been wearing a more voluminous skirt.

FOUND NOT GUILTY

Man Was Charged With Larceny of Money

One of the most interesting as well as lengthy cases that has been heard in police court for a long time was aired before Judge Hadley this morning, when a hearing was given John Thomas, a young man, who it was alleged stole $73 in money from a safe in the rear of the store at 479 Merrimack street occupied by Frederick P. Crawford, who deals in barbers' supplies. The government offered three witnesses, while the only witness for the defense was the defendant himself. The court after considering the evidence in the case found the defendant not guilty, and ordered him discharged. Lawyer William A. Hogan appeared for the defendant.

The first witness was the complainant, Mr. Crawford, who after answering the usual preliminary questions, gave a description of the stores occupied by him in Merrimack street. He is a member of the Frye & Crawford Drug Co., which occupies the store at 474 Merrimack street, while the store just beyond in the same building and numbered 475 is occupied by him alone where he deals in barbers' supplies. The stores are connected in the rear where the safe is located. Witness during the course of his testimony said that the clerk in either store had access to the other store by passing through the rear room, also that it was necessary to go near the safe in order to go from one store to the other.

Continuing with his testimony, Mr. Crawford said: "I met Thomas once or twice previous to his visit to my place on Wednesday afternoon. At that time he told me that he had closed his barber shop in Paige street and had his furniture stored away and would like to have me dispose of it for him. I gave him permission to bring the stuff to the store and shortly before six o'clock Thursday evening the furniture was brought on a moving van to the store. Thomas was with the men and he assisted in unloading the furniture. Everything with the exception of the mirrors was placed in the rear room, the latter being placed in a place which he named. I told him that I did not want to buy it, but that if he wanted to I would sell it for him. He seemed to be very anxious to realize on the articles at once, but I refused to buy and finally we agreed that he would tag the different articles, placing on the tags the amounts which he wanted for each.

"At about that time I was left alone in the store and was called from one store to another on several occasions, leaving Thomas in the rear room alone. While I was waiting on a boy in the front store I heard my cash box, which was in the safe, rattle. I rushed into the rear store and found Thomas standing beside the safe. I turned the knob on the door and then turned the combination, looking the safe. I then watched Thomas closely for I was suspicious that he had taken the box. Thomas remained in the rear room for about an hour after that.

"During almost the entire time that we were conversing Thomas carried a big rubber coat over his arm and also had it on his arm while he was tagging the furniture.

"About an hour before Thomas entered the place there was $73 in the cash box in the safe. There was $23 and some change in there and I placed $50 there prior to the man coming in. I had to make a draft of $73 the following day. I did not know that the money was missing until the next morning when my bookkeeper notified me that it was missing."

On cross-examination witness said that the safe was open between about 4:30 in the afternoon and 7 o'clock at night. He admitted that although he heard the rattle of what he claimed was his cash box, when he returned to the rear of the store he looked almost everywhere excepting in the safe, where he had left the box. He did not even look in the safe before he locked the door. He also said that he never said a word to Thomas about suspecting him of having been fumbling about the safe and that Thomas stayed around the store for an hour or more after that.

The young lady who acts as bookkeeper for both Mr. Crawford and the Frye & Crawford Drug Co. and takes care of the cash for Mr. Crawford said that she and Mr. Crawford were the only ones who knew the combination of the safe. She testified to the time of arrival of Thomas and to the fact that she corroborated to a certain extent the testimony offered by Mr. Crawford. She left the store at 6 o'clock, went home to supper and returned about 7 o'clock. She had no occasion to go to the safe that night. As a general rule she places the money taken in during the day in the safe at night when she closes the store, but on several occasions when she would lose her car if she went to the safe she has taken the bag of money and placed it in her desk.

On the night of the alleged larceny she left the money in the desk. The next morning when she opened the safe she found that the box was missing. She later notified Mr. Crawford.

Joseph Miller, a salesman for the Crawford company, testified that on Thursday night he left his bag of money with the bookkeeper and went to supper. When he returned Mr. Crawford and Thomas were talking. Witness said he saw Thomas with a rubber coat over his arm but during a portion of the conversation the rubber coat was lying on an ice chest. He assisted in tagging the furniture.

Later Thomas went to the front of the store and had an ice cream soda, inquired for Mr. Crawford, saw him and then went outside the store and remained standing there for ten or fifteen minutes.

After I got through tagging the articles I went to the front store and got a glass of ice cream soda and later saw Mr. Crawford. It was raining hard at the time and knowing that Mr. Crawford was going home I offered to let him take my raincoat, but he said he had his covered buggy in front of the store.

All the money that I had at the time was two cents and after staying around the store for a few minutes I went across the street and pawned a watch which cost me $35 for $2.50. I paid my gas bill out of that and Friday night about 11:30 o'clock the inspectors called at my home and brought me to the police station and upon searching me found 38 cents, which was part of the money which I secured on the watch.

This concluded the case and Judge Hadley found the defendant not guilty and ordered him discharged.

Drunken Offenders

There were many drunks brought before Judge Hadley this morning despite the fact that they were released yesterday early this morning. Of the number which appeared in court this morning 13 were Sunday drunks.

Patrick Fels was charged with drunkenness and entered a plea of not guilty. Patrolman Wesley A. Wilson testified that he found the man in Trull's barn in Andover street about 12:50 o'clock yesterday morning. Fels said that he had got on the wrong car and finding that there were no more cars running and that he would have to walk to his destination he walked into the barn to rest himself. Inasmuch as he is on parole from the state farm he will be returned to that institution.

Joseph J. Sullivan and Michael Burke, who are also on parole, will return to the farm with Fels. Joseph J. McDermott and James McDermott, brothers, were in for drunkenness. James escaped with a $5 fine, but Joe was sentenced to four months in jail.

Liam Harris was given six months in jail. James Walsh will spend four months at that place and Catherine Boyle will remain there for the term of one month.

The following were assessed $5 each: Joseph Anasiewicz, William Furell, Thomas Seveall, and Thomas F. Maloney.

William Fleming and Frank McGovern were taxed $5 each and five first offenders were fined $2 each.

NEW ST. MARY'S

Will be Rededicated in Two Weeks

The rededication of St. Mary's church, Collinsville, will take place on Sunday, August 21, at 10:30 o'clock, and promises to be the most imposing religious event in the history of the village. The officiating clergyman will be Mr. Dennis O'Farrell of Roxbury, Mass. The celebrant of the mass will be Rev. Charles J. Sullivan, D. C. L., assistant chancellor of the archdiocese of Boston, and a Collinsville boy, and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Patrick J. Supple, D. D., of Boston. A special musical program will be arranged for the occasion.

DEATHS

DUNKERLEY.—Mrs. Mary A. Dunkerley, wife of James L. Dunkerley, a resident of Ballouville, Conn. died Saturday night at the home of her son William Howarth, 46 West Fourth street, after a short illness, aged 53 years. She leaves her husband, four daughters, Mrs. Robert Rushton of Lawrence, Mrs. Leon Blodgett of Methuen and the Misses Clara and Sarah Howarth of Lowell; also three sons, William Howarth of this city and Frank and Joseph Howarth of Ballouville, Conn. Time of funeral will be announced later.

RACETTE.—Mrs. Delphis Racette died yesterday at the Lowell hospital, aged 36 years. The body was removed to the residence of her sister, Mrs. Charles Ouellette, 109 Tremont street. Deceased left a husband, three brothers, Oliver, Gratien and Lawrence and Exidore, Laurent and Albion; Gratien of Lowell, and three sisters, Mrs. Ouellette and Mrs. Leonie Charoux of Lowell and Mrs. Florence Lee of Derry, N. H.

PIERCE.—Bowen L. Pierce, for many years a familiar figure in the business section of the city, died yesterday at St. John's hospital at the age of 69 years. Two weeks ago he was struck by an automobile at the corner of Merrimack and John streets and never recovered from the shock. He will be remembered by many residents of Lowell as going from office to office and from store to store with his basket on his arm, selling fruit and candy. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertaker George W. Healey on Branch street.

DUNN.—James Dunn, a well known resident of West Chelmsford, died yesterday at Worcester. He is survived by two brothers, John and Matthew, and three sisters, Margaret, Sarah and Elizabeth. The remains will be brought to his home in West Chelmsford this evening by J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

MIDDLE AGED WOMAN wanted for light housework and caring for two children. Apply rear 63 North st.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun's "Wanted" column.

43-46-47-49 MARKET STREET.

N. E. LEAGUE STANDING
	Won	Lost	P. C.
Low Bedford	54	36	60.0
Yarcenter	51	36	58.6
East River	49	38	56.2
Lyons	48	40	54.5
Dowell	43	44	49.4
Lawrence	40	46	46.6
Crackton	36	51	41.4
Haverhill	29	59	33.0

Methuens Defeated by the Lowell Players

The Ziona went to Methuen Saturday and defeated the team representing that town by a score of 56 to 58 and

Belmont. Mildred's plea that the famous Ethbert horse could not do himself justice in the muddy going will stand the acid test in view of the fact that Fitz Herbert won the Jockey Club Weight for Age race at Belmont Park on May 18 over a heavy track. On that occasion Fitz Herbert, who ran in E. Madden's colors, defeated Grassie handsily and ran a mile and a fur-

Wright, Sears & Co.
BANKERS AND BROKERS
Wyman's Exchange

Belmont. Mildred's plea that the famous Ethbert horse could not do himself justice in the muddy going will stand the acid test in view of the fact that Fitz Herbert won the Jockey Club Weight for Age race at Belmont Park on May 18 over a heavy track. On that occasion Fitz Herbert, who ran in E. Madden's colors, defeated Grassie handsily and ran a mile and a fur-

THE SHAW HOSIERY
The Shaw Stocking company is to close the plant from August 12 to 29.

In 1905, we $217,164, an increase in two years of over 100 per cent.

In contrast to the foregoing figures are the figures for pulpwood, all of which is taken by the United States because the bulk prevents exportation across the ocean. In 1908 there were exported by water to the United States
$2,129,694 valued at $197,622 in 1909,
$8,751 cords valued at $628,827. Ex-

Bright, Sears & Co.

RAIDED BY POLICE C. T. A. U. CONVENTION

Men and Women Found in Exclusive Club in Newport

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 8.—After standing guard single-handed for more than nine hours, after a midnight raid on the Narragansett club, which he had led, Constable John G. Cross was yesterday placed under arrest on a warrant charging him with assault and was taken from the clubhouse and to police headquarters.

He did not leave, however, until he had secured a good survey of the place and its fittings and had stuffed his pockets with chips, balls and other articles which he intends to use as evidence in substantiation of charges of gambling.

Cross, acting at the instigation of a number of prominent residents of Narragansett, went to the club with four assistants. They experienced little difficulty in securing admittance and, according to Cross, stood for a full minute in the doorway watching some 30 prominent men and women gathered about roulette wheels, a faro bank and a game of hazard.

Then he ordered the crowd into a corner and proceeded to take their names. Some of the men and women he easily recognized because of their prominence and the others gave names which it is believed were in most instances fictitious. The people were formally summoned to appear in court on Aug. 22.

Meanwhile Cross had dispatched two of his assistants for teams with which to cart away the fittings of the rooms, but once they were outside the doors were locked and they were not able to get back again. The other two assistants were finally induced to leave and Cross was thus left alone on guard.

During the early morning the constable succeeded in getting word of his predicament to the outside world and some time later Asst. Atty. Gen. Harry P. Cross took a hand in the matter and asked Chief of Police James D. Caswell to go to the constable's aid.

The police, however, could not get into the place at the time. Some time later a warrant was sworn out for Constable Cross, charging assault upon an employee of the club, and officers again visited the place.

This time they secured admittance and the constable was placed under arrest. He was immediately jailed out, but in the interim, he says, all evidences of the gambling which he alleges was taking place when he raided the club, except that which he carried in his pockets, was spirited away.

The Narragansett club is one of the most exclusive organizations in the east and numbers among its members, it is said, some of the most prominent people who annually gather at the pier.

Constable Cross described the rooms as the most magnificently furnished apartments that he has ever visited. When he first entered, he says, there were three costly roulette wheels, a faro bank and a game of hazard, all of the latest and most approved type and with the most expensive fittings.

Vanguard of the Temperance Body Has Arrived in Boston

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The vanguard of visitors to this city for the 40th annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America arrived here yesterday morning when more than 500 of the uniformed regiment from the neighborhood of Wilkesbarre, Pa., came into the South station and later in the day went into camp at Castle Island. This morning at 10 o'clock the camp will be dedicated "Camp Wilkesbarre."

The regiment came to the city from Providence, having arrived there very early in the morning from New York, from which city they sailed Saturday night on one of the sound boats. The regiment is composed of companies from the inland section of Pennsylvania, and they were glad to get a glimpse at the salt water and happy that their camp had been pitched on an island where they would get the salt breezes for the whole week.

The train that brought the regiment up to the city from Providence was followed by a second section, and aboard this was a party of half a hundred young women from Wilkesbarre, Pittston and other towns in the neighborhood. The young women were the most part sisters of the boys in the regiment and others who took advantage of the week's outing.

The visiting young women were met by a delegation of the women's temperance organization of St. James' church and escorted to Cheever hall, Harrison street, where they were registered and then taken to the Commonwealth hotel, where the Pennsylvania party will have their headquarters for the week.

Crowds Visit Castle Island

In addition to the Pennsylvania contingent there were many non-arrivals of delegates and visitors, and the advance number reaching town yesterday would seem to indicate that quite a large number will be in the city for the week.

The chief interest of yesterday centered in the Wilkesbarre regiment. This is the only uniformed regiment in the United States affiliated with the Catholic total abstinence movement, and the local workers were pleased with the good showing the organization made.

Throughout the afternoon and last evening it was quite apparent that the people of the city, too, were much interested in the regiment, for late in the afternoon it was estimated by many who are familiar with the crowds that go to Castle Island for Sunday afternoon that the crowd there during the afternoon was greater than any previous Sunday this summer.

The band concert and evening parade held about sundown attracted great numbers.

William S. Murphy and the other officers of the regiment were pretty busy during the greater part of the day getting the camp in condition, and a leader in this work was Major Patrick Gibbons, one of the most prominent members and a general favorite with officers and men.

It is not easy to know about everything that was to be known and everyone appeared to be looking for him. The major is in himself a genius for getting things into shape and his ability is that won from good, hard practical experience.

Major Gibbons, like practically all the other members of the regiment, is a miner. He is an athlete of skill and a soldier the whole way through. When the Spanish war broke out he jumped into the service at the first call and went to Cuba and then to the Philippines, serving for a part of the time as adjutant of the Pennsylvania regiment.

Imbued with the spirit of it all, the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Dewey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the detail of half a dozen policemen from station 1 was in charge of Patrolman Thomas Moore, one of the veterans of that division. The cadet escort was commanded by Capt. Frank Montague and Joseph Polla, with Lieutenants Frank Murphy, Michael Hurley and Edward Tingley.

In the vicinity of St. James' church on Harrison avenue, when the mass was over, there had assembled several thousand people and as the regiment proceeded on its way to the camp their marching was applauded by the on-lookers. Over in South Boston, too, crowds viewed the regiment, and its war and the men were given a royal good welcome as they moved along Broadway.

Once in camp the companies broke formation and the boys got their tents ready for the day. The camp has been pitched on the land side of the island and the company streets run from the water up to the walls of Fort Independence.

Quite a large space near the public boat landing has been kept clear for the parade ground and it was here that the evening parade took place late in the afternoon.

At 4 o'clock the regimental band gave a concert of about an hour and a half and this was heard by many thousands of people. The officers of the regiment had it under discussion to give similar concerts through the week at hours that will not interfere with the routine that the local union has mapped out for the Pennsylvaniaans. This will be announced later.

During the afternoon many of the local clergy, especially spiritual directors of the parish societies, visited the camp and met the officers and men. President Shea, Mrs. Tilton and others were there and among those prominent in arranging for the welfare of the visitors were Joseph T. Brennan, the cathedral branch leader, J. O'Neil, president of the cathedral branch, Edward Battis of division 3, A. O. H., Misses Annie and Mary Sullivan, John Mitchell Expected.

It was stated by several of those from Wilkesbarre as a positive fact that John Mitchell, the well known labor leader and former president of the coal miners, would come to this city for the convention, or at least part of the time, and would be one of the speakers at the big rally in Boston theatre on next Friday night.

The feature of the camp at Castle Island today will be the dedication which will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. It is hoped that Mayor Niven of Wilkesbarre will be able to come here for the exercises although when the regiment left that city on Saturday the mayor was sick.

It is also expected that City Treasurer Daniel Hart of Wilkesbarre will arrive for the dedication. The city treasurer is one of the best known men in Wilkesbarre. He is very popular with the people and has written several plays that deal with the life of the coal miners.

Priests' League to Meet

Prof. Michael C. Davitt of Wilkesbarre is here, having come with the regiment. He is a district deputy of the Knights of Columbus for the Wilkesbarre district. Many of the members of the regiment are members of the Knights of Columbus and they will find a host of fellow members in this city to entertain the following morning.

Another arrival yesterday morning was Rev. P. L. Reagan, C. S. P., of Chicago, who comes to make arrangements for the caring of the Paulist cadets of Chicago, who will arrive on Tuesday. Col. George D. Griffin will be service and was one of the men who was entrusted with that gigantic and successful tour of duty.

He came on here in charge of the advance detail to prepare the camp at Castle Island, and though he had but 48 hours in which to do it with a dozen men, he had the place in ship shape yesterday morning when the regiment arrived and everyone said, "Well, Maj. Gibbons was the man."

There are many other members of the regiment who have seen military service too, quite a number of the boys being Spanish war veterans, and the whole command is a well-disciplined, well-organized outfit that speaks well for the idea.

The train bearing the regiment arrived in the South station at 7:15 o'clock, and as soon as the men were off the cars they were placed in conventional restaurants for breakfast. They reassembled at the station at 8:30 o'clock and marched to St. James' church, Harrison avenue, where a special mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock.

To Have Mass Every Morning

Rev. Fr. J. J. O'Malley of St. Mary's church, Wilkesbarre, was the celebrant of the mass, and during the stay of the regiment he will be the chaplain. It was announced at the church that each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the church the regiment was escorted by about 300 boys of the cadet corps of the Pennsylvania cadets of St. James' parish. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan F. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the first time the governing board of the Boston branch of the C. T. A. U., headed by Pres. John T. Shea of Cambridge with Sec'y Maurice Dineen and Mrs. Augustus Tilton, one of the vice-presidents.

The sermon at the mass was preached by Rev. Dr. M. J. O'Connor, spiritual director of the abstinence movement. O'Connor expressed the pleasure of the local union at having the regiment present for the convention week. He praised the work that they were engaged in, for the splendid example their organization set for others. He said that they would be a credit to the Catholic temperance movement, and their stay here would be the cause for a glad welcome on a return visit at some future time.

At the conclusion of the services in the church the regiment was reformed and marched through Harrison avenue to Broadway and then through the city was traversed over into South Boston until the regiment reached the Castle Island camp.

Clergymen Visit the Camp

The detail of half a dozen policemen from station 1 was in charge of Patrolman Thomas Moore, one of the veterans of that division. The cadet escort was commanded by Capt. Frank Montague and Joseph Polla, with Lieutenants Frank Murphy, Michael Hurley and Edward Tingley.

In the vicinity of St. James' church on Harrison avenue, when the mass was over, there had assembled several thousand people and as the regiment proceeded on its way to the camp their marching was applauded by the on-lookers. Over in South Boston, too, crowds viewed the regiment, and its war and the men were given a royal good welcome as they moved along Broadway.

Once in camp the companies broke formation and the boys got their tents ready for the day. The camp has been pitched on the land side of the island and the company streets run from the water up to the walls of Fort Independence.

Quite a large space near the public boat landing has been kept clear for the parade ground and it was here that the evening parade took place late in the afternoon.

At 4 o'clock the regimental band gave a concert of about an hour and a half and this was heard by many thousands of people. The officers of the regiment had it under discussion to give similar concerts through the week at hours that will not interfere with the routine that the local union has mapped out for the Pennsylvaniaans. This will be announced later.

During the afternoon many of the local clergy, especially spiritual directors of the parish societies, visited the camp and met the officers and men. President Shea, Mrs. Tilton and others were there and among those prominent in arranging for the welfare of the visitors were Joseph T. Brennan, the cathedral branch leader, J. O'Neil, president of the cathedral branch, Edward Battis of division 3, A. O. H., Misses Annie and Mary Sullivan, John Mitchell Expected.

It was stated by several of those from Wilkesbarre as a positive fact that John Mitchell, the well known labor leader and former president of the coal miners, would come to this city for the convention, or at least part of the time, and would be one of the speakers at the big rally in Boston theatre on next Friday night.

The feature of the camp at Castle Island today will be the dedication which will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. It is hoped that Mayor Niven of Wilkesbarre will be able to come here for the exercises although when the regiment left that city on Saturday the mayor was sick.

In charge of the cadets. The Paulist cadets of New York city will also arrive Tuesday.

Rev. Fr. M. A. Lambing, V. F. of Scotland, Pa., president of the Priests' Total Abstinence league, reached here yesterday morning and registered at the Parker house. While the C. T. A. U. convention is in progress the priests' league will also hold its sessions. The headquarters will be at the Parker house.

The headquarters of the C. T. A. U. will be at the Adams house. Other arrivals yesterday included Rev. Fr. J. V. Moylan of Nanticoke, Pa., and J. Washington Logue, who with a party motored here from Atlantic City.

It is expected that quite a large number of state and archdiocesan delegations will arrive during today and that western tourists' clubs will begin to put in appearance late tonight and tomorrow. The local officers are confident that the 40th annual convention will be the most successful in the history of the C. T. A. U.

LIEUT. J. E. BURNS

To Coach the Bay State Rifle Team

First Lieut. James E. Burns of Company C, Sixth regiment, M. V. M., of this city, who is a member of the rifle team picked from the state militia for the annual national matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, left with the other members of the team Monday.

Burns being a member of the team, he is also to act as coach of the Massachusetts aggregation.

The Massachusetts team is to take part in all of the big matches of the tournament, the national matches, the events under the auspices of the National Rifle association and others. The tournament this year is expected to be the biggest and most important of any ever held in the United States. Teams from all branches of the regular service and from the National Guard of the various states and the District of Columbia will take part.

SECTION BOSS

Was Stabbed by One of His Help

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8.—Maurice O'Brien of 16 Maplewood terrace, Middleburg, who is employed by the Boston & Albany railroad as a section boss on the West Springfield division, was seriously stabbed on Westfield road last night, his throat being cut from ear to chin.

Mr. O'Brien was walking along Westfield road with William Whalen, and when near Black Brook in Tatham, they were overtaken by three men riding in a wagon. O'Brien spoke to the men, who had evidently been drinking, and advised them to make less noise. This was resented by one of the three, for drawing a knife he leaned over the side of the wagon and made a lunge at O'Brien, opening up an ugly gash about five inches long, extending from the left ear to the chin.

The men in the wagon drove on quickly and Mr. Whalen assisted the injured man to the home of E. A. Benedict. O'Brien was taken to the Springfield hospital in the ambulance. The knife did not reach the arteries and it is expected that O'Brien will recover, although he is very weak from loss of blood.

Chief E. A. Phelps of the West Springfield police was notified and started at once in chase for the three men. The Springfield and Chicopee police were also notified to look out for them.

No accurate description of the three men in the wagon can be given, although Mr. Whalen believes he can identify the man who did the stabbing.

GOING TO REVERE

ANNUAL OUTING OF FEDERAL SHOE CO.'S EMPLOYEES

The Federal Shoe company's employees are making arrangements to turn out on mass at their annual outing, which is scheduled to take place at Revere beach on Saturday next.

Notwithstanding the fact that this is the company's busy season, everything being now on the "rush," the management, which at all times takes a kindly interest in the social affairs of its employees, has decided to close down the entire plant for the day.

Daniel W. Shanahan, the popular superintendent of the Federal, will accompany the party to the beach. An interesting feature of the day's program will be a "deciding" ball game between two very undisciplined teams composed of Federal employees, which will take place at Orient Heights.

ALL READY FOR A. O. H. WEEK

Mr. C. F. Young, the local decorator, has just returned from Provincetown, where he was engaged as official decorator for the recent celebration there. Mr. Young has also been engaged as official decorator for the A. O. H. week in Lowell. Those intending to decorate for that occasion should place their orders early with Mr. Young.

LOWELL MAN

TO HAVE CHARGE OF WALTHAM PUBLIC LIBRARY

Orlando C. Davis of this city has been elected librarian of the Waltham public library, and he will assume his new duties on Sept. 1. Mr. Davis while attending high school was connected with the local city library and is well versed in the work. During his college course at Dartmouth he was also connected with the college library. During the past three years since his graduation from Dartmouth he has been cataloguer of the Dartmouth college library and has been in charge of the reference room.

BANNER BLESSED

A beautiful banner, representing the apparition of the Virgin to Bernadette at Lourdes, was blessed last night at the Church of Notre Dame de Lourdes. It was blessed Sunday and a procession of the members of the congregation, the Notre-Dame de Lourdes, to which the new banner belongs, was held after vesper. Rev. Fr. Lamotte, O. M. I., blessed the banner and preached the sermon.

The Bon Marche

Monday Evening Sale

FROM 6 TO 9.30 O'CLOCK ONLY

HANDKERCHIEFS (Near Door) Fancy colored border handkerchiefs for fancy work, variety of patterns. Regularly 10c.	MONDAY EVENING 3 for 25c
BELT PATTERNS (Art Dept.) New designs stamped for embroidery on mercerized corded belting. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 10c
SHELL BARRETTES (Near Elevator) An extraordinary bargain in barrettes and back combs, shell and amber, in a large variety of kinds and patterns; sold regularly from 10c to 25c. See special window display.	MONDAY EVENING 7c
MIDDY BLOUSES (Waist Dept.) Regulation style, soft twill cotton, broadcloth collar of blue; some few are white; sizes 32 to 40; regular prices 79c and 98c.	MONDAY EVENING 59c
SATEEN PETTICOATS (Second Floor) Deep flounce, extra full, Jersey top; sold at ways at $2, $2.50 and $3.50.	MONDAY EVENING 98c
FLOOR MOPS (Basement) Spring end mop stick and heavy cotton twine mop; regular price 35c.	MONDAY EVENING 21c
TRIMMED HATS (Millinery Dept.) 25 Grass Hats, trimmed with silk in all colors; regularly sold at 98c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
MISSIE VESTS (Underwear Dept.) Lisle Vests, low neck and sleeveless, fancy yoke; regular price 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 2 for 25c
SILK SHIELD BOWS (Men's Dept.) All colors, good quality poplin. Regular price 25c.	MONDAY EVENING 11c
WOMEN'S HOSE (Street Floor) Fine gauge cotton, black and tan, ribbed top and plain; all sizes. Regularly 15c.	MONDAY EVENING 10c
MOIRE RIBBON (Street Floor) All Silk Moire Taffeta, 5 inches wide, colors, white, pink, and blue; regularly 29c.	MONDAY EVENING 19c
STORM SERGE (Dress Goods) All wool, navy blue, storm serge, 42 inches wide for vacation suits or for school wear. Regular price 59c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
INFANTS' DRESSES (Second Floor) White lawn dresses, lace and hamburger trimmed, sizes for 6 months to 2 years. Regular prices 75c and 95c.	MONDAY EVENING 49c
CHILDREN'S SHOES (Shoe Dept.) White canvas low shoes, sizes 3 to 8. Regular price 49c.	MONDAY EVENING 29c
TOILET SOAP (Street Floor) Cocoa Oil Buttermilk Soap, large cake. Regular price 10c.	MONDAY EVENING 3c

WE CALL ATTENTION

To the fact that another Big Bargain Sale is in preparation at our store. Look for the two-page ad. in Thursday's papers for further particulars.

B. & M. ENGINEERS DROPPED DEAD

Enjoyed Outing at Canobie Lake Park After Greeting Long Missing Son

A merry party of about 500, comprising members of Boston division 81, brotherhood of locomotive engineers, and Paul Revere lodge, B. of L. E., with their families, enjoyed an outing at Canobie lake yesterday.

In a special train provided by the Boston & Maine road officials the party left Boston at 9:25 a. m. Dinner was served at noon and the return trip was begun at 6.

D. W. Sanborn, ex-general superintendent of the Boston & Maine; Mrs. Sanborn, L. C. Todd, master mechanic of the Fitchburg division, and F. H. Flynn, dispatcher of the Southern division, were special guests.

The outing was in charge of a committee comprising Orman B. Folkins, chairman, Leonard Marshall and Joseph Ames of division 61 and Chas. A. Berry, Ralph P. Goff and H. Litchfield of Paul Revere lodge. The organizations plan to make a joint outing an annual feature.

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.

MRS. WINDLOW'S SCOTCH WHISKY has been used for over SIXTY YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WITH THE BEST RESULTS. IT IS ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Windlow's Scotch Whisky" and take no other kind. Twenty-five-cent bottles.

SAGINAW, Mich., Aug. 8.—"Oh, I am so glad to see you again; it seems so long since you were home," said Mrs. Abbie Brown, 62 years, when her son, Charles of Loamis, Mich., entered her home after a long separation. With these words she dropped dead. She was so excited when her son appeared that heart trouble caused her death.

Young Men's Christian Association Building

Sealed proposals will be received at the Young Men's Christian Association Building, Third street, Lowell, Mass., until 12 o'clock, noon, August 31st, 1910, for the erection of a four-story Young Men's Christian Association building in Lowell.

Plans and instructions to bidders may be secured by contractors at the Young Men's Christian Association Building every week day from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Proposals for constructing the entire building only will be received by any person desiring to submit to general contractors bids for any portion of the general contract may obtain the requisite information at the same time and place. Copies of said plans will also be on file at the Builders' Exchange, Lowell, Mass., and at the Master Builders' Association, No. 166 Devonshire street, Boston.

Chairman Executive Committee, P. A. STATHIER.

ROSE PITONOF

The First Woman to Swim to Boston Light

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Little Rose Pitonof of Dorchester, Boston's marvelous 16-year old schoolgirl swimmer, must be accredited with the laurels and glory that go with the proud title of champion female swimmer of the world, for yesterday the diminutive, but intrepid young woman swam from the pier of Charlestown bridge to Boston Light, a feat never before accomplished by one of her sex and only once before beyond question by a human girl.

The wonderful little girl dived off the harbor end of the pier beneath the big bridge connecting Charlestown and Boston at 11:23, and after battling with the waves, eddies, cross currents, wind and changeable temperature of the open waters of the harbor for six hours and fifty minutes she gripped the jagged rocks from which roars the whistling beacon, a fraction less than ten miles away, at 6:15. Then she nonchalantly scrambled up over the rocks and greeted Levi D. Clark, the lighthouse keeper, with a smile and a handshake that would have made an ordinary man wince.

With the utmost unconcern Rose listened to the cheers that were shouted toward her by the small group of attendants and erstwhile competitors that accompanied her in rowboats, dories and launches; to the distant shouts of acclaim that floated over the waters from the soldiers on the parapets at Fort Warren, and to the shrieking of steam sirens and whistles on passing craft, as she clambered up the jagged, rocky beach.

With the praises of the small, but faithful, gallery ringing in her ears her first thought, after she had calmed her nerves after the terrible ordeal, was of the members of her immediate family who had accompanied her on her long, arduous battle with the waves.

They were aboard the small naphtha launch, which had been christened the Rose Pitonof in honor of the girl, and she responded to their cheers and waving handkerchiefs with smiles and nods and kisses wafted from the tips of her berry-brown fingers.

Then the stocky little phenomenon of the water was hurried into the lighthouse and her attendants, including

Eye Glasses at Less Than Half

Broken Lenses replaced 40c
Gold Filled Riding Bow Glasses $2.00
Aluminum Glasses $1.00
Rimless Eyeglasses $1.00
Office hours 10 to 8, Sundays 2 to 5. Closed Wednesdays.

J. W. GRADY

GRADUATE OPTICIAN
Rooms 415, 416 and 420 Wynona's Exchange Building, Cor. Central and Merrimack sts. Telephone 1644.

CUT HIS THROAT

Man Took Razor During Barber's Absence

PITTSFIELD, Aug. 8.—John A. Hall of Springfield, son of the late John A. Hall, former president of the Springfield Mutual life insurance company, killed himself in a bathroom at the Maplewood hotel just before noon yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor.

Mr. Hall was at the hotel convalescing from nervous prostration. He had been morbid and, dispirited since the death of his mother two years ago.

He arrived at the hotel on June 17 with his sister, Miss Leighton Hall, and a woman attendant. Since that time he had been occasionally very melancholy. Saturday he was very dispirited.

Yesterday morning Harry H. Lehn, a barber, went to Hall's room with a kit of tools and shaved his customer. Hall appeared bright, then used and chatted about subjects which he and the barber had before discussed. When Lehn stepped out of the room to get some hot water Hall took one of the several razors from Lehn's kit and secreted it.

Finishing the shaving, the barber left the hotel, and Hall said to his sister that he would take a bath. Miss Hall was reading the morning paper, and later heard her brother groaning in the bathroom.

She tried the door and found it locked. Summoning a bellboy, she called the manager of the house, and he had the house locksmith open the door.

Mr. Hall was dead on the bathroom floor.

Mr. Hall was 22 years old and was at one time one of the officers of the Springfield Mutual life insurance company. His body was sent to Springfield for burial.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do Forest, Wis.—"After an operation four years ago I had pains down a rd in both sides, backache, and a weakness. The doctor wanted me to have another operation. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am entirely cured of my troubles."

Mrs. AUGUSTE VESPERMANN, Do Forest, Wisconsin.

Another Operation Avoided.

New Orleans, La.—"For years I suffered from severe female troubles. Finally I was confined to my bed and the doctor said an operation was necessary. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and was saved from an operation."

Mrs. LILY PLYNOR, 111 Kerler St., New Orleans, La.

Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ills from which so many women suffer.

No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made exclusively from roots and herbs.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

Well, what do you think of this? The state of Minnesota has such a surplus in the treasury that state taxes are likely to be omitted for the year 1911. Wait till the grafters of the east hear of this, then look for a big exodus to Minnesota.

While the police officers are enforcing the ordinance, preventing needless delay in the square, they might pull in a few of the wild joy riders who swing around the corners without any regard for the people getting on and off the cars. A few examples will bring these violators of the law to their senses.

WHERE THE BLAME LIES

It is rather amusing at times to hear prominent local republican politicians hold forth on the necessity of a city charter for Lowell which would take the city business out of politics. Yet everyone knows that nothing but the republican party and republican politicians and grafters prevent us from getting the kind of charter we need.

TOO GOOD TO LAST

In a circular letter sent out by a company manufacturing automobiles, soliciting subscriptions for increased capital, the statement is made that the profits run from 40 to 60 per cent. on the cars sold. If that's the case, then some one is in for a big bump when competition begins to get in its work. The Selden patent runs out in about two years, and then the trouble for automobile manufacturers will commence.

WE HOPE IT'S TRUE

We notice that a new industry is expected to come to Lowell through the efforts of the Board of Trade. People have been hearing so much in that line that they are likely to take as much stock in this new statement as in the frequently renewed story that Keith's theatre is to be built on Bridge street. We hope, however, that there is something more substantial to the last rumor than there has been to the theatre talk. All is well that ends well. If we get both the theatre and the new manufacturing concern, of course we will be thankful.

ONE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE

Don't stand around in idleness and say there is no opening for an ambitious man. If you cannot secure employment why not take up farming which offers greater inducements in New England today than ever before. Anyone can get started on a small farm who wants to work and become independent. The cost of living is high for everyone these days except the farmer. For him the cost of living is always the same. A good day's work always produces a good day's living and a little more for the farmer, no matter what the condition of the stock market or any other market may be. The most independent man in the world during good times and bad times is the farmer who is willing to work and let run and style alone.

PEOPLE GET WHAT THEY VOTE FOR

People vote to put grafters in office because a majority of the voters like graft. If they thought differently they would vote differently. If the majority is wrong on this question perhaps they can be made to see their error. If they are right perhaps they will bring the minority over to their way of thinking and make it unanimous one of these days. Who knows? Many people believe in putting good, capable men in office, but the vast majority believe in putting small, cheap politicians in office, and that's why we have so many of them. The majority rules. The majority does not want economy in city affairs; if they did they would vote that way. There is a large element in every community who like to elect a man to high office who will act like a bull in a china shop. They enjoy the fun; they gloat over the destruction and the turmoil; in fact they like to go on a political spree once in awhile. These voters never count the cost, indeed they don't believe there is any cost to them, but when they wake up, as they do once in awhile, and realize that there is a cost, and that it comes out of their pockets in the end, they are apt to do some thinking. Isn't it about time that some voters did a little serious thinking hereabouts?

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY

The old slogan in labor circles used to be a fair day's pay for a fair day's work, and a proper slogan it was. Surely a man is entitled to a fair day's pay if he delivers a fair day's work. The justice of this principle is now generally conceded. But in some quarters employers are beginning to start a new slogan which in reality is the original one reversed. They argue that nearly every craftsman is now receiving a fair day's pay, and should deliver a fair day's work, and employers say they are justified in insisting upon this. If a fair day's work is worth a fair day's pay surely a fair day's pay should secure a fair day's work. But there is no denying that there is a growing tendency in many trades to pocket a fair day's pay, and then scheme and plan to see how small a day's work can be delivered for it. This, we are happy to say, is not very common as yet, but it is gradually creeping into many crafts which once were honorable, and it is a species of injustice that will surely bring disaster to those who practice it or deliberately wink at it.

The workman whose main object is to see how little work he can do, how few hours he can put in, and how much money he can get for nothing will sooner or later come to grief for he is dishonest. The honest workman who is willing to deliver a fair day's work for a fair day's pay will have steady employment when his tricky and dishonest fellow workman finds himself wondering why he cannot hold a steady job.

SEEN AND HEARD

Of all the greedy animals the big Alaskan bear at the Bronx zoo comes first, according to a keeper.

"Perhaps his size makes him unusually hungry, for there seems to be no limit to his appetite," the keeper says. "Two big chunks of meat and a dozen loaves of bread are thrown into the enclosure occupied by the big fellow and a grizzly. The grizzly seizes a piece of meat and goes into a corner to eat it. It is when the time comes for the bread that the Alaskan shows himself a glutton. The loaves are scattered over the enclosure and the big fellow proceeds to collect them in a heap. Some he carries in his mouth while pushing others along the asphalt with a paw. If the grizzly can grab a loaf and scurry away with it, he is lucky. He is glad to get the crumbs left by his giant cage mate."—New York Sun.

If the Bronx zoo management believes in fair play why not part the Alaskan and grizzly in separate cages? The tariff that allows the big fellow the big pieces ought not to obtain in the zoo.

"The pair of elands we recently got from South Africa present an example of domestic felicity that beats anything in the animal line we have here in a long time," said the keeper in the Central Park menagerie.

"In this case the female is the boss as she is three years older than her mate. Some observers might say that he was a henpecked spouse, but he is contented. In fact they are a happy pair as you can see by the way they chum together in the paddock. They are the handsomest and most graceful of all antelopes. There is a freak growth in one of the female's long horns which gives her a decided advantage in a fight as she can jab an opponent whichever way she swings her head.

"At meal time she keeps her mate off until she gets the best of the fodder, but he doesn't seem to mind that."—New York Sun.

"The female eland is simply acting the part of the wise and generous husband."

HER FAULT

She has so many matchless charms, Time fails me to recite them. Had I a pen of shorthand speed, I would take a week to write them. She's a fair of figure, fair of face, And even the most spiteful Admit her loveliness and grace— In short she's just delightful.

Her mental faculties are keen. She's wonderfully witty. She's something more than a fair doll And not just merely pretty. Yet one thing all my ardent checks— I cannot but disclose it— She is the fairest of her sex.

But, oh, good Lord! she knows it!—Somerville Journal.

He laughs best who has his vacation last—provided it doesn't rain all the time he is away.

Now that dog days are here, it is almost time for the true pessimist to begin worrying for fear it is going to be unusually cold next winter.

Anybody who has ever been fishing will agree right away that it is much better fun to catch a two-pound trout than it is to clean it.

There are a great many people who pass for highly cultivated and who

A Chemist's Discovery

NEW REMEDY FOR ECZEMA AND OTHER SKIN TROUBLES

The most remarkable feature about Cadum, the new remedy for skin diseases, is that it has been found to be effective in every case where it is applied. Not a single instance has been found where it failed to allay the terrible itching of eczema at once. People who have been afflicted with eczema for years and have tried everything without being relieved should take fresh courage for the new remedy Cadum is different from anything else. It is the discovery of a chemist, who felt for years that the world needed a cure for eczema and other skin diseases, and as a result of his studies and experiments Cadum was the outcome. While possessing such remarkable powers in overcoming different forms of skin troubles, Cadum contains no dangerous ingredients. When applied over unsightly sores on the face and hands, it forms a thin, almost invisible coating, so that the disease is covered up while the healing process is going on. The 10c size is intended for trial purposes by those who wish to test its wonderful virtues in skin troubles, such as hives, pimples, blotches, tetter, itch, acne, herpes, scaly skin, rash, psoriasis, ringworm, chafings, eruptions, sores, scabs, itching piles, scurvy, etc. Large boxes 25c at all druggists.

When You Know How

To select good burning coal, or if you know now—yourself—come to me with your fuel requirements. I will advise you the fact that the mines whose output I represent send me nothing but the most desirable sort of condensed fuel. For my part, I deliver only a well screened article, of full weight, and have it at your door promptly. At such prices my coal makes for real economy.

Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

JOHN P. QUINN

Office and Yards, Gorham and Dix Sts. Take any Gorham street car. Telephone 1130 and 2480; when one is busy, call the other.

SAVE TIME AND MUSCLE

Goodale's Wash Clean

Will do it. We have customers who have used it for years and any it does not injure the clothes and saves 20 per cent. of the labor on wash day.

GOODALE'S DRUG STORE, 217 CENTRAL STREET.

ST. THOMAS' SALVE

—FOR— Piles, Old Sores and Skin Diseases

—FOR SALE— At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores

SPECIALS

LOBSTER SALAD, 35c; plain lobster, 20c; steamed oysters, 25c; fried oysters and French fries, 25c; fried clams and French fries, 25c. Call and see us.

LOWELL INN

Busiest place on Central street

have never read half of all that Shakespeare wrote.

Even if Noah Webster spelled strictly according to his dictionary, he allowed himself considerable variety.

The farmer, used to making hay, can't see why the city man should regard it as such a dreadful task to cut the grass on the front lawn with a lawn mower.

If there were no such thing as fashion, half the workmen in the world would lose their jobs.

The man who fusses about the weather not only increases his own discomfort, but he bothers every one around him.

When you are going camping in the woods, a can opener is just as important as a corkscrew.

A reporter sent to cover the recent auction at Huber's museum felt queer when the auctioneer chanted:

"I have here a copy of the first American newspaper ever published in the Philippines. The American Soldier, edited by an American private on his own book. This is the first copy printed in Manila."

The reporter was himself the one time soldier editor. He bid that particular curiosity in.—New York Sun.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The post of Prof. Schiaparelli as director of the Milan observatory has been filled by Dr. Giovanni Corbelli, who has been on the staff since 1872, and since 1876 has been professor of geodesy at the technical institute.

Miss Lucy Page Gaston, superintendent of the anti-cigarette league of America, says there is to be an active campaign against the use of cigars by women. Miss Gaston is the founder of the league.

Gov. Hadley has recognized the efficiency of the college of agriculture of the University of Missouri by placing in its charge all the charitable institutions and the county farms of the state. There are 111 county farms and 25 institutions. It is the plan to send inspectors around regularly. These inspectors will make reports to Dean Mumford and in this way the farms will be managed by the college of agriculture.

Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., one of the largest universities of the country, has a magnificent gymnasium, the gift of James A. Patten, the grain "king." The annual commencement exercises are now held in this building. Ernest Palmer, a graduate of the law school, who was one of the speakers at the last commencement, in the course of an address on "The workingman's day in court," asked "What was on this spot 75 years ago?" "I'll warrant," he continued, "that it was not a field of wheat, and it is more than likely that a bear was in possession." Mr. Patten's friends in the audience are reported to have applauded loudly at the sly reference to the famous "bull."

Rear Admiral Winfield Schley, U. S. N., retired, has gone to Lake George to stay for the remainder of the summer.

Milo Proctor, who for the past sixteen years has been the operator of the state elevator at the state house, has been promoted to that at half pay. Mr. Proctor is a veteran of the Civil war, having served with the old Sixth Massachusetts. He is in his seventeenth year.

Miss Frances Taft, Wellesley, 08, is soon to start for China, where at present she will work under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association of that city. While in her senior year at Wellesley Miss Taft was president of the college Christian Association. She will be accompanied to Peking by Miss Ruth Faxon and they are to be joined there by Miss Anna Brown, who until that time will act as traveling secretary for the Student Volunteers, succeeding Miss Taft in that office.

Miss Susan D. Huntington, a graduate of Wellesley in the class of 1900, is to become director of the International Institute for Girls in Spain, and early in the fall will sail for Madrid, to assume her duties in that office.

On the White Star Liner steamer Romanic, on her way to Italy is a party of New England men and their wives, who are going to Constantinople to take charge of the construction of the buildings of the American College for Girls. The party includes W. S. Hibbard, of Boston, manager of the construction department by Alexander Wright, Boston, foreman mason, L. L. Griehel, of Providence, R. I., foreman carpenter; Clarence Mathewson, Providence, foreman stone-cutter and quarryman; George Eldy, also of Providence, master mechanic. Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Griehel and Mrs. Eldy are in charge of the construction of machinery and contractors' tools are being carried out for use of the native workmen. R. R. Kendall, of Boston, superintendent of construction for the architects, is already in Constantinople.

STABLE FIRE

GAVE MANCHESTER PEOPLE A BAD SCARE

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 8.—The city was given a scare at an early hour yesterday morning when an alarm of fire from box 21, at the corner of Merrimack and Pine streets, in a crowded tenement section, was quickly followed by two more alarms, calling out the entire fire department.

The fire had its origin in a stable at the corner of Pine and Laurel streets, and owned by the heirs of the late Nelson Hall. The blaze was spectacular and, as the flames ascended many feet in the air above the tops of the neighboring buildings, it was taken to mean that a large conflagration was under way and excited individuals pulled in the successive alarms, although not authorized by the fire department, which was able to cope with the fire on one alarm. The flames were confined to the stable except where a shed, 20 feet over the stable, was ignited. The loss was small, and was covered by insurance. The stable was occupied by Joseph Fournier and Adam Bourgeois.

FOUND DYING

HAVERHILL MAN VICTIM OF GAS POISONING

HAVERHILL, Aug. 8.—James J. Devine, 54 years old, was found in the rear room of his store on Elm street, in the Bradford district, early yesterday morning, and he died at 2.15, an hour later, after three physicians had worked in vain to save his life.

Mr. Devine was found by Patrolman Smith and the clock in a small gas stove was open. A burned match found near the stove given credence to the theory of accident. His place was raided by the police earlier in the night.

REV. DR. BARTLETT

Preached From Former Pulpit Yesterday

Rev. W. A. Bartlett, D. D., of Chicago, formerly pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church, this city, occupied his old pulpit yesterday and preached to a large midsummer congregation. His text was the story of the breaking of the alabaster box of ointment, by Mary, the sister of Martha.

During the little controversy when Martha brote in upon the Master and Mary, asking if it was nothing to him, that Mary had left her to serve by herself, he said, "Martha, thou art troubled and anxious about many things; but Mary has chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her." His suggestion to Mary, to my mind, was that much of the anxiety and the trouble was unnecessary. Mary was giving him higher commendation by sitting at his feet and listening to his words, than Martha, by making a preparation which was superfluous.

From what we read, we know that trouble was in the air. The disciples did not understand his mission. Mary having sat at his feet, was surcharged with love for him, and with that deep intuition of woman, was conscious that evil was threatening him. She thought herself of something which she might do for this man who had bestowed so much upon her life. She remembered the box of extremely rare and costly nard, the most precious thing she had, that which might adorn her own person. She took this Syrian nard in her hand, and broke the box, and immediately the fragrance of the perfume filled the air. Then there arose the murmurs of an indignant body of men, who said, "Why this waste, this throwing away of money that might have been given to the poor?"

Judas had bargained with the high priests to sell the Lord for $30.00. It was the price of a slave in the Old Testament days. The value of Jesus in the eyes of Mary was the most precious possession that she had.

Undoubtedly these murderous and grasping Jews would have given Judas a hundred times that sum, but his greedy and voracious soul took the first offer, and was glad to get it. And so you have the two extremes. Mary had sat at the feet of Jesus and heard his words and received the good teaching into her heart, and her life was illumined, ennobled, sweetened and refined. She had come into the possession of the secret of God.

Judas had never come into loving fellowship with Christ. Hence he was willing to sell him for the paltry sum of the price of a slave.

How much is Christ valued at, by us? I think that some of the inactivity of the church universal is because we have failed in the first place to sit at the feet of Jesus. We have heard so many voices and have been sitting at so many feet, that we have been shut out of the privilege of listening to him. Hence the religious obligation and the church relationships are light with us. When we have sat at his feet we say "What have I to give, in return for all that has been done for me?"

Sometimes I think that the word "economy" should never be heard in connection with the church. If we desire in our homes to retrench a little, very good. But Mary gave prodigally. I think every church ought to be doing something, enlarging all the time. They tell me of the mills that are putting in larger engines, and that is not an indication of lack of growth. Yet we say in our churches, let us minimize. Let the church have the mission of breaking her alabaster box of ointment.

Let us enlarge our borders individually. What is there in your life sweet and precious, laid away for yourself? Bring it forth for the Master's use. Though you will hear some murmuring, you will also hear his voice saying "She hath wrought a good work upon me while I am alive."

Monday Bargains

Discontinued styles of $1.97 lingerie and silk waists, the biggest values of the season, all sizes but not in every style.

97c

Dutch neck dresses of sea island percale, unusual style and quality for

$1.50

Lingerie and silk waists, formerly priced $2.97, $3.97 and $5.00, now reduced to

$1.97

New styles of tailored white waists and $1.97 colored striped madras waists, now reduced to

97c

Lace and embroidery trimmed petticoats, deep flounce, finished with wide ribbon and beading, copies of $1.98 petticoats, now

97c

Lawn and gingham $1.50 and $1.97 dresses, now reduced to

97c

Cross bar lawn and black saten tea Aprons, look like the 25c kind, now

10c

The White Store

116 Merrimack St.

A.G. Pollard Co.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

More Specials for This Week

FROM THE

TRUNK and BAG SECTION

Besides our most unusual offering of $7.50 and $8.50 English Club Bags at only $5.00 each this week we offer these

100 Matting Cases

24 in. size, with solid brass lock and catches—Regular price $1.39, at only

98c Each

32 Sample Trunks

All sizes, regular prices $6.50, $7.00 and 8.50, at only

$5.00 Each

PALMER STREET

NEAR AVENUE DOOR

Basement Bargain Dept.

50,000 Yards of Best Prints

We have now on sale 50,000 yards of best quality Print Remnants, Hamilton and American Print, in light, medium and dark, all new patterns and guaranteed all fast colors; quality usually sold at 7c yard.

See Our Large Display, Palmer Street Window

Only 5c Yard

FOUR CASES CAMPING BLANKETS

Just received from the mill four cases of Camping Blankets, in fancy colors, stripes and checks, in very handsome coloring, all 11-14 size and good heavy quality, we offer the

$1.00 Quality At 89c Pair
$1.50 Quality At $1.19 Pair
$2.00 Quality At $1.39 Pair

Now On Sale

About 50 Automobile Robe Samples

At a Liberal Discount From Regular Prices

About 50 Automobile Robe Samples bought from the manufacturer at a liberal discount from regular price. Plush on both sides and plush with rubber interlining, covert, heavy wool plaid, light, medium and heavy weight. Robes worth from $3.00 to $15.00. We offer the lot at about 25 per cent. less than regular prices.

On Sale at Blanket Counter—Basement

40 Inch Cotton

One bale of 40-inch Brown Cotton, good fine quality and easily bleached for pillow cases and sheets; 11c value on the piece.

At 7c Yard

Special for Tonight in Our Underprice Men's Furnishings

Men's 50c Summer Underwear, fine balbriggan shirts and drawers in all sizes; garments made of the best quality of trimming, ribbon facing, pearl buttons, drawers made with fine jean waist band and double gussets; regular 50c value.

For Tonight Only 25c Each

CARDINAL GIBBONS

World is Approaching Reproduction of Age of Extravagance

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—That we are closely approaching a reproduction of the age of extravagance and inordinate pleasures in which the Romans lived just before their city was destroyed is the belief of Cardinal Gibbons. He made that plain in an interview yesterday.

Cardinal Gibbons is spending a few weeks with Rev. Fr. James F. O'Hara of Southampton, L. I.

"Yes," said the cardinal, "I think we are very closely approaching the age of extravagance and inordinate pleasures enjoyed by Rome just before her fall. The cry today is for more and more riches. The rich man is greedy for more. He seems to never have enough to satisfy his desire. It is the same with the well-to-do. The cry is the same everywhere."

"Then there is the desire for inordinate pleasures. We have many more channels of pleasures than there were in the days of Julius Caesar, yet there is the desire for new pleasures and for greater enjoyments."

When the cardinal was asked what he thought would be the result of this condition of extravagance, he replied:

"I believe the gospel of Christ will save the situation. There was not Christ, you remember, to save Rome. I hope the people will see their folly and realize the true situation. The spirit of self-danial, unselfishness and love of the principles of Christ's teachings will be practiced by the people then more largely and will save us where Rome could not be saved. This great desire for riches is making people very selfish," he went on with deep earnestness. "I do not speak of individuals, for we have many generous ones among the rich, but I wish that more of them would be a little less selfish and a little more considerate of the unfortunate."

The cardinal spoke of the great extravagances of women and added, significantly, that the women of Rome were very extravagant, too.

"But I do not care to enter into any discussion of that subject just at this time," he added.

As to the comparative degree of happiness enjoyed by the rich and by the poor, Cardinal Gibbons mentioned the European peasants, who live on simple food with much contentment, and who have good appetites and good digestions which, he added, cannot be said of all the rich men of this country.

"Do you mean Mr. Rockefeller?" was asked.

"O, there are several," replied the cardinal. Smiling, he went on: "I think this little story illustrates this difference pretty well."

"A certain nobleman was taking an early morning walk through the forest. He suffered greatly with indigestion. He met a peasant carrying a gun. The poor man had come out early to hunt, as the forest contained much fine game."

"The peasant was surprised to meet anyone at so early an hour, and, not recognizing his lordship, inquired: 'What are you in search of at this hour?'"

"I came out here, my man, in search of an appetite," replied the nobleman. "And you?"

"I came out here in search of something to satisfy my appetite," replied the peasant.

"After all," said the cardinal, rising, "nothing pays so good returns as good health."

TWO CABINET OFFICERS WATCH ALASKA ELECTIONS AND PROBE FEDERAL OFFICES

ATTORNEY GENERAL WICKERSHAM

SECRETARY NAGLE

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 8.—Great interest attaches to the elections that are to be held here soon for several local offices and the seat of delegate to congress. Secretary of Commerce and Labor Charles Nagle and Attorney General Wickersham are both in Alaska and will remain until after the ballots are counted. At the famous Treadwell mines, where thousands of miners are employed, charges of frauds were made and several scores of special deputy United States marshals sworn in to prevent illegal voting. Besides watching the election, the two cabinet officers are visiting various government stations and inspecting affairs of the federal offices. This is the first time in years that two cabinet officers have visited Alaska at the same time.

ASKS A PARDON

As Reward for Making Mathematical Discoveries

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 8.—Asserting that he has made mathematical discoveries which will have a sweeping influence on that science, Michael Angelo McGinnis, serving a ten year sentence for forgery in the Missouri penitentiary, has offered to demonstrate his discovery to any committee of mathematicians Gov. Herbert Hadley may designate if a pardon will be considered his just reward for success. It was learned today. His communication was sent to the governor through Dr. Simpson of Clarkson, Mo. Dr. Simpson says the discovery made by McGinnis is the reduction of the general equation of the tenth degree to an equation one degree lower. Among the discoveries claimed by McGinnis are:

First: That for the general solution of an equation containing literal coefficients there also lies a general logarithmic solution for its corresponding numerical equation, thus establishing a general method for solving numerical equations by logarithms.

Second: That he has found the exact ratio of the diameter of a circle to its circumference.

Since the time of Euclid, centuries ago, the ratio has been supposed to be

22/7 plus. McGinnis says he knows just what the "plus" is. He says he has discovered the exact root of all numbers and that "imperfect squares" will be no more.

McGinnis is a descendant of John

Napier, inventor of logarithms.

"I have known McGinnis for years," said Prof. Greenwood, superintendent of Kansas City schools. "He taught mathematics at a college at Wichita,

Kan., also in southern Missouri. A brother of his on algebra, written, I am told, during a former term in prison, is a marvelous work. But for his use of intoxicating liquor this man would be an international authority.

"Mathematicians so far never have been able to solve literal equations above the fourth degree. McGinnis says he can work them in the tenth. European mathematicians say that they have proved it impossible to work them above the fourth."

BIG INCREASE IN EXPORTS

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The July statement of the board of trade shows a decrease of $660,000 in imports and an increase of $14,500,500 in exports. The principal changes in imports were decreased $10,000,000 in food stuffs and an increase of $5,000,000 in rubber. In the exports manufactured goods showed the largest gains.

RIFLES WERE SEIZED

While on Way to San Sebastian by Authorities

BILBOA, Spain, Aug. 8.—Six thousand rifles were seized today by the authorities on board a tug which had chartered to go to San Sebastian where the anti-government demonstration was proposed to be held yesterday before the clerical leaders abandoned the manifestation. Local authorities at San Sebastian had held that the Carlists were planning to take advantage of the Catholic manifestation to start a movement against the government. No statement, however, is made as to a party to the conflict who chartered the tug and loaded it with arms.

CITY IS QUIET

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Aug. 8.—The city is quiet today, no further attempts at demonstration having been made. The troops, however, will remain in the summer capital for some time yet. The authorities express the greatest confidence that the fiasco of the anti-government manifestation marks the end of Carlistism and of any attempt at an insurrection in favor of the pretender, but they are plainly nervous as they fully realize the devotion of the peasant population of the Basque provinces. Sixteen priests and monks were among the persons arrested Saturday on charges of attempting to provoke disorder.

LOYAL TO VATICAN

ROME, Aug. 8.—The pope and Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state today received from Spain many telegrams expressing loyalty to the vatican in the conflict with Spain.

NO OFFICIAL NOTICE

MADRID, Aug. 8.—An official of the government stated today that the government has no confirmation of the report current in European capitals, that the pope has addressed a personal letter to King Alfonso asking the king to use his influence for a settlement of the conflict between the government and the vatican. He further denied that Spain had presented a protest to Austria against the conduct of Don Jaime, the Carlist pretender, who was an officer in the Austrian service.

BRITISH STEAMER BEACHED

London, Aug. 8.—Advices from Wick, Scotland, received today, report that the British steamer Indian struck a submerged rock during a fog, a hole being stove in her port side. She is beached at Sinclair bay. The Indian sailed from Shields August 5, for New Orleans.

THE FISHERIES CASE

THE HAGUE, Aug. 8.—Henry C. Brown, former associate justice of the United States supreme court, was a listener today in the New Foundland fisheries case before the arbitration tribunal. United States Senator Root, continuing his summing up argument for the American case, argued that neither in 1783 nor 1818 did regulations exist regarding the time and methods according to which the fisheries should be conducted off Labrador and New Foundland and that during the negotiations for the treaty of 1818 the negotiators were actuated by the understanding that England could not frame regulations for the fisheries except in cooperation with the United States.

KING ALFONSO

Again on Board the Shamrock

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 8.—King Alfonso again tempted fate by sailing aboard Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, disregarding the accident of Saturday when the Shamrock, with the king aboard, lost the topmast in the stiff breeze. The Shamrock, having repaired the damage, is again meeting its old rival of former seasons, the White Heather, in the race for the Commodore's cup. A. S. Cochran, American schooner Westward, which did not start in the races last week, sailed under the handicap system, entered today in the race for the international gold cup which is sailed under the class measurement rule. The Meteor and Germania allow the Westward 6 minutes and 48 seconds in the 48 mile course. These three yachts, together with the Cyclo and Sussana, started in the race, the Cyclo getting across the line first with the American boat a close second.

The Meteor made a bad start, being timed across the line six minutes behind the other boats.

STEAMSHIP IN DISTRESS
SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 8.—The French steamship Salazie is reported in distress, 32 miles off Jervis bay, a port 55 miles from Sydney. A steamer was today dispatched to her assistance. The Salazie sails between Marseilles and Australian ports.

is the best cream made for the skin. If you have a red, rough, blotched, sore, unsightly skin, try this great product of the American Drugists Syndicate.

You can use it for massaging wrinkles and for a sallow complexion, as it whitens and beautifies, is safe, harmless and does not grow hair.

No woman who values her appearance and who wants a smooth clear skin should let a day go by without trying it for the face, neck, arms and hands.

Get it for 25c. at any A. D. S. drug store.

Frank J. Campbell, 255 Central St.; Falls & Burkshaw, 418 N. Idolox St.; Houle's Pharmacy, 462 Meady St.; R. J. Lang & Co., 374 Merrimack St.; Wm. H. Noonan & Co., 308 Bridge St.; John H. O'Neill, Lawrence St. car; Wamanti Routhier & Delia, 632 Merrimack St.; Charles W. Tromblay, 415 Bridge St.; Fred Howard, 197 Central St.; John T. Sparks & Co., 747 Lakeview Ave.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR WEEK

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—This is the real beginning of Knights Templar week in Chicago. A hundred thousand Knights were expected to arrive today, arrayed in full uniform for the 31st triennial conclave which was opened officially Sunday with divine services in Orchestra hall. Today's arrivals included English foremost sir knight, the Earl of Euston, grand commander of the great priory of England and Wales, and his party, who later will give a reception to the officers of the order. The day will be given over to receptions to the incoming knights and at 4 p. m. the annual dinner of the grand recorders and correspondent will be given at the Chicago Athletic club. Tomorrow will be the first of the "big" days beginning with the biggest parade ever engaged in by Knights Templars. It will require three hours to pass a given point.

Wednesday the competitive drills begin and Thursday and Friday will be devoted to drilling, boating, a regatta and an unorganized tour of inspection of Chicago. Headquarters officials today estimated the guests to number 500,000.

JOHNSON TO MEET KAUFMAN

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Australia, where Jack Johnson won the championship, will probably be the scene of his next encounter with anyone who seeks heavyweight honors. The champion announced yesterday that in all probability he would head for the Antipodes next summer following his theatrical engagements in Europe. Jack said that he had a number of flattering offers from Hugh McIntosh, the promoter. McIntosh is on his way to the British metropolis where he will unfold his plans for a fight in England or Australia. The title holder said that if Langford or Kaufman wanted a match all he need do was to put up the money.

TO PASS ON ENGRAVERS CASE

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—To assemble all the facts in the controversy between half a dozen engraving companies and photo engravers union, number 3, the superior court today appointed Elbridge R. Anderson, master, to take evidence. Mr. Anderson will receive $50 a day for his services and will probably report to the court in about a month.

When a strike was declared last month for the purpose of enforcing recognition of the union, Folsom & Sundergren obtained an injunction from Judge Richardson who in his opinion said:

"The strike was ordered and made because the plaintiffs refused to sign articles of agreement and men left the employ because of fear of their standing in the union. The initiative of a strike ought to depend upon free action of employees. A strike ordered to unionize a shop goes much too far."

WILL FIGHT FOREST FIRES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—President Taft has authorized the use of troops to fight forest fires in Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

Hour Sales All Day Tuesday

We have planned a series of sales for Tuesday. Every item advertised is extraordinary. Look the list over and see if you could earn money easier.

9 to 10 A. M.	10 to 11 A. M.
Your choice of all our Panama Skirts selling at $6 and $7..... 3.90	All our Dresses selling at $5 and $6, at... 2.90, 3.90
Large and small waist bands.
11 A. M. to 2 P. M.	2 to 3 P. M.
$7.00 Slip-on Raincoats, gray and tan shades, all sizes..... 3.95	Long, Loose Silk Coats, $12 to $20 styles, at..... 7.90
Here are bargains that you can not afford to miss.
3 to 4 P. M.	4 to 5 P. M.
Your choice of 100 Suits selling at $15 to $25, tan, reseda, gray and Copenhagen 8.90	50 Coats in Serges, Sicilian and Rajah; coats that sell at $12 to $20. Choice..... 5.95
5 to 6 P. M.	All Day We Will Sell Waists
$3.50 Bathing Suits in all sizes to 44, 3 dozen only in the lot, at..... 1.98	That were $1.50 and $2.00, at..... 95c
And $4.00 Silk Petticoats..... 2.90

New York Cloak and Suit Co.

12-18 JOHN STREET.

CENSUS FIGURES

Will be Made Known About the Middle of October

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—By the middle of October, but scarcely before the people of the United States will know their own number, as revealed by the 18th census. The figures will not be given out until the count is entirely completed and minutely verified, and by that time every man who "keeps tall" will know the total for himself, for the details for all such subdivisions as states, cities and counties will have become known previously through the census office's announcements.

Some people think that Director Durand practically knows now the exact number of population, but he declares "really and truly" that he does not. If so disposed, however, he could ascertain approximately the number of people somewhat in advance of his announcement to the public. This could be done by means of the preliminary count on schedules which is made necessary for the payment of the enumerators for their services. The enumerating districts for each supervisor's area are numbered, and it is intended that each of them should contain one hundred names. As soon as these are received they are turned over to counters and a virtually active statement is thus made possible. Up to date the names in more than 55,000 of the 70,000 districts have been counted.

The process is moving forward rapidly, and when it is completed the population of the United States could be easily, by footing up the totals, arrived at. Mr. Durand, however, is not having the figures totaled, and he says that it is his purpose not to do so. He is not curious as to the outcome of his work. Nor will he make a prediction as to what the result will show. It is known, however, that the census officials generally fall in with the popular idea that there are about 90,000,000 people in the United States. Between the census of 1880 and that of 1900, there was an increase of about thirteen millions, and only a slightly larger increase was expected by the census officials. This result is arrived at by a purely arithmetical calculation, and not by any compilation of the figures recently taken.

About three hundred million fingered young men and women are engaged night and day in determining the figures which, when the final computation is made, will show the total population. All told, there are some eighteen hundred clerks employed in the census office in the compilation of all the facts gathered by the field agents in connection with the return census, but, while the greatest activity is directed toward the ascertainment of the population, there is still much doing in other directions. Indeed, a large number of those at work in the population division are engaged in classifying the facts relative to the sex, age, race, and other conditions in connection with the people numbered. Also, there are many employed in the manufacturing, agricultural and mining branches.

The first announcements, however, will cover only enumeration figures, and these will continue for the next two months and a half. The sociological and industrial figures will come later, and will be announced as a rule in special bulletins prepared by the bureau itself.

Up-to-date, population figures have been given on two states only, Rhode Island and Oklahoma, but many announcements have been made for cities, towns and counties in various parts of the country. All the returns so far given to the public have been prepared to meet the special demands of the localities affected. In Rhode Island, for instance, there is to be a reapportionment for legislative purposes, and in Oklahoma the franchise is involved. Texas has state laws affecting county administration, and has made a special demand upon the bureau. There also have been some elections of a legal nature from various cities in Illinois, as from some other states. From this time forward, however, these requests will receive comparatively little attention, and as a consequence, the regular work of the bureau will proceed more rapidly.

The director's intention is first to tabulate the population of the large cities, and after the announcements for those centers of population shall have been made, the figures for the states will be given out as they are ascertained. The returns for all the counties of each state will be announced at the same time that the state figures are made public.

Many of the announcements are liable to be delayed beyond the time when they may be expected by the public. This delay, if it occurs, will be due to the necessity for careful scrutiny of all the schedules. All of the enumeration sheets are counted from three to four times, and if there is any error, or even if there is any circumstance indicating a possibility of an error, an investigation is ordered, and if necessary a correction is made. In two cities, evidence of fraud has been discovered, and in one, Great Falls, Montana, a prosecution has been undertaken for fraudulent enumeration. In Massachusetts, all of the figures have been withheld to accommodate the state in some of its own statistical work.

Contrary to the general opinion, all the counting of the people is done by hand. The tabulating machines, of which several hundred are employed in the office, are used only in classifications as to race, sex, and other conditions.

The census office is a busy place. The present force of clerks will be increased eventually to about 2000. There are two shifts of them, one working from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4:30, the other taking up the work at the latter hour and going forward until 11 o'clock at night.

Counting enumerators, special agents and supervisors, no fewer than 80,000 people will have been employed in the work of the thirteenth census by the time it is completed. So far about six million dollars have been expended upon it, and it is probable that the total cost will be about fifteen million dollars. Of this sum twelve million dollars has been appropriated by congress.

NEW COMPANIES
Have Been Formed in This State
BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The following new corporations filed the required articles of incorporation last week with the secretary of state:
Doll's hospital, incorporated, of Boston, capital stock $10,000, "to carry on the business of manufacturing, buying and selling at wholesale or retail and of repairing all varieties of dolls, dolls' clothing and accessories, etc.," the incorporators being Almee V. M. Hockaday of Medford Hillside, Herman La-kue Brown and Elias Field of Boston; the Manhattan Grocery & Provision company of Boston, with a capital stock of $500,000, the incorporators being Henry T. Richardson of Brookline, Joseph H. Soliday of Dedham, Harry P. E. Partridge of Dedham, Geo. P. Holbrook of Milis and Bertha W. Glover of Brookline.
Investor's Laboratory company of Boston, capital stock, $50,000; One-simus Medical company of Boston, capital stock $125,000; Massachusetts Junk Collectors' corporation of Boston, capital stock $5000; Lezier Sales company of Boston, capital stock $50,000; Hatfield Union Storage company, capital stock $5000; Marshall Supply company of Lynn, capital stock $25,000; Mawh-nning Art company of Pittsfield, capital stock $5000; Stearns & Waterman Co. of Boston, capital stock $50,000; Andrew M. Cusack Co. of Boston, capital stock $25,000; Atlantic Machine Screw company of Boston, capital stock $15,000; Interchangeable Rubber Heel Co. of Boston, $50,000; Essex County Medical Institute Co. of Lynn, capital stock $10,000; Guilford, Ken-drick & Ladd of Boston, capital stock $50,000; Moving Picture company of Massachusetts, Boston and New York, capital stock $10,000; New York Lumber Co. of Boston, capital stock $50,000; T. H. Carey Co. of Foxboro, capital stock $10,000; Germania Rubber Co. of America, Boston, capital stock $15,000.

FELL FROM WINDOW
CHILD BADLY INJURED WHILE AT PLAY
BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The childish play on two year old Theodore Paquette and his older sister, Florence, in a bedroom of their home, 24 Border street, East Boston, early last evening, ended fatally for the little boy, who is in a dying condition at the East Boston re-hospital.

In the excitement of play the little boy, to avoid being tagged, is said to have jumped onto a chair which was near an open window, and losing his balance fell into the yard below, a distance of about 15 feet.
The father and mother rushed out and picked the boy up and hurried to the hospital with him, where upon examination it was found he had sustained internal injuries.

A. O. H. NEWS
The report of the treasurer of Division 1, A. O. H., Brockton, read at a meeting last week, shows that during the past six months one thousand four hundred and twenty-five dollars was paid in dues benefits. A communication was received from State President John J. Rogers, urging the members to attend the Lowell convention and state parade. Carroll B. Deady and James Lucey are the official delegates from the division.

The Juvenile Cadets of the A. O. H. of Boston have voted to participate in the state parade in this city. Captain

Owen McGivern is in charge of Company A, and Captain Peter Dineen is at the head of Company B.

More than seven thousand tickets have already been sold or secured for the field day to be held at the Locust street grounds, South Boston, on Labor day, under the auspices of the Suffolk County A. O. H. At the regular meeting of the committee next Friday evening in Hibernian hall, B street, South Boston, the sub-committee on sports will report that the best hurdling teams and football clubs in this vicinity will compete that day.

A series of conferences with Chief Marshal O'Sullivan of this city on the final arrangements for the state parade on Aug. 24 is being held. The arrangements for the parade have been made on an elaborate scale. It is the purpose of the chief marshal to make it the greatest procession of the organization in Massachusetts.

Prizes are being offered to the officers of divisions and uniformed military companies of the state, for the largest in number and best in appearance of the visiting contingents in the parade.

The chief marshal has issued a circular to the presidents of divisions informing them that the line will be made up by counties.

All Hibernian military companies will appear in the military division, with Adj. Gen. John McCarthy of Fall River as commander. Special places will be reserved for the members of the Ladies' auxiliary, who will ride in floats.

The state convention, to be held the day following the parade, will be opened with solemn high mass in one of the city churches. The celebrant will be the Rev. Philip J. O'Donnell of Boston, state chaplain of the order.

Aside from the election of state officers, the principal feature of the convention will be the address of State President Rogers, who will report on the deliberations and decisions of the Portland National convention.

MUNICIPAL BAND CONCERT

The City band gave an excellent concert on the South common last night, and several thousand people were present to enjoy the music. The program was a varied one and carried out in a manner which elicited much applause.

The GILBRIDE Co.

OUR AUGUST SALE OF Brass Beds, Enamel Beds, Bedding

BEGINS TODAY A Special Invitation Is Extended to Hotel Keepers, Proprietors of Lodging Houses and Other Institutions.

THIS IS THE YOUNGEST DEPARTMENT IN THE STORE AND IT HAS PROVEN ONE OF THE MOST SUCCESSFUL. AT THE VERY START WE LAID DOWN A POLICY—"THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE COMPATIBLE WITH THE VERY BEST QUALITY"—AND WE HAVE NEVER DEVIATED FROM THAT PRECEPT. BY ADVANTAGEOUS FOREHAND BUYING WE ARE ABLE TO START THIS SALE WITH VALUES THAT WILL LEAVE A LASTING IMPRESSION.

The Choicest Selections Ever Known In a Special Sale Are Here

ALL THE BRASS BEDSTEADS ARE CAREFULLY MADE AND FINISHED WITH THE NEW PROCESS OF LACQUERING BRASS ON A HOT SURFACE, WHICH IS PRODUCED BY AN ELECTRIFIED HEAT PASSING THROUGH THE TUBES OF THE BEDSTEAD AFTER THE PARTS HAVE BEEN ASSEMBLED AND THE BEDSTEAD SET UP. ALL THE BEDDING OFFERED IN THIS SALE IS MADE UNDER THE STRICTEST SANITARY CONDITIONS AND WE GUARANTEE THE MATERIAL TO BE JUST AS REPRESENTED.

The finest collection of Metal Beds ever brought to this section and at the lowest prices in this August Sale we ever heard of. This is the opportunity of a lifetime to buy a first class bed at the price of a cheap one.

WHITE IRON BEDS

- $3.50 All Iron Bedstead, straight foot.....$1.98
 - $5.00 Brass Trimmed Iron Bedstead.....$2.98
 - $6.50 Continuous Pillar, Extended Foot, Bed.....$3.98
 - $7.50 Brass Rail and Brass Nap Iron Bed.....$4.98
 - $9.00 One Inch Brass Rod Continuous Post.....$5.98
 - $12.00 Bessemer Steel Bed, with heavy brass spindle.....$8.98
 - $16.00 Bessemer Steel Bed, with 3-4 inch brass huck rods.....$11.98
- And about 20 other different designs and prices.

IRON COUCH BEDS

- $7.00 Drop Side Couch Beds complete with mattress, August Sale.....$4.98
- $9.50 Sliding Couch Beds complete with mattress and pillows; can be separated and make two couches or two single beds. August Sale price.....$5.98

BRASS BEDS

- $22.50 full 2-inch post Brass Bed, with seven fillers and double head rods.....14.98
- $35.00 2-inch post with 2-inch top rod and seven 1-inch fillers, heavy 2 1-2 inch T balls on corners.....22.50
- $40.00 2-inch continuous post and heavy hucks, and seven 1-inch fillers.....28.00
- $65.00 continuous 2-inch post Brass Bed with 13 1-inch fillers and heavy T balls on each spindle, extra heavy hucks.....38.00

BED SPRING SPECIAL

All iron, guaranteed standard quality National Spring.....$2.49

THE ANNUAL AUGUST SALE OF BLANKETS

A yearly bargain occasion upon which we spend months in an endeavor to excel in quality and value-giving worth. A sale wherein the saving is not problematical but so unusual that you can note the price advantage at a single glance.

- 69c pair, 10-4 Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border, only 2 to a customer.....19c each
- 98c pair, 11-11 Full Size Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border.....79c pair
- $1.25, 11-4 Extra Heavy Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border.....98c pair
- $2.25, 11-4 Soft Finish Blankets, in gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.49 pair
- $2.50, 11-4 Wool Finish Blankets in tan, gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.69 pair
- $3.00, 11-4 Wool Finish Blankets, in tan, gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.98 pair
- $3.50, 12-4 Extra Heavy and extra large Blankets, in white and gray, in pink and blue border. Special.....$2.49 pair
- $4.50, 11-4 Extra Heavy Beacon Blankets, silk bound,.....$3.49 pair
- $7.00, 11-4 Wool Blankets, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$5.00 pair
- $8.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$6.00 pair
- $10.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$8.00 pair
- $11.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$9.00 pair
- $12.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$10.00 pair
- $15.00, 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$12.00 pair
- $1.25 each Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton, 98c each.....$1.25 each
- $1.59 each, Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton,.....$1.98 each
- $2.49 each, Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton,.....$3.00 each
- $3.00 Salteen Comforters, extra heavy.....$2.49 each
- $5.00 Best Quality Sateen Comforters.....$3.98 each
- $6.50 Down Puffs, full size.....$5.00 each
- $7.50 Down Puffs, full size.....$6.00 each

August Sale of Household Linens, Bed Spreads, Towels, Sheets and Pillow Cases

Prices reach their lowest level during this August sale. It's the one special sale to which our patrons annually turn for the coming season's supply. These prices will astonish you. They surprise even us.

Sheets, Pillow Cases and Spreads

- 89c, 81x90 Full Size Extra Heavy Sheets at.....69c each
- 98c, 81x99 Full Size Extra Heavy unbleached Sheets at.....75c each
- 19c Hemstitched Pillow Cases, at.....15c each
- 15c, 45x36 good quality Pillow Cases at.....12 1-2c each
- $2.00 Crochet Bed Spreads, extra weight, at.....$1.49
- $2.08 Marseilles Spread. Special price.....$1.98

TOWELS

- 17c Turkish Towels, good size at.....12 1-2c each
- 19c Turkish Towels, extra size, at.....15c each
- 25c German Huck Towels at.....19c each
- 12 1-2c Round Thread Crash Toweling, all linen, 9 1-2c yard
- 15c Pure Linen Crash with white, red or blue border, at.....12 1-2c yard
- 50c, 18x45 and 54 in. Scarfs and Squares to match, 39c each

All of our Fancy Linens, such as scarfs, squares, dollies and centre pieces, slightly soiled, will be sold at less than 1-3 of regular price.

TABLE DAMASK

- 50c, 60 in. good quality Table Linen at.....39c yard
 - 72 in., 98c extra heavy pure linen at.....79c yard
- With Napkins to match at $1.95 doz.

THE AUGUST SALE OF RUGS

Is the ONE supreme opportunity of the year where the savings are so strikingly magnetic that you owe it to yourself to anticipate your wants. Rugs of all sizes and patterns, contracted for months ago, are here, from one mill only; several mills of world-wide reputation are represented in this sale—Schofield, Mason & Co., of Philadelphia; S. Sanford & Son, Amsterdam, N. Y.; Bigelow-Lowell Carpet Co.; Alexander Smith & Sons, Yonkers, N. Y.; Firth Carpet Co., Furtheliffe, N. Y.; and other mills.

In order that other dealers cannot get any quantity of these rugs we will not sell over two Room Size Rugs to any one customer. These sale prices are lower than wholesalers can get them from the mills.

BRUSSELS TAPESTRY RUGS

- Made by Sanford & Sons, Amsterdam
- $7.75 6 ft. x 9 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$4.98
- $9.75 7 ft. 6 in. x 9 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$6.98
- Beautiful Patterns for Dining Room or Living Room
- $15.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$10.98
- As Is—NOT Mismatched—Rugs
- Genuine Full Five Frame Body Brussels Rugs
- Manufactured by Schofield, Mason & Co., Phila., Pa.
- 9 ft. x 12 ft., worth $62.50. August sale price.....$25
- Absolutely perfect in every way.

BIGELOW, LOWELL, AXMINSTER RUGS

- $25.00 8 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. August Sale.....$16.95
- $30.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. August Sale.....$18.50
- $3.50 36x60 Axminster Rugs.....$2.19
- $5.00 36x72 Axminster Rugs.....$3.50
- Slightly imperfect.
- MATTRESS SPECIAL
- Combination Mattress, heavy grade ticking, nicely made with cotton tufts. A regular $6.00 value. August sale price.....$3.98
- OTHERS UP TO $20.00

Sensational Sale of HODGES' FIBER CARPET CO. RUGS

- Remember the copyrighted name Fiber on the genuine. Not "Fibre," which is an imitation.
- $10.00 6 ft. x 9 ft. Rugs. August Sale.....$3.95
- $12.00 7 ft. 6 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. Rugs. August Sale.....$5.95
- $14.00 8 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. Rugs. August Sale.....$6.95
- $15.00 and $18.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. Rugs. August Sale.....$8.95
- There are four different qualities of fiber and a lot of wool and fiber, all grades, are in this sale at the same price; so attend early if you want the plans. Lot of small rugs at 38c, 49c, 79c, 98c, etc., worth double.

Nervous? Sleepless?

Knocked out by hot weather? Sanford's Ginger will put you on the track again. It overcomes exhaustion, allays nervousness, centers the blood at the stomach and promotes refreshing sleep.

Sanford's

Ginger quickly checks disturbances of the stomach and bowels due to excessive heat, unexpected change of temperature, and unripe fruit, bad water or unwholesome food. Delicious, refreshing, strengthening and always healthful.

Look for the Owl Trade Mark on the wrapper. Just you get a cheap, worthless substitute. Beware of the standard of purity, flavor and strength. A delicious combination of ginger, peppermint and French brandy. Sold by druggists and grocers everywhere.

GREATEST NEWSPAPER | Falls & Burkinshaw's, 418 Middlesex St.

Admission 2

Admission 2

Per order HENRY VALLERAN D, MARIE LOUISE VALLERAN D

LOWELL 2 - FALL RIVER 1

EXTRA

THE CORN CROP

Report Showed a Falling Off From Last Year

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The average condition of the corn crop on Aug. 1, as estimated by the crop reporting board of the department of agriculture and made public with the general monthly crop report at 2.30 p. m. today was 79.8 as compared with 85.4 last month, 84.4 a year ago and 82.1 the average on Aug. 1 for the last ten years.

Preliminary returns indicate a winter wheat yield of about 15.8 bushels per acre, or a total of about 465,294,000 bushels as compared with 15.8 and 440,366,000 bushels respectively, as finally estimated last year. The average quality of the crop is 92.6 against 90.3 last year.

The average condition of spring

THREE PRESENTS WAS KEPT BUSY

Asst. Foreman Remem- bered by Employees

The men employed on the work of constructing the large warehouse in Jackson street expressed their good feeling for their assistant foreman, Will Smith, Saturday afternoon, when just before starting work they gathered together and informed the genial assistant foreman that they had a message to deliver to him. Then Martin McFee in a speech expressing the thanks of the workmen for the very friendly feeling shown toward them by Mr. Smith asked him to accept as a gift from the men an elegant signet ring, a set of gold collar buttons and 100 feet of steel tape. Mr. Smith was taken entirely by surprise but assured the workmen that it required no such tokens as they are to assure him of their friendship for him. He told them that they had proved that by the way they have done their work, and the spirit they have manifested through the work so far as it has progressed.

FINED FOR ASSAULT
Walter Ward was arraigned in police court today on complaints charging him with drunkenness and assault and battery. On the latter complaint he was fined $15 and $5 for drunkenness.

Engine Over- Loaded?

If so, avoid the heavy expense of a new engine.

Provide for present overload. Prepare for future growth.

Install electric motors
as the load increases.

Lowell Electric Light
50 Central Street

Inspector Maher Made Two Arrests

Charles McCaffrey was arrested by Inspector Martin Maher this afternoon on a complaint alleging larceny. On July 24 a young man, Adolph J. Grumler by name, went to Silver Lake and while there he decided to go in swimming. In the pocket of his vest which he left on shore was a silver watch and when he doaned his clothes after his swim he found the watch missing.

There were several in the vicinity of where he left his clothes and some of them he knew. He gave the police a few names and Charles McCaffrey was one of them. McCaffrey is charged with receiving stolen property as well as larceny. He admits that he had the watch but declares that a fellow gave it to him. He will be arraigned in police court tomorrow morning.

Inspector Maher made another arrest this afternoon and the victim was Dennis Pendergast, who is wanted for non-support of his wife. Pendergast was arrested in Bridge street and McCaffrey in John street.

DIED IN WORCESTER
The remains of James Dunn, who died in Worcester, will be removed to the chapel of J. E. O'Donnell & Sons, instead of to his home in West Chelmsford as previously announced.

PERSONALS

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Dugdale have just returned from New York, where the doctor has been in attendance at several of the New York hospitals taking special courses on cancer, chronic, nervous, and renal diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Givette and son Alvin, of Billings street, have returned from a pleasant auto trip to Leonardsville and Pittsburg.

Miss Madeline Flanders left Lowell today for a two weeks' stay at Hampton beach, where she will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Young.

Women's Accounts

Women should have bank accounts—they stimulate thrift and independence.

Every care, courtesy and consideration is given women who transact their banking business with us.

We extend you an invitation to call and open an account.

THE OLD LOWELL
NATIONAL BANK
25 Central Street.
Incorporated 1828
Oldest Bank in Lowell.

13 Inning Game at Spalding Park Today

Park Today

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
LOWELL	-	-	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	---
FALL RIVER	-	-	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	---

The double-header between Lowell and Fall River attracted about 800 people to Spalding park this afternoon. Manager O'Brien of the visiting aggregation presented a somewhat crippled lineup. Butler is out of the game as a result of an injury, and "Tommy" Devine covered third base, while McIntyre, a pitcher, covered the initial base.

The double umpire system was used. Connolly and "Tommy" Duffy being the decision makers. Duffy is a Lowell boy and he was assigned to watch the bases while Connolly looked after the balls and strikes.

Among the visitors in attendance were Manager Lake of the Boston Nationals. It is said that he came to Lowell for the purpose of looking Tyler over. William McCluskey, catcher of the Christabell (Panama) team, was also present. McCluskey played in Panama with Fluharty and Magee.

The first game was called at two o'clock, the batting order of the teams being as follows:

Lowell	Fall River
Blakely cf	rt Bertwistle
Blakely 2b	ss Weaver
Conney 3b	3b Devine
Magee if	2b Bowcock
McIntyre 1b	1b McIntyre
Fluharty rf	lf Welsenstein
Sullivan c	c Haight
Butler p	p Wormwood

First Inning
Fall River scored in the first inning. Bertwistle, the first man up, flied to Fluharty. Weaver hit to Tyler and failed to reach first. Devine drew a two-bagger. He stole third. Bowcock flied to right field and the sun getting in Fluharty's eyes, the latter dropped the ball and Devine scored. Bowcock tried to make second on the fumble and was thrown out.

In the latter half of the inning, Blakely flied to Devine and Fitzpatrick hit to Wormwood and was out at first. Conney got a three-bagger, but he and Bowcock flied to Magee. Tyler scored and was retired at first.

Score—Lowell 0, Fall River 1.

Second Inning
Perrott hit to Tyler and was out at first. McIntyre struck out and Welsenstein flied to Blakely.

Lowell got one run in the latter half of the inning. Tenney studied to right field and went to second on Fluharty's sacrifice. Sullivan flied to Welsenstein. Bowles drew a base on balls and on the fourth ball Tenney started for third. Haight threwed ball to third to get Tenney and the latter scored. Tyler closed the inning by striking out.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Third Inning
In the third inning Haight singled and Wormwood struck out. Bertwistle and Weaver drew free passes, filling the bases, but Devine flied to Bowcock and Bowcock flied to Magee.

In Lowell's half Blakely flied to Welsenstein, Fitz hit to Wormwood and was out at first, while Conney was third out on a fly to McIntyre.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Fourth Inning
Perrott hit to Bowles and flied at first. McIntyre hit to Conney and failed to reach first and Welsenstein struck out.

Magee singled to left field and went to second on Tenney's sacrifice. Fluharty hit to Wormwood and was out at first and Sullivan hit to Devine and was retired at first.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Fifth Inning

Haight was the first man up in the fifth and he was retired on strikes. Wormwood hit to Conney and was out at first. Bertwistle followed with a single to centre field, but he never reached second for Weaver hit to Conney and failed to reach first.

In the latter half of the inning Bowles drew a base on balls and went to second on Tyler's sacrifice. He tried to steal third and was out a mile. Blakely was third out on a fly to Bowcock.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Sixth Inning
Devine flied to Fluharty and Bowcock was retired on strikes. Perrott got a single but McIntyre went out on three strikes.

In Lowell's half Fitz flied to Bertwistle. Conney flied to Haight and Magee flied to Devine.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Seventh Inning
Two more goose eggs were registered in the seventh. Inning. Welsenstein and Haight went out on strikes and Wormwood flied to Fitz.

Tenney singled and went to second on Fluharty's sacrifice. Sullivan hit to Devine who nailed Tenney at third. Sullivan stole second and went to third on a wild pitch. Bowles hit to Wormwood and was out at first.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Eighth Inning
Bertwistle opened the eighth with a base on balls. Weaver bunted to Tyler and the latter threwed ball to second to get Bertwistle and both men were safe. Devine hit to Conney who threwed to second, getting Weaver and the ball was sent to first for a double play. Bowcock drew a free pass and stole second, but Perrott went out on strikes.

In the latter half of the inning Tyler hit the ball along the first base line to McIntyre and was retired at first. Wormwood covering the bag. Blakely and Fitz sent grounders to Wormwood and were out at first.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Ninth Inning
The visitors went out in one, two, three order in the first half of the ninth. McIntyre flied to Fluharty. Welsenstein flied to Tenney. Haight hit to Conney and was out at first.

Conney flied to Haight. Magee hit to Devine, who threwed ball allowing Magee to reach third. Tenney flied to Welsenstein and Fluharty did likewise.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Tenth Inning
Wormwood flied to Fitzpatrick and Bertwistle hit to Conney and died at first. Weaver struck out.

In the latter half of the inning Sullivan got a base on balls. Bowles flied to Bowcock. Tyler flied to Weaver who threwed to first, getting Sullivan for a double play.

Score—Lowell 1, Fall River 1.

Eleventh Inning
Devine flied to Fluharty. Bowcock singled to left field. Bowcock stole second. At this point Sullivan injured his thumb and retired from the game. Huston taking his place. Perrott was second out on a fly to Magee. McIntyre hit to Tyler and was out at first.

Blakely hit to Wormwood and was out at first. Fitz hit to Devine who

MURDER WILL OUT

William Remington Makes a Strange Confession

William Remington of Boston, an inmate of the State Infirmary at Tewksbury, a morphine fiend who is suffering the last agonizing stages of morphine poisoning, yesterday called the physicians of the hospital to his bedside and while writhing with pain and fever told them an awful tale of a murder which he claims to have committed in Boston on Sunday, July 31.

Meanwhile the remains of Max Sarokian have been exhumed by order of District Attorney Pelletier and a further investigation of his death, which occurred on July 31, discloses the fact that he was the victim of a foul play rather than suicide as was at first given as the cause of death.

That truth is stranger than fiction is borne out by Remington's story which appears to be the truth. Remington, whose mind appeared perfectly clear yesterday, informed the physicians that a week ago yesterday he entered the store of Max Sarokian, 228 Harrison avenue and placing his revolver on the counter in front of the proprietor demanded that he purchase it. Sarokian told him that he had no use for the weapon and would not buy it. Then Remington, who was in a frenzy for want of money with which to purchase morphine, grasped the revolver and fired two shots into Sarokian and then fled from the store leaving the revolver behind. Sarokian was found a short time later in a dying condition. Two bullet holes were found in Sarokian's body and with the revolver beside him and as there was no one in the vicinity as far as known at the time of the shooting, the conclusion of the police was that Sarokian had committed suicide and as such the death certificate was signed and as such he was buried.

But Sarokian had always lived happily with his family and had always been a good man. He was a simple life and his wife refused to accept the theory of suicide and appealed to District Attorney Pelletier. The latter was so impressed with her story that he ordered the remains exhumed. A second examination as will be seen below showed circumstances that tended strongly to uphold the theory of foul play. But assume that foul play had been committed there was absolutely no evidence pointing to the identity of the murderer.

Remington Visits Tewksbury
On August 2, two days after the death of Sarokian, Remington appeared at the state infirmary presenting the usual formal permit of the Boston authorities. It was his second confinement at the hospital as the result of his fatal weakness for the drug. Until yesterday he had lain quietly in his cot though in bad condition. Yesterday he could not sleep and the phantoms of his guilt and his claims troubled him so intensely that he decided to tell the truth to the authorities.

Police Get Busy
Up to this morning when the Boston police learned from Lowell sources of the strange confession of Remington they still professed to believe that he had committed suicide despite the facts revealed by the second examination of the dead body. This forenoon Inspector Dugan of the Boston police headquarters came to Tewksbury and took Remington back to Boston. Remington was not placed under arrest on any formal charge but was taken to Boston for examination relative to the truth of the story which he told yesterday.

GAMES POSTPONED
National at Brooklyn—Cincinnati, Brooklyn game postponed, wet grounds. Two games tomorrow.

National at New York: St. Louis, New York game postponed, rain.

BIG LAWN PARTY

Whatever may be your engagement for next Thursday, cancel it immediately and attend the lawn festival which will be held on that day by the parish of the Immaculate Conception in Columbus park. The committee, composed of fifty men and fifty women of the parish, assert with confidence that the event will surpass anything of the way of a lawn picnic ever conducted in the city. Arrangements for the affair have been under way for some time and the committees have executed their work so exhaustively that at this time a most successful party is assured.

The affair will be continuous and will be "up and going" from the time the gates are opened at 1 o'clock until they close at 12 o'clock. Besides the usual picnic and dine attractions the committees have made arrangements with some of the talent of the city to give free exhibitions and there will not be an idle moment during the entire party.

A unique feature will be the hunt for "Miss Sunshine" and "Mr. Rainbow." Whoever finds either of them will receive a $250 gold piece. There will be megaphone announcements at intervals of what part of the grounds Miss Sunshine or Mr. Rainbow may be found in, with such details as to their costumes as may aid in the search. Even with this information the hunt is likely to be featured with a great deal of difficulty as well as a great deal of fun.

The prettiest girl in the parish has been engaged to represent Miss Sunshine, while Mr. Rainbow will be represented by one of the parish's most attractive young men. The probability is that there will be great effort by the young women present to discover Him, while the young men will devote their energies to discovering Her. The $250 gold piece have been contributed by a well-known business man.

MAN SET FIRE

WATERBURY, Conn., Aug. 8.—The police today are looking for a man who set fire to a tenement in Sylvan avenue last night after sending a letter to Patrick J. Creavan, one of the tenants, saying "Get out of this house by Monday night or I will set fire to it again. Get out. Get out. I will come through the window at night." The police think some mentally unbalanced person has a grudge against the family.

POLAND WATER
For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.

NOTICE

Will the person who picked up the chicken pen near the Lincoln street crossing please return it to 211 West London st., or House 2, Lincoln st. and receive reward, as they are well known.

EVIDENCES OF MURDER

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—At the request of his relatives, who believe he did not commit suicide, as was reported by the police, but was murdered, the body of Max Sarokian, who was found dying from two bullet wounds a week ago yesterday in the little shop he kept at 293 Harrison avenue, has been exhumed for a further investigation. Saturday it was taken from the Emerald street synagogue cemetery in Woburn to the City Hospital, where an autopsy was performed by Associate Medical Examiner Waters. The result of this examination will be made known later.

Sarokian died while on the way to the City Hospital. One of the bullets passed directly through his heart. About six feet from the spot where he lay a .32 calibre revolver was picked up. It had six chambers containing three unused cartridges and three that had been discharged.

Myer Sarokian, youngest son of the dead man, insists that the case is one of murder, and Sarokian's neighbors say that he was not the man to die by his own hand. The young man points out that one of the bullets passed through a packing case near the door at the rear of the store, probably passing over his father's head. The revolver, he says, was thrown behind the counter in a way which would indicate that it was not placed there by his father.

He says that on the morning of the shooting his father was in a particularly happy mood, and was seen feeding the pigeons in front of his shop, not ten minutes before his death.

Charles Broderick of 244 Harrison avenue, who was passing at the time the shots were fired, told the police some facts that seem to strengthen the theory of murder. He says that he heard a single shot within the shop and that immediately after he saw a man leave by the front door and disappear in the direction of Oak street. He noticed that the man had an skull.

Remington Reaches Boston

Upon arriving in Boston, Remington, in custody of two inspectors, went up Harrison avenue to the scene of the shooting. Remington was allowed to walk ahead of the officers and when he reached the scene of the shooting stopped and told the inspectors that that was the place he had shot Sarokian. He then showed the inspectors where he went into the small store and fired the shot. After leaving the scene of the murder, Remington was taken to the city prison. There he gave a detailed description of the revolver with which he said he shot Sarokian. His description of the revolver was perfect.

William Remington was formerly a compositor in Boston. Chief Dugan said that Remington told him he attempted to sell a revolver to Sarokian for the purpose of getting something to eat. Sarokian refused to buy the weapon and, according to his story, Remington in some unexplained way pulled the trigger three times. He said he could not account for his actions from July 31, the day of Sarokian's death, until he applied for admission to the state hospital in Tewksbury, several days later.

THE FIGHTING Between Troops and the Pirates

LIEUT. GRUENER DEAD

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 8.—Lieut. Theodore Gruener, a member of a prominent family of this city and for a long period connected with the second regiment serving in the Spanish war as a volunteer officer and later as lieutenant in H company, Forty-sixth regiment, U. S. A., on duty in the Philippines, died today at the home of his brother, Captain D. Gruener.

AUGUST Quarter Month

—AT THE—
WASHINGTON SAVINGS
INSTITUTION
507 CENTRAL STREET
Over Lowell Trust Company

THE HARPOON WON

MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 8.—The Harpoon, owned by C. F. Adams, 2nd, and the Beaver, owned by C. H. Foster, finished first in the first and second divisions respectively in the first race off here today in the trial series to determine the American contestants in the Spanish-American sloop yacht races. The race was a three mile heat in windward and return.

Thirteen yachts started and twelve finished, the Skeezix withdrawing half way out to the windward mark. The Harpoon and the Beaver led their respective divisions at the outer mark and were not headed on the run back to the finish. The Harpoon was closest followed throughout by the Lady. The Joyette pressed the Beaver somewhat closely. There was no tuffing.

After an hour's wait the yachts were sent on the second race over a triangular course. The finish:

FIRST DIVISION
Harpoon, C. F. Adams, 2d, 1:14.13.
Lady, R. Deft. Boardman, 1:14.32.
Ellen, C. P. Curtis, 1:15.58.
Sally XI, L. F. Perrott, 1:17.36.
Clara, Gus Lowell, 1:20.04.
Clara, H. W. Wickham, 1:21.05.
1901, H. M. Sears, 1:23.44.

SECOND DIVISION
Beaver, C. H. Foster, 1:18.09.
Joyette, W. H. Childs, 1:17.58.
De-mon, P. R. Crownsfield, 1:18.39.
Wolf, Caleb Loring, 1:18.59.
Spokane III, Hugh Baucroft, 1:22.38.
Skeezix, P. M. Hoyt, withdrew.

Poland Water

For Sale by
F. and E. BAILEY & CO.
GEO. A. WILLSON & CO.

NOTICE

Will the person who picked up the chicken pen near the Lincoln street crossing please return it to 211 West London st., or House 2, Lincoln st. and receive reward, as they are well known.

LATEST

BARRYMORE TO WED

It is Said Lloyds Loses a Policy of $50,000

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Sidney Harris has confirmed the report that her daughter, Miss Katherine Corri Harris, is engaged to Jack Barrymore. The day of the wedding has not been decided, but it is expected to be within the next three weeks. The marriage will cost $50,000.

Miss Harris is a wealthy lawyer and she is one of the prettiest and most popular members of the younger social set, though only 18 years old. Her father and mother were divorced in 1901.

Mr. Barrymore states that there was no romance in the affair. He just met Miss Harris, they liked each other and from friends became lovers in the ordinary course.

Mrs. Harris is very much in favor of the match. She has known Mr. Barrymore for a number of years, and considers him a very desirable non-in-law. Mr. Harris is much opposed, as he considers his daughter too young to get married. Mrs. Harris and her daughter announced the engagement to Mr. Harris before their recent return from Europe.

Mother and daughter are living at the Hotel Bayton, Madison avenue and Twenty-seventh street. They have a house in Flushing, L. I. Mrs. Harris is the daughter of the late Judge John R. Brady of the supreme court and is wealthy. She and Mr. Harris eloped on the day her elder sister was married.

Jack Barrymore has been reported engaged many times during the last few years, and according to a published interview, has been in love almost as many times as his reported engagements. He received much notoriety at the time of the Thaw trial, as it was said he was one of the many admirers of Evelyn Nesbit. Thaw. As a result of this notoriety, he was in a sanatorium for several weeks suffering from nervous breakdown.

He was later seen much with Bonnie Magin at the height of her popularity, and later with Miss Vivian Blackburn. He was also a great admirer of the late Lotta Faust. His engagement was announced to Grace Lane, a wealthy Chicago girl, but for some unknown reason it was broken off. During the past season his engagement has been announced five times.

Last May his managers, Cohen & Harris, took out a $50,000 policy with Lloyds against the possibility of his getting married inside of a year. They alleged that his value to them would be lessened to that extent in case he should forswear single blessedness. He said at the time that he was not engaged to be married, although he reserved the right to wed should the right girl come along.

In a recent interview, Mr. Barrymore said, relative to marriage: "A true sporting spirit is indispensable to a happy marriage. The married sportsman does not believe that his wife is to forsake her old friends and devote herself exclusively to him. He knows that she requires friends and amusements just as much as she did before her marriage."

"The married sportsman will not nag nor scold. He will respect himself, frankly and explicitly, but petty fault-finding will be beneath him. The husband with the sporting spirit will give his wife mental, financial and social freedom. The civilized woman is pretty nearly perfect, while the best man, compared with her, is only a rough-necked savage."

THE CRIPPEN CASE

QUEBEC, Aug. 8.—The week for which Dr. Crippen and Miss Leueve, jointly charged with murder, were remanded by the provincial court, expired at 1 o'clock this morning but Judge Angers, before they were originally haled, said that in the ordinary course of events the prisoners would not be required to appear in court today or at any other time before they sail for England. The local authorities will permit Inspector Dew to sail with his charges any time after August 15 that the warrant from the Dominion at Ottawa is received.

THREE INJURED

When An Electric Car Crashed Into a Pole

Patrick White, Mrs. Salome Johnpeter and a woman whose name could not be learned, were injured in an accident which occurred about seven o'clock last night on what is known as Dyer's hill, East Chelmsford, when the axle on an inbound Webburn car of the Boston & Northern broke and crashed into a telephone pole on the side of the road.

But for the pole the car would undoubtedly have toppled over an embankment and several of the passengers would probably have been fatally injured.

Mrs. Salome Johnpeter, aged 32 years, of 38 Pleasant street, was sitting on the third seat of the car, and when it crashed into the pole she was thrown from her seat and was bruised and skinned and suffered severely from nervous shock. She was rushed to St. John's hospital in a carriage. It is expected that she will have recovered sufficiently to go to her home within a day or two.

Patrick White of North Billerica, who was riding on the front seat of the car on the side which was damaged by the pole, was also cut and bruised to some extent. He was taken to his home in a carriage.

One other woman, a resident of Lowell, was also injured that she had to be removed to her home in a carriage.

There were 49 passengers aboard the car, which was in charge of Motorman Harry Morrill and Conductor P. Hogan and was due in Merrimack square at 7:18 o'clock. It was shortly after 7 o'clock as the car started over the top of Dyer's hill that the accident happened. The car had gone about 300 feet down the hill when Motorman Morrill felt the front axle of the truck give away. He applied the brakes and almost simultaneously the car swerved from the rails and crashed into the pole.

When the axle broke the passengers immediately realized that something was wrong and when the crash occurred it was only the presence of mind of some of the cooler headed ones that averted a panic.

The injured passengers were assisted to this city and in a short time the wrecking crew was on the scene. Cars were rushed to the scene, but traffic on that line was delayed for some time.

The railroad officials stated last night that the accident was one which it was impossible to foresee. The car affected had been in use for some years and there had never been any trouble with it. They had only praise for the work of Motorman Morrill in sticking to his post and doing everything in his power to avoid serious damage to the passengers. Morrill has been with the road for some time and is considered a first class man, as is his companion in work, Conductor Hogan.

GREAT SALE

IS BEING CONDUCTED BY THE GILBRIDE CO.

The annual August sale of bedding furnishings was opened this morning at the store of the Gilbride Co. In connection with this sale, this year the company has included its bed department which while yet in its infancy has shown continual growth and caters to an ever increasing patronage. Bargains will be offered during the sale on the following articles: household linens, bedspreads, towels, sheets and pillow cases. In the bed department wonderful bargains in metallic beds will hold sway. These beds, made wholly of metal, are the rage of the west and are more hygienic than the old style wooden bedstead. All the brass bedsteads carried by this company are finished with a new process of lacquering brass on the surface. The finished bed is finished through the different tubes after the bed is assembled.

All the bedding which will be offered in this sale is made under the strictest sanitary methods and the Gilbride Co. guarantee goes with each and every article.

While the sale is for the public generally, the firm extends a special invitation to all hotelkeepers, proprietors of lodging houses and other institutions to attend.

While you are attending the bedding sale do not fail to visit the rug department, for there is an annual sale of rugs being held which affords the opportunity, so very seldom given, for procuring rugs manufactured by the Rieckow Carpet Co. at low cost. In addition to the rugs from the Rieckow company the stock includes a varied number of designs from the foremost carpet manufacturers of the world which will be offered at ridiculously low prices during the sale.

12 SONDER YACHTS

Struggle for Three Places on the American Team

MARBLEHEAD, Aug. 8.—A baker's dozen of sonder yachts began a week's struggle today for three places on the American team that will meet the Spanish boats next week in the international races for the President Taft and Governor Draper cups. The thirteen yachts will sail in two divisions and will be given three 12 mile races a day until Thursday night when the regatta committee of the Eastern Yacht club by an elaborate system of points will eliminate all but three in each division. The survivors will then race two days more that the committee may finally determine the three best boats. It is expected that the Spaniards will arrive at Marblehead before the American trials are concluded. The Spanish challengers are the sonder yachts Mosquito II, Papoose and Chonta. These three little boats left Spain July 30 and are expected in New York on Thursday. They will be immediately shipped to Boston and the colors of the Federation of Spanish Yacht clubs are expected to fly in Marblehead harbor by next Sunday. The international races will begin Aug. 17. Of the thirteen yachts that started in the trial races today, one, the Ellen, was built in 1906, seven, the Demon, Bel, Joyetta, Lady, Skeezix, Spokane III, and Wolf in 1907, and five, the Beaver, Bonito, Cima, Harpoon and Sally XI, are the latest productions in this popular class of small boat racing. To the eye of the landman the thirteen American yachts are singularly alike except in the matter of color and out of their main sails. All are under the jib and mainsail rig with long over-hangs both fore and aft, smooth decks a small cockpit and no bowsprit. To the expert, however, the latest boats showed fitness in the carrying out of the lines and a tendency toward the narrow German type which has proved successful in Kiel waters and fairly so in this country. The restrictions on a sonder boat are that the total length of the waterline, beam and draught, shall not be over 32 feet, the displacement not less than 4070 pounds and the sail area not over 550 square feet, while the cost is limited to $2400. The measurements showed all boats are close to the limit. In fact that Harpoon and Cima are right on the line as to measurement and sail area while the Harpoon's displacement is only 15 pounds over the limit. The Cima is the longest overall and the Spokane III the shortest.

The yachts were divided into two divisions as follows: First division—Harpoon, Sally XI, Cima, Ellen, Lady, Bel and Bonito. Second division—Demon, Joyetta, Skeezix, Wolf, Spokane III and Beaver. The yachts were ordered to be at the start at 11 a. m. and the committee used the German system of hoisting a ball up a pole to start the boats with the second division leaving five minutes after the first. The committee announced that the winner in each class will be given an 8, the second boat 1, the third boat 2, and so on, the boats having the smallest numbers at the close of the preliminary races being given places in the semi-finals Friday.

POPE RECEIVES AMERICANS

ROME, Aug. 8.—The pope today received J. J. McGrane of New York, delegated with a group of other Knights of Columbus on behalf of the governing board of the order, to thank the pope for the special blessing given to the Knights. Afterwards the pontiff received 200 American pilgrims and American tourists. Bishop Van De Vyver, who presented the Americans, delivered an address of loyalty. The pope, answering, expressed satisfaction at being among so many Americans. He imparted his apostolic blessing to the party and thanked them for the $1800 Peter's Pence they presented.

JOE GANS, FORMER CHAMPION, DYING OF CONSUMPTION

BAITMORE, Aug. 8.—Joe Gans, the former lightweight champion of the world, who recently arrived here from Prescott, Ariz., in the last stages of tuberculosis, is not expected to live more than a few days. The former champion is a skeleton of his former self, unable to talk above a whisper and absolutely helpless. The old champion went to Prescott several months ago to stop the ravages of the disease. At first he rallied a bit and then began to weaken rapidly. He was anxious to see his mother once more, and the race with the grim reaper began. He had a trying time during the long trip, and at times the attendants feared he would not reach Baltimore alive. He rallied at Pittsburg and stood the journey fairly well. Last March Gans contracted a cold and neglected to look after it. In April the doctors informed him that there were signs of tuberculosis, and he was advised to seek another climate. In his day Gans was the greatest of lightweight fighters. For years he defended his title successfully. Many say that making the low weight demanded by his trainer in their last two battles sapped Gans' vitality and he fell an easy victim to tuberculosis.

BANKER MORSE

Is Reported Ill in the Penitentiary

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 8.—Charles W. Morse, the New York banker, serving a term of fifteen years for misappropriation of funds in the federal penitentiary here, has been removed to the hospital, where he is reported quite ill. Mrs. Morse after her biweekly visit said that she fears he will not survive the year and will redouble her efforts to secure a pardon for her husband from President Taft.

FUNERALS

CUMMINGS—The funeral of James Cummings took place Saturday afternoon from the chapel of Undertakers C. H. Molloy & Sons. Funeral services were held at the Immaculate Conception church, Rev. Fr. Flynn, O. M. I., officiating. The burial was in the Catholic cemetery. The bearers were James McLaughlin, Patrick Carthy, James Carty, Andrew Shanahan, James McDonough and Edward Byrne. C. H. Molloy & Sons were the undertakers in charge.

LANNON—The funeral of Mrs. Helen M. Lannon took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Thorne, 16 Coral street. The services were conducted by Rev. James M. Craig, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Appropriate selections were sung by Miss Katharine Gordon and Miss Elizabeth Parkinson. The bearers were John Chalmers, Edward H. Craig, John E. Donovan and Edward D. Mullins. Burial was in the family lot in the Westlawn cemetery. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Mr. Hiram C. Brown under the direction of Undertaker George W. Healey.

FRENCH—The funeral of William H. French took place from his residence, 378 Bridge street on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. Prayers were read at the house at 2:30 and the services were conducted at the Tabbot chapel in the Lowell cemetery at 3:30, by Rev. R. A. Greene, D. D., pastor of the Grace Universalist church. The bearers were Harry J. Coffey, Frank C. French, John George and Mr. Miller. The burial was in the family lot in the Lowell cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. B. Currier Co.

RAFFERTY—The funeral of Daniel Rafferty took place Saturday afternoon from the home of his parents, John and Della Rafferty, 37 Hall street. Burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertaker Peter H. Savage.

REILLEY—The funeral of Madeline L. Reilly took place Saturday afternoon from the home of her parents, Patrick R. and Mary A. Reilly, 9 Ellis avenue, Pawtucketville, and was largely attended. There were many beautiful floral tributes including a large pillow inscribed "Our Baby," from the parents, large sprays from Miss Anna Murphy, Miss Mary Reilly and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Reilly and a large bouquet from Mrs. Gormley. The burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FUNERAL NOTICE

DUNKERLEY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary A. Dunkerley will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her son William Howarth, 46 West Fourth street. Friends are cordially invited to attend. Interment in the Union cemetery in charge of Funeral Director James W. McKenna.

HOBBLE SKIRT

CAUSED WOMAN TO FRACTURE HER LEG

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Wearing her first hobble skirt, Miss Lillian Shuttleworth, 23 years old, of 945 Huguenot street, New Rochelle, tried to run down a steep incline at Glen Island Saturday afternoon and suffered a fracture of her left leg when she tripped and fell.

She was carried to the Glen Island Emergency hospital, where her injuries were attended to. She was then taken in a rowboat to New Rochelle. An automobile met the boat at the pier and Miss Shuttleworth was taken to her home. It was said there last night that her injury was likely to keep her in the house for several weeks.

She was with several other young women when the accident occurred. Miss Shuttleworth was in advance of the other members of the party. They heard her scream and saw her fall. When they reached her side they found she had fainted from the pain. The young woman who was with her when she was hurt said that Miss Shuttleworth donned a hobble skirt Saturday for the first time, that, unaccustomed to the restricted dimensions of the garment, she had tripped and fallen while running no faster than she might have run in safety had she been wearing a more voluminous skirt.

FOUND NOT GUILTY

Man Was Charged With Larceny of Money

One of the most interesting as well as lengthy cases that has been heard in police court for a long time was aired before Judge Hadley this morning, when a hearing was given John Thomas, a young man, who it was alleged stole $78 in money from a safe in the rear of the store at 415 Merrimack street occupied by Frederick P. Crawford, who deals in barbers' supplies. The government offered three witnesses, while the only witness for the defense was the defendant himself. The court after considering the evidence in the case found the defendant not guilty, and ordered him discharged. Lawyer William A. Hogan appeared for the defendant.

The first witness was the complainant, Mr. Crawford, who after answering the usual preliminary questions, gave a description of the stores occupied by him in Merrimack street. He is a member of the Frye & Crawford Drug Co., which occupies the store at 415 Merrimack street, while the store just beyond in the same building and numbered 478 is occupied by him alone where he deals in barbers' supplies. The stores are connected in the rear where the safe is located. Witness during the course of his testimony said that the clerks in either store had access to the other store, and that it was necessary to go near the safe in order to go from one store to the other.

Continuing with his testimony, Mr. Crawford said: "I met Thomas once or twice previous to his visit to my place on Wednesday afternoon. At that time he told me that he had closed his barber shop in Paige street and had like furniture stored away and would like to have me dispose of it for him. I gave him permission to bring the stuff to the store and shortly before 8 o'clock Thursday evening the furniture was brought on a moving van to the shore. Thomas was with the men and he assisted in unloading the furniture. Everything with the exception of the mirrors was placed in the rear room. He later placed the mirrors in the front shop. He named a price which he wanted for the furniture and I told him that I did not want to buy it, but that if he wanted to I would sell it for him. He seemed to be very anxious to realize on the articles at once, but I refused to buy and finally we agreed that he would tag the different articles, place them in bags and take them to the rear store for each."

"At about that time I was left alone in the store and was called from one store to another on several occasions, leaving Thomas in the rear room alone. While I was waiting on a boy in the front store I heard my cash box being taken in the safe, and I rushed into the rear store and found Thomas standing beside the safe. I turned the knob on the door and then turned the combination, locking the safe. I then watched Thomas closely for I was suspicious that he had taken the box. Thomas remained in the rear room for about an hour after that."

"During almost the entire time that we were conversing, Thomas carried a big rubber coat over his arm and also had it on his arm while he was tagging the furniture."

"About an hour before Thomas entered the place there was $78 in the cash box in the safe. There was $23 and some change in there and I placed $55 there prior to the man coming in. I had to go to meet a draft of $78 the following day. I did not know that the money was missing until the next morning when my bookkeeper notified me that it was missing."

On cross-examination witness said that the safe was open between about 4:30 in the afternoon and 7 o'clock at night. He admitted that although he heard the rattle of what he claimed was his cash box, when he returned to the rear of the store he looked almost every place excepting in the safe, where he had left the box. He did not even look in the safe before he locked the door. He also said that he never said a word to Thomas about suspecting him of having been fumbling about the safe, and that Thomas stayed around the store for an hour or more afterwards.

The young lady who acts as bookkeeper for both Mr. Crawford and the Frye & Crawford Drug Co. and takes care of the cash for Mr. Crawford said that she and Mr. Crawford were the only ones who knew the combination of the safe. She testified to the time of arrival of Thomas and the furniture, and corroborated to a certain extent the testimony offered by Mr. Crawford. She left the store at 6 o'clock, went home to supper and returned about 7 o'clock. She had no occasion to go to the safe that night. As a general rule she places the money taken in during the day in the safe at night when she closes the store, but on several occasions when she had lost her key if she went to the safe she has taken the bag of money and placed it in her desk. On the night of the alleged larceny she left the money in the desk. The next morning when she opened the safe she found that the box was missing. She later notified Mr. Crawford.

Joseph Miller, a salesman for the Crawford company, testified that on Thursday night he left his bag of money with the bookkeeper and went to supper. When he returned Mr. Crawford and Thomas were talking. Witness said he saw Thomas with a rubber coat over his arm but during a portion of the conversation the rubber coat was lying on an ice chest. He assisted Thomas in tagging the furniture. Later Thomas went to the front of the store and had an ice cream soda, inquired for Mr. Crawford, saw him and then went outside the store and remained standing there for ten or fifteen minutes.

At this point counsel for the defense asked that the defendant be discharged, inasmuch as the government had not made out a case, but Judge Hadley decided that he would like to hear the defendant's side of the story. Thomas, after being sworn, testified as follows: "I formerly kept a barber shop in Paige street, but closed it about ten months ago and since my goods, I saw Mr. Crawford on Wednesday and as a result of our conversation I brought the furniture to his place of business. I wanted $55 for the stock, but he would not offer me more than $40. We finally agreed that the goods would remain in the store and when he sold them he was to turn the money over to me minus 25 per cent commission which I was to allow him. I then wrote out checks and with the assistance of one of the young men in the store tagged the different articles. While I was writing out the checks the rubber coat was on an ice chest or ice cream box nearby. I was left alone for about half a minute at one time that the telephone rang and Mr. Crawford went to answer it. I did not go near the safe, neither did I see him lock it.

After not going through tagging the articles I went to the front store, and got a glass of ice cream soda and later saw Mr. Crawford. It was raining hard at the time and knowing that Mr. Crawford was going home I offered to let him take my rubber coat, but he said he had his covered buggy in front of the store."

All the money that I had at the time was two cents and after staying around the store for a few minutes I went across the street and pawned a watch which cost me $35 for $2.50. I paid my gas bill out of that and Friday night about 11:30 o'clock the inspectors called at my house and brought me to the police station and upon searching me found 83 cents, which was part of the money which I secured on the watch."

This concluded the case and Judge Hadley found the defendant not guilty and ordered him discharged.

Drunk Offenders

There were many drunks brought before Judge Hadley this morning. Joseph Adams, who was released yesterday and early this morning. Of the number which appeared in court this morning 13 were Sunday drunks.

Patrick Fels was charged with drunkenness and entered a plea of not guilty. Patrolman Wesley A. Wilson testified that he found the man in Trull's barn in Dover street about 12:50 o'clock yesterday morning. Fels said that he had got on the wrong car and finding that there were no more cars running and that he would have to walk to his destination he walked into the barn to rest himself. Inasmuch as he is on parole from the state farm he will be returned to the institution.

Jeremiah F. Sullivan and Michael Burke, who are also on parole, will return to the farm with Fels. Joseph J. McDermott and James McDermott, brothers, were in for drunkenness. James escaped with a $5 fine, but he was sentenced to four months in jail.

Lizale Harris was given six months in jail. James Walsh will spend four months at that place and Catherine Boyle will remain there for the term of one month.

The following were assessed $5 each: Joseph Adams, William F. Farrell, Thomas Sevelen, and Thomas F. Na-loney.

William Fleming and Frank McGovern were taxed $5 each and five first offenders were fined $2 each.

NEW ST. MARY'S

Will be Rededicated in Two Weeks

The rededication of St. Mary's church, Collingville, will take place on Sunday, August 21, at 10:30 o'clock, and promises to be the most imposing religious event in the history of the village. The officiating clergyman will be Mr. Dennis O'Farrell of Roxbury, Mass. The celebrant of the mass will be Rev. Charles J. Sullivan, D. C. L., assistant chancellor of the archdiocese of Boston, and a Collingville boy and the sermon will be preached by Rev. Patrick J. Supple, D. D., of Boston. A special musical program will be arranged for the occasion.

DEATHS

DUNKERLEY—Mrs. Mary A. Dunkerley, wife of James L. Dunkerley, a resident of Ballville, Conn., died Saturday night at the home of her son William Howarth, 46 West Fourth street, after a short illness, aged 53 years. She leaves her husband, four daughters, Mrs. Robert Rusk of Lawrence, Mrs. Leon Blodgett of Methuen and the Misses Clara and Sarah Howarth of Lowell; also three sons, William Howarth of this city and Frank and Joseph Howarth of Ballville, Conn. Time of funeral will be announced later.

RACETTE—Mrs. Delphis Racette died yesterday at the Lowell hospital, aged 36 years. The body was removed to the residence of her sister, Mrs. Charles Queller, 105 Tremont street. Deceased left a husband, three brothers, Olive, Grenon of Lawrence and Exidore, Laurent and Alphonse Grenon of Lowell, and three sisters, Mrs. Queller and Mrs. Leonie Charoux of Lowell and Mrs. Florence Lee of Derry, N. H.

PIERCE—Dowen L. Pierce, for many years a familiar figure in the business section of the city, died yesterday at St. John's hospital at the age of 69 years. Two weeks ago he was struck by an automobile at the corner of Merrimack and John streets and never recovered from the shock. He will be remembered by many residents of Lowell as going from office to office and from store to store with his basket on his arm, selling fruit and candy. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertaker George W. Healey on Branch street.

PUNN—James Dunn, a well known resident of West Chelmsford, died yesterday at Worcester. He is survived by two brothers, John and Matthew, and three sisters, Margaret, Sarah and Elizabeth. The remains will be brought to his home in West Chelmsford this evening by J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

MIDDLE AGED WOMAN wanted for light housework and caring for two children. Apply rear 63 North St. If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

NATIONAL LEAGUE STANDINGS
	Won	Lost	P. C.
Chicago	54	39	58.7
Pittsburg	54	30	64.3
New York	47	47	50.0
Philadelphia	47	49	49.0
Cincinnati	47	49	50.0

BOSTON MARKET
Stocks	High	Low	Clos
Adventure	6	6	6
Allouez	41	40	41
Am Ag Chem pf.....	100 1/2	100 1/2	100
Am Pneumatic	5 3/4	5 1/2	5
Am Pneu pf.....	17 1/4	16 1/2	17

Am Tel & Tel.....	132%	132%	132
Am Woolen pf.....	94½	94½	94
American Zinc.....	23%	21½	22
Arctadian.....	5	4%	5
Arizona Com.....	18½	16	18
Atlantic.....	6½	6½	6
As & Corbin.....	14%	14	14

Butte Coal'n	19%	59%	19
Idaho & Arizona	57	53	57
Idaho & Hecla	525	520	525
Centennial	174	17%	17
Superior Range	55	62%	55
Daily West	135	135	135
Franklin	13	11	12
Sioux	6%	6%	6
Granby	33	32	33
Greene-Canaan	74	7	7
Indiana	14	18	14
State Royalty	18	18	19
Superior Copper	6%	6%	6
Idaho	7%	7%	7
Idaho Electric	15%	15%	15
Idaho Electric pf.	81	81	81
Idaho Gas	80%	80%	80
Idaho Gas pf.	91%	91%	91
Idaho Copper	22%	21%	22
Idaho & Con	42	45	42
Idaho	48%	46%	48
Oreveda	20	20	21
North House Mines	1%	1%	1
North Butte	25%	25%	25
Idaho Dominion	38	36	38
Idaho	130	126	130
Idaho	72	72	72
Idaho	10%	9%	10
Superior Copper	44	43%	44
Superior & Pitts.	12	12	12
Idaho & Con	102%	102%	102
Idaho	58	54	57
Idaho	6	5%	6
Idaho Fruit	158	154	158
Idaho	54%	54%	54
Idaho	26%	26%	26
Idaho & Con	54%	54%	54
Idaho	38	38%	38
Idaho	47%	47%	47
Idaho	24%	23%	24
Idaho	4%	4%	4
Idaho	115	115	115

The Money Market

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Prime money marketable paper 5½ to 6 per cent. Sterling exchange firm at $33.00 to $33.60 for 30 day bills and at 183.70 for demand. Commercial bills 46½ to 47½. Bar silver 53. Mexican dollars 47. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds irregular.

Money on call easy 1½ to 1½ per cent; ruling rate 1½; best loan 1½; closing bid 1½; offered at 1½. Time loans steady and very dull; 60 days 3½ to 4½ per cent and 90 days 3½ to 4½ per cent 4½ to 5.

Exchanges and Balances

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Exchanges $1,100,890; balances $1,231,535.

that the purchasing agent and not the water board should purchase the automobile, the members of the automobile committee of the water department was purchased by the purchasing agent. There is a great deal of difference in the automobile and the pump proposition. One is purchased all ready for action and the other is erected. The pump has to be built and the transaction is a long one. The automobile is a pump or any other public building. The pump is sent here in pieces and is put up according to plans and specifications. The purchase of an automobile is a different proposition entirely.

"To finish with the pump question for the time being. Mr. [unclear] suggested that after all is said and done there still exists the possibility

TO KEEP THEIR PLACES
ST. ALBANS, Vt., Aug. 8.—Of 113 men who were hired as conductors, trainmen and yardmen during the recent strike on the Central Vermont railway, about 76 remain and say they intend to keep their jobs permanently. They cannot be replaced by former employees of the road who were struck unless they voluntarily relinquish their positions.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Official reports from the speed trial of the new dreadnought battleship Delaware received at the navy department today indicate that the vessel exceeded her contract speed on all the tests, averaging 21 knots on forced draught.

DIAMOND NOTES

Tracy and Xount and Wood and the president, all big league propositions, were won today.

What a difference from Wednesday's games. Watching Saturday's game, I would believe that Lowell had been composed entirely of natural born winners.

Poor Pearson received a most complete trouncing. Lowell made seven hits of him in one-third of an inning. Then a new pitcher comes in and Dr. Parsons to keep the good work going strikes a single off him right off the wheel.

Wolfgang and Parsons both pitched classy games.

Tommy Caterson has fully recovered from his illness and is as fast as ever.

Umpire Lanigan was right on job Saturday and there were no justifiable kicks.

The N. E. league fight for the pizant is the closest and most interesting to be found in any league. It is a four-cornered battle with Lowell trailing along with the hope of making the first division.

Six hits out of 10 times at bat when Cooney did with his little stick in the second game he got four singles out of four times at bat. In the first game, two out of four. Between Cooney and Tommy Devine of the River the honor of Jamaica Plain is suffering in the N. E. league.

The fans had a lot of fun with Jimmy Bauman, especially after he had dropped an easy fly. Bauman accepted the chaffing gracefully.

If the Lowell team would play as well nearly all the time as they are Saturday, we'd be safely in the first division ere long.

N. E. LEAGUE
	Won	Lost
New Bedford	54	25
Worcester	41	38
Fall River	49	35
Lyons	48	40
Lowell	43	41
Lawrence	40	48
Brockton	36	51
Quincy	29	59

METHUEN
E. Smith, run out.	5
F. Dawson, run out.	0
W. Briggs, c. Marland, b. Patrick.	21
C. Graydon, b. Patrick.	16
W. Hamer, c. and b. Chapman.	7
H. Ankers, b. Chapman.	7
J. Pye, b. Chapman.	0
C. Hamer, b. Chapman.	0
E. Bennett, b. Chapman.	0
J. Dawson, b. Chapman.	0
J. Hamer, not out.	1
Extras	2

Total	58
ZION
J. Patrick, c D. Hamer, b W. Hamer.	5
Marland, b W. Hamer	3
Brooks, b Graydon	3
J. Hall, b W. Hamer	1
W. Croft, Jr., c D. Hamer, b W. Hamer	21
Chapman, b Graydon	9
W. Croft, Sr., b W. Hamer	2
E. Fielding, not out	1
A. Fielding, not out	1
Extras	4
Total	58

VESPER GOLF PLAY

C. H. Tucker, with a handicap of 19 and a net score of 73, won first place in the fourth medal competition for the Vesper Country golf club Saturday. H. H. Wilder, with a handicap of two, made the best round of the day, securing a gross of 77. The score:

Player	Gross H'c'p Net
--------	-----------------

H. H. Tucker02	19	75
H. H. Wilder77	77	75
F. G. Froust87	12	75
E. W. Thompson92	15	77
G. H. Sheldon92	12	80
W. G. Eaton89	8	81
A. K. Chadwick90	3	82
A. M. Chadwick94	12	82
C. H. Dutton94	12	82
J. G. Hill98	12	86
F. Weston98	12	86
J. Smith106	18	88
J. A. Thompson108	18	90

Team Captured the Butler Cup

The regular shoot for the Butler and Parker cups was held Saturday afternoon at the Dracut rifle range and Company C won the Butler cup with ease, while Capt. Gardner Pearson of Company C captured the Parker cup. The members of Company C led at all ranges and it was one of the easiest victories of the season. Company K finished second, Company M of the North squad and Company G last. The

CO. C 6TH REGT.
	200	300	500	T ¹
Sergl. Patten	20	22	24	66
Priv. Robinson	21	22	23	66
Priv. Dwyer	20	22	24	64
Lieut. Peterson	19	19	24	62
Capt. Pearson	20	22	26	67
Sergl. Linscott	18	18	29	65
Priv. Sorenson	18	17	23	58
Priv. E. Burns	20	21	22	63
Priv. Kirschner	17	20	22	59
Priv. Nowlan	20	20	18	58
Totals	191	203	225	619

CO. K 6TH REGT.
	19	20	28	62
Capt. Greig	19	20	28	62
Mus. Greeley	20	22	22	64
Corp. Mountain	19	22	23	64
Mus. Dwyer	21	22	22	65
Mus. Dupee	21	18	17	61

Priv. Fox	19	18	17	54
Priv. Rothe	14	20	22	56
Priv. Ransley	10	20	22	52
Priv. Caslin	20	19	22	61
Priv. Scott	20	19	19	58
Totals	130	101	214	584
CO. M, 5TH REGT.
Frechette	19	18	57
Morseau	18	20	11	47
Curley	16	14	16	45
Shanley	18	19	16	53
Noren	19	18	19	56
Cabin	18	19	19	57
Alcott	20	16	20	56
Sullivan	17	18	17	52
Capt. McNulty	13	19	19	52
Rourke	19	10	14	52
Totals	172	181	174	527
CO. G, 6TH REGT.
Lieut. Doyle	19	21	22	62

Crowell	17	18	21	56
B. Barnes	17	18	15	50
C. Barnes	18	15	22	55
Miner	15	8	16	39
Keeler	12	4	16	31
Afano	20	13	9	42
Carlson	16	15	20	51
Loupert	9	17	7	33
McGorkin	19	20	24	63
Totals	162	158	174	494

GONE TO FAIRLEE

Lowe!! People to Enjoy
a Great Treat

A party of Lowell business men left today for Fairlee, Vt., where they will spend the next two weeks at Rest-a-While camp. Included in the party are Messrs. Patrick Kelley, E. A. McQuade, William F. Higgins, John F. Kinnealy, George B. McKenna, John J. Ryan, Michael J. Garvey and Andrew L. Pendergast.

John F. Higgins, who is the well known undertaker, has taken with him some apparatus to make airship tests. The different parts of the machine were shipped last week, so that the workmen could have them put together. At the time the Lowell men arrived, on Wednesday, Mr. Higgins will make his first experimental test, but the big affair will come on Aug. 18, when the people of that section of the country will be given a great surprise. Mr. Higgins has experimented on a small scale with his machine in the Watson's field in this city, but the space there is limited, while at Fairlee he will have a great tract of open ground to carry on his work. He does not intend to enter the aviation field, in a sense that the professional does; his purpose being to get something after the style of the captive balloon, which was enjoyed at Lakeview last week.

Factory's output now upwards of half-million weekly. Largest selling brand of 10c cigars in the world. Factory, Manchester, N. H.

RAIDED BY POLICE C. T. A. U. CONVENTION

Men and Women Found in Exclusive Club in Newport

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 6.—After standing guard single-handed for more than nine hours, after a midnight raid on the Narragansett club, which he had led, Constable John G. Cross was yesterday placed under arrest on a warrant charging him with assault and was taken from the clubhouse and to police headquarters.

He did not leave, however, until he had secured a good survey of the place and its fittings and had stuffed his pockets with chips, balls and other articles which he intends to use as evidence in substantiation of charges of gambling.

Cross, acting at the instigation of a number of prominent residents of Narragansett, went to the club with four assistants. They experienced little difficulty in securing admittance and, according to Cross, stood for a full minute in the doorway watching some 20 prominent men and women gathered about roulette wheels, a faro bank and a game of hazard.

Then he ordered the crowd into a corner and proceeded to take their names. Some of the men and women he easily recognized because of their prominence and the others gave names which it is believed were in most instances fictitious. The people were formally summoned to appear in court on Aug. 22.

Meanwhile Cross had dispatched two of his assistants for teams with which to cart away the fittings of the rooms, but once they were outside the doors were locked and they were not able to get back again. The other two assistants were finally induced to leave and Cross was thus left alone on guard.

During the early morning the constable succeeded in getting word of his predicament to the outside world and some time later Asst. Atty. Gen. Harry E. Cross took a hand in the matter and asked Chief of Police James D. Caswell to go to the constable's aid.

The police, however, could not get into the place at the time. Some time later a warrant was sworn out for Constable Cross, charging assault upon an employee of the club, and officers again visited the place.

This time they secured admittance and the constable was placed under arrest. He was immediately hauled out, but in the interim, he says, all evidences of the gambling which he alleges was taking place when he raided the club, except that which he carried in his pockets, was spirited away.

The Narragansett club is one of the most exclusive organizations in the east and numbers among its members, it is said, some of the most prominent people who annually gather at the pier.

Constable Cross described the rooms as the most magnificently furnished apartments that he has ever visited. When he first entered, he says, there were three costly roulette wheels, a faro bank and a game of hazard, all of the latest and most approved type and with the most expensive fittings.

Vanguard of the Temperance Body Has Arrived in Boston

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The vanguard of visitors to this city for the 40th annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America arrived here yesterday morning, when more than 500 of the uniformed regiment from the neighborhood of Wilkesbarre, Pa., came into the South station and later in the day went into camp at Castle Island. This morning at 10 o'clock the camp will be dedicated "Camp Wilkesbarre."

The regiment came to the city from Providence, having arrived there very early in the morning from New York, from which city they sailed Saturday night on one of the sound boats. The regiment is composed of companies from the inland section of Pennsylvania, and they were glad to get a glimpse at the salt water and happy that their camp had been pitched on an island where they would get the salt breezes for the whole week.

The train that brought the regiment up to the city from Providence was followed by a second section, and aboard this was a party of half a hundred young women from Wilkesbarre, Pittston and other towns in the neighborhood. The young women were for the most part sisters of the boys in the regiment and others who took advantage of the week's outing.

The visiting young women were met by a delegation of the women's temperance organization of St. James' church and escorted to Claverus hall, Harvard street, where they were registered and then taken to the Commonwealth hotel, where the Pennsylvania party will have their headquarters for the week.

Crowds Visit Castle Island. In addition to the Pennsylvania contingent there were many more arrivals of delegates and visitors, and the advance number reaching town yesterday would seem to indicate that quite a large number will be in the city for the week.

The chief interest of yesterday centered in the Wilkesbarre regiment. This is the only uniformed regiment in the United States affiliated with the Catholic total abstinence movement, and the local workers were pleased with the good showing the organization made.

Throughout the afternoon and last evening it was quite apparent that the people of the city were much interested in the regiment, for late in the afternoon it was estimated by many who are familiar with the crowds that go to Castle Island for Sunday afternoon picnics that the crowd there during the afternoon was greater than any previous Sunday this summer.

The band concert and evening parade held about sundown attracted great numbers.

Col. William S. Murphy and the other officers of the regiment were pretty busy during the greater part of the day getting the camp in condition, and a leader in this work was Major Patrick Gibbons, one of the most prominent members and a general favorite with officers and men.

The major seemed to know about everything that was to be known and everyone appeared to be looking for him. The major is in himself a genius for getting things into shape and his ability is that won from good, hard practical experience.

Like the practically all the other members of the regiment, is a minor. He is an athlete of skill and a soldier the whole way through. When the Spanish war broke out he jumped into the service at the first call and went to Cuba and then to the Philippines, serving for a part of the time as adjutant of the Pennsylvania regiment.

Imbued with the spirit of it all, the major didn't stop there. When the big dry dock Dewey was going to Manila the major thought this was a trip worth the taking and he got into the service and was one of the men who was entrusted with that gigantic and successful tour of duty.

He came on here in charge of the advance detail to prepare the camp at Castle Island, and though he had but 48 hours in which to do it with a dozen men, he had the place in ship shape yesterday morning when the regiment arrived and everyone said, "Well, Maj. Gibbons was on the job."

There are many other members of the regiment who have seen military service too, quite a number of the boys being Spanish war veterans, and the whole command is a well-disciplined, well-organized outfit that speaks well for the idea.

The train bearing the regiment arrived in the South station at 7.15 o'clock, and as soon as the men were off the cars they were placed in convenient restaurants for breakfast. They reached the station at 8 o'clock and marched to St. James' church, Harrison avenue, where a special mass was celebrated at 9 o'clock.

To Have Mass Every Morning. Rev. Fr. J. J. O'Malley of St. Mary's church, Wilkesbarre, was the celebrant of the mass, and during the stay of the regiment he will be the chaplain. It was announced at the church that each morning during the week there will be a mass celebrated in a tent on Castle Island at 8 o'clock.

In going to the camp the regiment was escorted by about 100 boys comprising a part of the Temperance cadets of St. James' parish. These were in charge of Lieut. Nathan F. Ayer of the Ninth regiment, M. V. M., who had drilled the youngsters.

The regimental band of 34 pieces was with the command. In the church for the mass was the governing body of the Boston branch of the C. T. A. U., headed by Pres. John T. Shea of Cambridge with Sec'y Maurice Dinneen and Mrs. Augustus Tilson, one of the vice-presidents.

The sermon at the mass was preached by Rev. Dr. M. J. O'Connor, spiritual director of the archdiocesan union. Fr. O'Connor expressed the pleasure of the local union at having the regiment present for the convention week. He praised the work that they were engaged in, for the splendid example they set for others.

He was sure that they would be a credit to the Catholic temperance movement, and their stay here would be the cause for a glad welcome on a return visit at some future time.

At the conclusion of the service in the church the regiment was reformed and marched through Harrison avenue to Broadway and that thoroughfare was traversed over into South Boston until the regiment reached the Castle Island camp.

Clergymen Visit the Camp. The detail of half a dozen policemen from station 4 was in charge of Patrolman Thomas Moore, one of the veterans of that division. The cadet escort was commanded by Capt. Frank Montaigne and Joseph Pollia, with Lieutenants Frank Murphy, Michael Hurley and Edward Tinsley.

In the vicinity of St. James' church on Harrison avenue, when the mass was over, there had assembled several thousand people and as the regiment proceeded on its way to the camp their marching was applauded by the on-lookers.

In South Boston, too, great crowds viewed the regiment on its way and the men were given a royal good welcome as they moved along Broadway.

Once in camp the companies broke formation and the boys got their tents ready for the day. The camp has been pitched on the land side of the island and the company streets run from the water up to the walls of Fort Independence.

Quite a large space near the public boat landing has been kept clear for the parade ground and it was here that the evening parade took place late in the afternoon.

At 4 o'clock the regimental band gave a concert of about an hour and a half. This was heard by many thousands of people. The officers of the regiment had it under discussion to give similar concerts through the week at hours that will not interfere with the routine that the local union has mapped out for the Pennsylvanians.

This will be announced later.

During the afternoon many of the local clergy, especially spiritual directors of the parish societies, visited the camp and met the officers and men. President Shea, Mrs. Tilson and others also were there and among those prominent in arranging for the welfare of the visitors were Joseph T. Brennan of the archdiocesan union, Leo J. O'Neil, president of the outfit, and Edward Battis of division 3, A. O. H., Misses Annie and Mary Sullivan.

John Mitchell Expected. It was stated by several of those from Wilkesbarre, as a positive fact that John Mitchell, the well-known labor leader and former president of the coal miners, would come to this city for the convention, or at least part of the time, and would be one of the speakers at the big rally in Boston theatre on next Friday night.

The feature of the camp at Castle Island today will be the dedication, which will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. It is hoped that Mayor Nissen of Wilkesbarre will be able to come here for the exercises although when the regiment left that city on Saturday the mayor was sick.

It is also expected that City Treasurer Daniel Hart of Wilkesbarre will arrive for the dedication. The city treasurer is one of the best known men in Wilkesbarre. He is very popular with the people and has written several plays that deal with the life of the coal miners.

Priests' League to Meet. Prof. Michael C. Davitt of Wilkesbarre is already here, having come with the regiment. He is a district deputy of the Knights of Columbus for the Wilkesbarre district. Many of the members of the regiment are members of the Knights of Columbus and they will find a host of fellow members in this city to entertain them.

Another arrival here yesterday morning was Mr. L. E. Ryan, C. R. P., of Chicago, who comes to make arrangements for the coming of the Paulist cadets of Chicago, who will arrive on Tuesday. Col. George D. Griffin will be in charge of the cadets. The Paulist cadets of New York city will also arrive Tuesday.

Rev. Fr. M. A. Lambing, V. F., of Scotland, Pa., president of the Priests' Total Abstinence league, reached here yesterday morning, and registered at the Parker house. While the C. T. A. U. convention is in progress the priests' league will also hold its sessions. The headquarters will be at the Parker house.

The headquarters of the C. T. A. U. will be at the Adams house. Other arrivals yesterday included Rev. Fr. J. V. Moylan of Nanticoke, Pa., and J. Washington Logue, who with a party motored here from Atlantic City.

It is expected that quite a large number of state and archdiocesan delegations will arrive during today and the western tourists' clubs will begin to put in an appearance late tonight and tomorrow. The local officers are confident that the 40th annual convention will be the most successful in the history of the C. T. A. U.

LIEUT. J. E. BURNS

To Coach the Bay State Rifle Team

First Lieut. James E. Burns of Company C, Sixth regiment, M. V. M., of this city, who is a member of the rifle team picked from the state militia for the annual national matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, left with the other members of the team Saturday.

Besides being a member of the team, he is also to act as coach of the Massachusetts aggregation.

The Massachusetts team is to take part in all of the big matches of the tournament, the national matches, the events under the auspices of the National Rifle association and others.

The tournament this year is expected to be the biggest and most important of any ever held in the United States. Teams from all branches of the regular service and from the National Guard of the various states and the District of Columbia will take part.

SECTION BOSS

Was Stabbed by One of His Help

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Aug. 8.—Maurice O'Brien of 16 Maplewood terrace, Middleburg, who is employed by the Boston & Albany railroad as a section boss on the West Springfield division, was seriously stabbed on Westfield road last night, his throat being cut from ear to chin.

Mr. O'Brien was walking along Westfield road with William Whalen, and when near Black brook in Tatham, they were overtaken by three men riding in a wagon. O'Brien spoke to the men, who had evidently been drinking, and advised them to make less noise.

This was resented by one of the three, for drawing a knife he leaned over the side of the wagon and made a lunge at O'Brien, opening up an ugly gash about five inches long, extending from the left ear to the chin.

The men in the wagon drove on quickly and Mr. Whalen assisted the injured man to his home at E. A. Benedict's. O'Brien was taken to the Springfield hospital in the ambulance. The knife did not reach the arteries and it is expected that O'Brien will recover, although he is very weak from loss of blood.

Chief E. A. Phelps of the West Springfield police was notified and turned out on duty at once in chase for the three men. The Springfield and Chicopee police were also notified to look out for them.

No accurate description of the three men in the wagon can be given, although Mr. Whalen believes he can identify the man who did the stabbing.

GOING TO REVERE

ANNUAL OUTING OF FEDERAL SHOE CO.'S EMPLOYEES

The Federal Shoe company's employees are making arrangements to turn out on an annual outing, which is scheduled to take place at Revere beach on Saturday next.

Notwithstanding the fact that this is the company's busy season, everything being now on the "rush," the management, which at all times takes a kindly interest in the social affairs of its employees, has decided to close down the entire plant for the day.

Daniel W. Shanahan, the popular superintendent of the Federal, will accompany the party to the beach. An interesting feature of the day's program will be a "deciding" ball game between two yet undrafted teams composed of Federal employees, which will take place at Orient Heights.

ALL READY FOR A. O. H. WEEK

Mr. C. F. Young, the local decorator, has just returned from Provincetown, where he was engaged as official decorator for the recent celebration there. Mr. Young has also been engaged as official decorator for the A. O. H. week in Lowell. Those intending to decorate for that occasion should place their orders early with Mr. Young.

Mr. Young has no agents representing him. He gives all orders his personal attention and to be in keeping with the spirit of the times we should patronize home industries. Telephone 1345, or address C. F. Young, 133 Central street.

LOWELL MAN

TO HAVE CHARGE OF WALTHAM PUBLIC LIBRARY

Orlando C. Davis of this city has been elected librarian of the Waltham public library, and he will assume his new duties on Sept. 1. Mr. Davis while attending high school was connected with the local city library and is well versed in the work. During his college course at Dartmouth he was also connected with the college library. During the past three years since his graduation from Dartmouth he has been cataloger of the Dartmouth college library and has been in charge of the reference room.

BANNER BLESSED

A beautiful banner, representing the apparition of the Virgin to Bernadette at Lourdes, was blessed last night at the Church of Notre Dame de Lourdes. It was Rosary Sunday and a procession of the members of the Congregation de la Sainte Famille, to whom the banner belongs, was held after vespers. Rev. Fr. Lamoignon, O. M. I., blessed the banner and preached the sermon.

The Bon Marche

Monday Evening Sale

FROM 6 TO 9.30 O'CLOCK ONLY

HANDKERCHIEFS (Near Door)
Fancy colored border handkerchiefs for fancy work, variety of patterns. Regularly 10c.
MONDAY EVENING 3 for 25c

BELT PATTERNS (Art Dept.)
New designs stamped for embroidery on mercerized corded belting. Regularly 15c.
MONDAY EVENING 10c

SHELL BARRETTES (Near Elevator)
An extraordinary bargain in barrettes and hair combs, shell and amber, in a large variety of kinds and patterns; sold regularly from 10c to 25c. See special window display.
MONDAY EVENING 7c

MIDDY BLOUSES (Waist Dept.)
Regulation style, soft twill cotton, broadcloth collar of blue; some few are white; sizes 32 to 40; regular prices 79c and 98c.
MONDAY EVENING 59c

SATEEN PETTICOATS (Second Floor)
Deep dounce, extra full, Jersey top; sold always at $2, $2.50 and $3.50.
MONDAY EVENING 98c

FLOOR MOPS (Basement)
Spring end mop stick and heavy cotton twine mop; regular price 35c.
MONDAY EVENING 21c

TRIMMED HATS (Millinery Dept.)
25 Grass Hats, trimmed with silk in all colors; regularly sold at 98c.
MONDAY EVENING 49c

MISSIE VESTS (Underwear Dept.)
Lisle Vests, low neck and sleeveless, fancy yoke; regular price 25c.
MONDAY EVENING 2 for 25c

SILK SHIELD BOWS (Men's Dept.)
All colors, good quality poplin. Regular price 25c.
MONDAY EVENING 11c

WOMEN'S HOSE (Street Floor)
Fine gauze cotton, black and tan, ribbed top and plain; all sizes. Regularly 15c.
MONDAY EVENING 10c

MOIRE RIBBON (Street Floor)
All Silk Moire Taffeta, 5 inches wide, colors, white, pink, and blue; regularly 29c.
MONDAY EVENING 19c

STORM SERGE (Dress Goods)
All wool, navy blue, storm serge, 42 inches wide for vacation suits or for school wear. Regular price 59c.
MONDAY EVENING 49c

INFANTS' DRESSES (Second Floor)
White lawn dresses, lace and hamburger trimmed, sizes for 6 months to 2 years. Regular prices 75c and 98c.
MONDAY EVENING 49c

CHILDREN'S SHOES (Shoe Dept.)
White canvas low shoes, sizes 5 to 8. Regular price 49c.
MONDAY EVENING 29c

TOILET SOAP (Street Floor)
Cocoa Oil Buttermilk Soap, large cake. Regular price 10c.
MONDAY EVENING 3c

WE CALL ATTENTION

To the fact that another Big Bargain Sale is in preparation at our store. Look for the two-page ad. in Thursday's papers for further particulars.

B. & M. ENGINEERS DROPPED DEAD

Enjoyed Outing at Canobie Lake Park After Greeting Long Missing Son

A merry party of about 300, comprising members of Boston division 61, so glad to see you again; it seems so long since you were home," said Mrs. and Paul Revere lodge, B. of L. E., Abbie Brown, 82 years, when her son, Charles of Loannis, Mich., entered her home after a long separation. With these words she dropped dead. She was so excited when her son appeared that heart trouble caused her death.

In a special train provided by the Boston & Maine road officials the party left Boston at 9.25 a. m. Dinner was served at noon and the return trip was begun at 6.

D. W. Sanborn, ex-general superintendent of the Boston & Maine; Mrs. Sanborn, L. C. Todd, master mechanic of the Fitchburg division, and F. H. Flynn, dispatcher of the Southern division, were special guests.

The outing was in charge of a committee comprising Orman B. Folkins, chairman, Leonard Marshall and Joseph Ames of division 61 and "Chas. A. Perry, Ralph P. Goff and H. Litchfield of Paul Revere lodge. The organizations plan to make a joint outing an annual feature.

REST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.
Mrs. Winslow's Witchamela Syrup has been used for over SIXTY YEARS BY MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN'S COLIC, BRUISING, with FEVERISHNESS, and for the CHILDS' CROUP, THROAT, and the QUINS. ALLAYS ALL PAIN. CURES WIND COLIC, and is the surest remedy for DIARRHOEA. It is absolutely harmless. Be sure and get for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and take on other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Young Men's Christian Association Building
Sealed proposals will be received at the Young Men's Christian Association Building, 100 North Street, Lowell, Mass., until 12 o'clock, noon, August 24th, 1910, for the erection of a four-story Young Men's Christian Association building in Lowell.

Plans and instructions to bidders may be secured by contractors at the Young Men's Christian Association Building every week day from 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. Proposals for construction of the entire building only will be received. Any person desiring to submit to general contractors bids for any portion of the general contract may obtain the requisite information at the same time and place. Copies of said plans will also be on file at the Builders' Exchange, Lowell, Mass., and at the Master Builders' Association, No. 168 Devonshire street, Boston, Mass. P. A. FLATHER, Chairman Executive Committee.

ROSE PITONOF

The First Woman to Swim to Boston Light

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—Little Rose Pitonof of Dorchester, Boston's marvelous 16 year old schoolgirl swimmer, must be accredited with the laurels and glory that go with the proud title of champion female swimmer of the world, for yesterday the diminutive, but intrepid young woman, swam from the pier of Charlestown bridge to Boston light, a feat never before accomplished by one of her sex and only once before beyond question by a human being.

The wonderful little girl dived off the harbor end of the pier beneath the big bridge connecting Charlestown and Boston at 11.23, and after battling with the waves, eddies, cross currents, and changeable temperature of the open waters of the harbor for six hours and fifty minutes she gripped the jagged rocks from which rears the whitewashed beacon, a fraction less than ten miles away, at 6.15. Then she nonchalantly scrambled up over the rocks and greeted Levi B. Clark, the lighthouse keeper, with a smile and a handshake that would have made an ordinary man wince.

With the utmost unconcern Rosie listened to the cheers that were shouted toward her by the small group of attendants and erstwhile competitors that accompanied her in rowboats, dories and launches; to the distant shouts of acclaim that floated over the waters from the soldiers on the parapets at Fort Warren, and to the shrieking of steam sirens and whistles on passing craft, as she clambered up the jagged, rocky beach.

With the praises of the small, but faithful, gallery ringing in her ears her first thought, after she had calmed her nerves after the terrible ordeal, was of the members of her immediate family who had accompanied her on her long, arduous battle with the waves.

They were aboard the small naphtha launch, which had been christened the Rose Pitonof in honor of the girl, and she responded to their cheers and waving handkerchiefs with smiles and nods and kisses waived from the tips of her berry-brown fingers.

Then the stocky little phenomenon of the water was hurried into the lighthouse and her attendants, including her joyous father, Eli Pitonof of Freeport street, Dorchester, rubbed and massaged her flesh until it glowed like the flower from which she took her name.

Although still in the depths of girlish ecstasy over her accomplishment, the powerful young swimmer was in danger of chills from her long stay in the unusually cold water, and after she had been thoroughly rubbed and massaged, she was divested of her swimming trunks and shirt, hustled into an extra thick bathrobe and enveloped in blankets.

CUT HIS THROAT

Man Took Razor During Barber's Absence

PITTSFIELD, Aug. 8.—John A. Hall of Springfield, son of the late John A. Hall, former president of the Springfield Mutual life insurance company, killed himself in a bathroom at the Maplewood hotel just before noon yesterday by cutting his throat with a razor.

Mr. Hall was at the hotel convalescing from nervous prostration. He had been moribund and despondent since the death of his mother two years ago.

He arrived at the hotel on June 17 with his sister, Miss Leighton Hall, and a woman attendant. Since that time he had been occasionally very melancholy. Saturday he was very despondent.

Yesterday morning Harry H. Lehn, a barber, went to Hall's room with a kit of tools and shaved his customer. Hall appeared brighter than usual and chatted about subjects which he and the barber had before discussed. When Lehn stepped out of the room to get some hot water Hall took one of the several razors from Lehn's kit and secreted it.

Finishing the shaving, the barber left the hotel, and Hall said to his sister that he would take a bath. Miss Hall was reading the morning paper, and later heard her brother groaning in the bathroom.

She tried the door and found it locked. Summoning a bellboy, she called the manager of the house, and he had the house locksmith open the door.

Mr. Hall was dead on the bathroom floor. Mr. Hall was 32 years old and was at one time one of the officers of the Springfield Mutual life insurance company. The body was sent to Springfield for burial.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun or "Want" column.

Eyeglasses at Less Than Half

Broken Lenses replaced 40c
Gold Filled Riding Bow Glasses $1.00
Aluminum Glasses $1.00
Rimless Eyeglasses $1.00

Office hours 10 to 5, Sundays 2 to 5. Closed Wednesdays.

J. W. GRADY
GRADY OPTICIAN
415, 418, 419 and 420 Weymouth Exchange Building, Cor. Central and Merrimack sts. Telephone 1044.

A Burning Question

THE COAL SUPPLY

Make up your mind to have the most satisfactory kind mined by ordering from William E. Livingston Co., 15 Thorndike St.

Business Established 1828

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

De Forest, Wis.—"After an operation four years ago I had pains downward in both sides, backache, and weakness. The doctor wanted me to have another operation. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am entirely cured of my troubles."

Mrs. AUGUST VESPERMANN, De Forest, Wisconsin.

Another Operation Avoided. New Orleans, La.—"For years I suffered from severe female troubles. Finally I was confined to my bed and the doctor said an operation was necessary. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial first, and was saved from an operation."

Mrs. LILLY PEYTON, 1111 Kerlerey St., New Orleans, La. Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases. The great volume of unsolicited testimony constantly pouring in proves conclusively that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a remarkable remedy for those distressing feminine ills from which so many women suffer.

No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made exclusively from roots and herbs.

Write for free copy of "The Women's Friend," a book of 100 pages, containing full particulars of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and how it cures all female troubles.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Littleton, Colo.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was 16,828

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

Well, what do you think of this? The state of Minnesota has such a surplus in the treasury that state taxes are likely to be omitted for the year 1911. Wait till the grufflers of the east hear of this, then look for a big exodus to Minnesota.

While the police officers are enforcing the ordinance, preventing needless delay in the square, they might pull in a few of the wild joy riders who swing around the corners without any regard for the people getting on and off the cars. A few examples will bring these violators of the law to their senses.

WHERE THE BLAME LIES

It is rather amusing at times to hear prominent local republican politicians hold forth on the necessity of a city charter for Lowell which would take the city business out of politics. Yet everyone knows that nothing but the republican party and republican politicians and grafters prevent us from getting the kind of charter we need.

TOO GOOD TO LAST

In a circular letter sent out by a company manufacturing automobiles, soliciting subscriptions for increased capital, the statement is made that the profits ran from 40 to 60 per cent. on the cars sold. If that's the case, then some one is in for a big bump when competition begins to get in its work. The Selden patent runs out in about two years, and then the trouble for automobile manufacturers will commence.

WE HOPE IT'S TRUE

We notice that a new industry is expected to come to Lowell through the efforts of the Board of Trade. People have been hearing so much in that line that they are likely to take as much stock in this new statement as in the frequently renewed story that Keith's theatre is to be built on Bridge street. We hope, however, that there is something more substantial to the last rumor than there has been in the theatre talk. All is well that ends well. If we get both the theatre and the new manufacturing concern, of course we will be thankful.

ONE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE

Don't stand around in idleness and say there is no opening for an ambitious man. If you cannot secure employment why not take up farming which offers greater inducements in New England today than ever before. Anyone can get started on a small farm who wants to work and become independent. The cost of living is high for everyone these days except the farmer. For him the cost of living is always the same. A good day's work always produces a good day's living and a little more for the farmer, no matter what the condition of the stock market or any other market may be. The most independent man in the world during good times and bad times is the farmer who is willing to work and let run and style alone.

PEOPLE GET WHAT THEY VOTE FOR

People vote to put grafters in office because a majority of the voters like graft. If they thought differently they would vote differently. If the majority is wrong on this question perhaps they can be made to see their error. If they are right perhaps they will bring the minority over to their way of thinking and make it unanimous one of these days. Who knows? Many people believe in putting good, capable men in office, but the vast majority believe in putting small, cheap politicians in office, and that's why we have so many of them. The majority rules. The majority does not want economy in city affairs; if they did they would vote that way. There is a large element in every community who like to elect a man to high office who will act like a bull in a china shop. They enjoy the fun; they gloat over the destruction and the turmoil; in fact they like to go on a political spree once in awhile. These voters never count the cost, indeed they don't believe there is any cost to them, but when they wake up, as they do once in awhile, and realize that there is a cost, and that it comes out of their pockets in the end, they are apt to do some thinking. Isn't it about time that some voters did a little serious thinking hereabouts?

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY

The old slogan in labor circles used to be a fair day's pay for a fair day's work, and a proper slogan it was. Surely a man is entitled to a fair day's pay if he delivers a fair day's work. The justice of this principle is now generally conceded. But in some quarters employers are beginning to start a new slogan which in reality is the original one reversed. They argue that nearly every craftsman is now receiving a fair day's pay, and should deliver a fair day's work, and employers say they are justified in insisting upon this. If a fair day's work is worth a fair day's pay surely a fair day's pay should secure a fair day's work. But there is no denying that there is a growing tendency in many trades to pocket a fair day's pay, and then scheme and plan to see how small a day's work can be delivered for it. This, we are happy to say, is not very common as yet, but it is gradually creeping into many crafts which once were honorable, and it is a species of injustice that will surely bring disaster to those who practice it or deliberately wink at it.

The workman whose main object is to see how little work he can do, how few hours he can put in, and how much money he can get for loafing will sooner or later come to grief for he is dishonest. The honest workman who is willing to deliver a fair day's work for a fair day's pay will have steady employment when his tricky and dishonest fellow workman finds himself wondering why he cannot hold a steady job.

SEEN AND HEARD

Of all the greedy animals the big Alaskan bear at the Bronx zoo comes first, according to a keeper. "Perhaps his size makes him unusually hungry; for there seems to be no limit to his appetite," the keeper says. "Two big chunks of meat and a dozen loaves of bread are thrown into the enclosure occupied by the big fellow and a grizzly. The grizzly seizes a piece of meat and goes into a corner to eat it. It is when the time comes for the bread that the Alaskan shows himself a glutton. The loaves are scattered over the enclosure and the big fellow proceeds to collect them in a heap. Some he carries in his mouth while pushing others along the asphalt with a paw. If the grizzly can grab a loaf and scurry away with it he is lucky. He is glad to get the crumbs left by his giant cage mate." New York Sun.

If the three year old man has the leaves in fair play why not part the Alaskan and grizzly in separate cages? The tariff that allows the big fellow the big pieces ought not to obtain in the zoo.

"The pair of elands we recently got from South Africa present an example of domestic felicity that beats anything in the animal line we have had in a long time," said the keeper in the Central Park menagerie. "In this case the female is the boss as she is the older than her mate. Some observers might say that he was a neglected spouse, but he is contented. In fact they are a happy pair as you can see by the way they clump together in the paddock. They are the handsomest and most graceful of all antelopes. There is a freak growth in each of the female's horns which gives her a decided advantage in a fight as she can jab an opponent whichever way she swings her head. "At meal time she keeps her mate off until she gets the best of the fodder, but he doesn't seem to mind that."—New York Sun.

The female eland is simply acting the part of the wise and generous husband.

HER FAULT

She has so many magnetic charms. "Time falls me to recite them. Had I a pen of shorthand speed, "I would take a week to write them. She's a figure of fair of face, And even the most spiteful Admit her loveliness and grace— In short she's just delightful.

Her mental faculties are keen. She's wonderfully witty. She's something more than a fair doll And not just merely pretty. Yet one thing my ardent cheeks— I cannot but disclose it— She is the fairest of her sex, But, oh, good Lord! she knows it!—Somerville Journal.

He laughs best who has his vacation last—provided it doesn't ruin all the time he is away.

Now that dog days are here, it is almost time for the true pessimist to begin worrying for fear it is going to be unusually cold next winter.

Anybody who has ever been fishing will agree right away that it is much better fun to catch a two-pound trout than it is to clean it.

There are a great many people who pass for highly cultivated and who

A Chemist's Discovery

NEW REMEDY FOR ECZEMA AND OTHER SKIN TROUBLES

The most remarkable feature about Cadum, the new remedy for skin diseases, is that its beneficial action is seen in every case where it is applied. Not a single instance has been found where it failed to alkay the terrible itching of eczema, or the people who have been afflicted with eczema for years and have tried everything without being relieved should take fresh courage for the new remedy Cadum is different from anything else. It is the discovery of a chemist, who felt for years that the world needed a cure for eczema and other skin diseases, and as a result of his studies and experiments Cadum was the outcome. While possessing such remarkable powers in overcoming different forms of skin troubles, Cadum contains no dangerous ingredients. When applied over unsightly sores on the face and hands, it forms a thin, almost invisible coating, which the doctor is covered up while the healing process is going on. The 10c. size is intended for trial purposes by those who wish to test its wonderful virtues in skin troubles such as hives, pimples, blotches, tetter, itch, eczema, herpes, scaly skin, rashes, psoriasis, ringworm, freckles, eruptions, dandruff, scabs, itching piles, scurvy, etc. Large boxes 25c. at all druggists.

When You Know How

To select good burning coal, or if you know now—you will come to me with your fuel requirements aware of the fact that the mines whose output I represent are the best, but the most desirable sort of condensed fuel. For my part, I deliver only a well screened article, of full weight, and have it at your door promptly. At mining prices my coal makes for real economy. Mail and telephone orders will receive immediate attention.

JOHN P. QUINN

Office and Yards, Gorham and Dix Sts. Take any Gorham street car. Telephone 1180 and 2480; when one is busy, call the other.

SAVE TIME AND MUSCLE Goodale's Wash Clean

Will do it. We have customers who have used it for years and say it does not injure the clothes and saves 90 per cent of the labor on wash day.

GOODALE'S DRUG STORE, 217 CENTRAL STREET

ST. THOMAS' SALVE

Plies, Old Sores and Skin Diseases

At All Up-to-Date Drug Stores

SPECIALS

Robber salad, 35c; plain lobster, 30c; steamed clams, 20c; fried oysters and French fries, 25c; fried clams and French fries, 25c. Call and see us.

LOWELL INN

Dualot place on Central street

have never read half of all that Shakespeare wrote.

Even if Noah Webster spelled strictly according to his dictionary, he allowed himself considerable variety.

The farmer, used to making hay, can't see why the city man should regard it as such a dreadful task to cut the grass on the front lawn with a lawn mower.

If there were no such thing as fashion, half the workmen in the world would lose their jobs.

The man who fusses about the weather not only increases his own discomfort, but he bothers every one around him.

When you are going camping in the woods, a can opener is just as important as a corkscrew.

A reporter sent to cover the recent auction at Haverhill museum felt queer when the auctioneer chimed:

"Here we have a copy of the first American newspaper ever published in the Philippines. The American Soldier, edited by an American private on his own hook. This is the first copy printed in Manila."

The reporter was himself the one time soldier editor. He bid that particular curiosity in.—New York Sun.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The post of Prof. Schiaparelli as director of the Milan observatory has been filled by Dr. Giovanni Colasia, who has been on the staff since 1872, and since 1876 has been professor of geodesy at the technical institute.

Miss Lucy Page Gaston, superintendent of the anti-cigarette league of America, is to be an active campaign against the use of cigarettes by women. Miss Gaston is the founder of the league.

Gov. Hadley has recognized the efficiency of the college of agriculture of the University of Missouri by placing in its charge all the charitable institutions and the county farms of the state. There are 114 county farms and 25 institutions. It is the plan to send inspectors around regularly. These inspectors will make reports to the governor and in this way the farms will be managed by the college of agriculture.

Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., one of the largest universities of the country, has a magnificent gymnasium, the gift of James A. Patton, the grain "king." The annual commencement exercises are now held in this building. Ernest Palmer, a graduate of the law school, who was one of the speakers at the last commencement, in the course of an address on "The workman's day in court," asked "What was on the spot 75 years ago?" "I'll warrant," he continued, "that it was not a field of wheat, and it is more than likely that a bear was in possession." Mr. Patton's friends in the audience are reported to have applauded loudly at the sly reference to the famous "bull."

Rear-Admiral Winfield Schley, U. S. N., retired, has gone to Lake George to stay for the remainder of the summer.

Milo Proctor, who for the past sixteen years has been the operator of the state elevator at the state house, has been placed on the retired list at half pay. Mr. Proctor is a veteran of the Civil war, having served with the old Sixth Massachusetts. He is in his seventeenth year.

Miss Frances Taft, Wellesley, 60, is soon to start for China, where at Peking she will work under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association of that city. While in her senior year at Wellesley Miss Taft was president of the college Christian Association. She will be accompanied to Peking by Miss Ruth Paxton and they are to be joined another year by Miss Anna Brown, who until that time will act as traveling secretary for the Student volunteers, succeeding Miss Taft in that office.

Miss Susan D. Huntington, a graduate of Wellesley in the class of 1900, is to become director of the International Institute for Girls in Spain, and early in the fall will sail for Madrid, to assume her duties in that office.

On the White Star Liner steamer Romanic, on her way to Italy is a party of New England men and their wives, who are going to Constantinople to take charge of the construction of the buildings of the American College for Girls. The party includes W. S. Hibbard of Boston, manager of the construction department; Alexander Wright, Boston, foreman mason; L. L. Griebel, of Providence, R. I., foreman carpenter; Clarence Matthews, Providence, foreman stone-cutter and quarryman; George Eddy, also of Providence, master mechanic. Mrs. Hibbard, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Griebel and son complete the party. A large quantity of machinery and contractors' tools are being carried out for use of the native workmen. R. F. Kendall, of Boston, superintendent of construction for the architects, is already in Constantinople.

STABLE FIRE

GAVE MANCHESTER PEOPLE A BAD SCARE

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 8.—The city was given a scare at an early hour yesterday morning when an alarm of fire from box 21, at the corner of Merrimack and Pine streets, in a crowded tenement section, was quickly followed by two more alarms, calling out the entire fire department.

The fire had its origin in a stable at the corner of Pine and Laurel streets, and owned by the heirs of the late Nasson Hall. The blaze was spectacular and, as the flames ascended many feet in the air above the tops of the neighboring buildings, it was taken to mean that a large conflagration was under way and excited individuals pulled in the successive alarms, although not authorized by the fire department, which was able to cope with the fire on one alarm. The flames were confined to the stable except that a shed, 20 feet away, caught fire. The loss was small, and is covered by insurance. The stable was occupied by Joseph Fournier and Adam Bonneau.

FOUND DYING

HAVERHILL MAN VICTIM OF GAS POISONING

HAVERHILL, Aug. 8.—James J. Devine, 34 years old, was found in the rear room of his store on Elm street, in the Bradford district, early yesterday morning, and he died at 2 1/2, an hour later, after three physicians had worked in vain to save his life.

Mr. Devine was found by Patrolman Smith and the cork in a small gas stove was open. A burned match found near the stove gives evidence to the theory of accident. His place was raided by the police earlier in the night.

REV. DR. BARTLETT

Preached From Former Pulpit Yesterday

Rev. W. A. Bartlett, D. D., of Chicago, formerly pastor of the Kirk Street Congregational church, this city, occupied his old pulpit yesterday and preached to a large midsummer congregation. His text was the story of the breaking of the alabaster box of ointment, by Mary, the sister of Martha.

During the little controversy when Martha broke in upon the Master and Mary, asking if it was nothing to him, that Mary had left her to serve by herself, he said, "Martha," thou art troubled and anxious about many things; but Mary has chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her." His suggestion to Mary, to my mind, was that much of the anxiety and the trouble was unnecessary. Mary was giving him higher compliment by sitting at his feet and listening to his words, than Martha, by making a preparation which was superfluous.

From what we read, we know that trouble was in the air. The disciples did not understand his mission. Mary having sat at his feet, was surcharged with love for him, and with that deep intuition of woman, was conscious that evil was threatening him. She thought herself of something which she might do for this man, who had bestowed so much upon her life. She remembered the box of extremely rare and costly nard, the most precious thing she had, that which might adorn her own person. She took this Syrian nard in her hand, and broke the box, and immediately the fragrance of the perfume filled the air. Then there arose the murmurs of an indignant body of men, who said, "Why this waste, this throwing away of money that might have been given to the poor?"

Judas had bargained with the high priests to sell the Lord for $30.00. It was the price of a slave in the Old Testament days. The value of Jesus in the eyes of Mary was the most precious possession that she had.

Unquestionably these murderous and grasping Jews would have given Judas a hundred times that sum, but his greedy and voracious soul took the first offer, and was glad to get it. And so you have the two extremes. Mary had sat at the feet of Jesus and heard his words and received the good teaching into her heart, and her life was illumined, ennobled, sweetened and refined. She had come into the possession of the secret of God.

Judas had never come into loving fellowship with Christ. Hence he was willing to sell him for the paltry sum of the price of a slave.

How much Christ valued at, by us? I think that some of the inactivity of the church universal is because we have failed in the first place to sit at the feet of Jesus. We have heard so many voices and have been sitting at so many feet, that we have been shut out of the privilege of his teaching to him. Hence the religious obligation and the church relationships are light with us. When we have sat at his feet we say "What have I to give, in return for all that has been done for me?"

Sometimes I think that the word "economy" should never be heard in connection with the church. If we desire in our homes to reverence a little, very good. But Mary gave prodigally. I think every church ought to be doing something enlarging all the time. They tell me of the pills that are putting in larger engines, and that is not an indication of lack of growth. Yet we say in our churches, let us minimize. Let the church have the mission of breaking her alabaster box of ointment.

Let us enlarge our borders individually. What is there in your life sweet and precious, laid away for yourself? Bring it forth for the Master's use. Though you will hear some murmuring, you will also hear his voice saying "She hath wrought a good work upon me while I am alive."

Monday

Bargains

Discontinued styles of $1.97 lingerie and silk waists, the biggest values of the season, all sizes but not in every style.

97c

Dutch neck dresses of sea island percale, unusual style and quality for

$1.50

Lingerie and silk waists, formerly priced $2.97, $3.97 and $5.00, now reduced to

$1.97

New styles of tailored white waists and $1.97 colored striped madras waists, now reduced to

97c

Lace and embroidery trimmed petticoats, deep flounce, finished with wide ribbon and heading, copies of $1.39 petticoats, now

97c

Lawn and gingham $1.50 and $1.97 dresses, now reduced to

97c

Cross bar lawn and black sateen tea aprons, look like the 25c kind, now

10c

The White Store

116 Merrimack St.

A.G. Pollard Co.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

More Specials for This Week

FROM THE

TRUNK and BAG

SECTION

Besides our most unusual offering of $7.50 and $8.50 English Club Bags at only $5.00 each this week we offer these

100 Matting Cases

24 in. size, with solid brass lock and catches—Regular price $1.30, at only

98c Each

32 Sample Trunks

All sizes, regular prices $8.50, $7.00 and 8.50, at only

$5.00 Each

PALMER STREET

NEAR AVENUE DOOR

Basement Bargain Dept.

50,000 Yards of Best Prints

We have now on sale 50,000 yards of best quality Print Remnants, Hamilton and American Print, in light, medium and dark, all new patterns and guaranteed all fast colors; quality usually sold at 7c yard.

See Our Large Display, Palmer Street Window

Only 5c Yard

FOUR CASES CAMPING BLANKETS

Just received from the mill four cases of Camping Blankets, in fancy colors, stripes and checks, in very handsome coloring, all 11-4 size and good heavy quality, we offer the

$1.00 Quality At 89c Pair
$1.50 Quality At $1.19 Pair
$2.00 Quality At $1.39 Pair

Now On Sale

About 50 Automobile Robe Samples

At a Liberal Discount From Regular Prices

About 50 Automobile Robe Samples bought from the manufacturer at a liberal discount from regular price. Plush on both sides and plush with rubber interlining, covert, heavy wool plaid, light, medium and heavy weight. Robes worth from $3.00 to $15.00. We offer the lot at about 25 per cent. less than regular prices.

On Sale at Blanket Counter—Basement

40 Inch Cotton

One bale of 40-inch Brown Cotton, good fine quality and easily bleached for pillow cases and sheets; 11c value on the piece.

At 7c Yard

Special for Tonight in Our Underprice Men's Furnishings

Men's 50c Summer Underwear, fine balbriggan shirts and drawers in all sizes; garments made of the best quality of trimming, ribbon facing, pearl buttons, drawers made with flue jean waist band and double gussets; regular 50c value.

For Tonight Only 25c Each

CARDINAL GIBBONS

World is Approaching Reproduction of Age of Extravagance

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—That we are closely approaching a reproduction of the age of extravagance and inordinate pleasure in which the Romans lived just before their city was destroyed is the belief of Cardinal Gibbons. He made that plain in an interview yesterday.

Cardinal Gibbons is spending a few weeks with Rev. Fr. James F. O'Hara of Southampton, L. I.

"Yes," said the cardinal, "I think we are very closely approaching the age of extravagance and inordinate pleasure enjoyed by Rome just before her fall. The cry today is for more and more riches. The rich man is greedy for more. He seems to never have enough to satisfy his desire. It is the same with the well-to-do. The cry is the same everywhere.

"Then there is the desire for inordinate pleasures. We have many more channels of pleasures than there were in the days of Julius Caesar, yet there is the desire for more pleasures and for greater enjoyments."

When the cardinal was asked what he thought would be the result of this condition of extravagance, he replied: "I believe the gospel of Christ will save the situation. There will not be Christ, you remember, to save Rome. I hope the people will see their folly and realize the true situation. The spirit of self-denial, unselfishness and love of the principles of Christ's teachings will be practiced by the people then more largely and will save us where Rome could not be saved. This great desire for riches is making people very selfish," he went on with deep earnestness. "I do not speak of individuals, for we have many generous ones among the rich, but I wish that more of them would be a little less selfish and a little more considerate of the unfortunate."

The cardinal spoke of the great extravagances of women and added, significantly, that the women of Rome were very extravagant, too.

"But I do not care to enter into any discussion of that subject just at this time," he added.

As to the comparative degree of happiness enjoyed by the rich and by the poor, Cardinal Gibbons mentioned the European peasants, who live on simple food with much contentment, and who have good appetites and good digestions which, he added, cannot be said of all the rich men of this country.

"Do you mean Mr. Rockefeller?" was asked.

"O, there are several," replied the cardinal. Smiling, he went on: "I think this little story illustrates this difference pretty well."

A certain nobleman was taking an early morning walk through the forest. He suffered greatly with indigestion. He met a peasant carrying a gun. The poor man had come out early to hunt, as the forest contained much fine game.

"The peasant was surprised to meet anyone at so early an hour, and, not recognizing his lordship, inquired: 'What are you in search of at this hour?'"

"I came out here, my man, in search of an appetite," replied the nobleman. "And you?"

"I came out here in search of something to satisfy my appetite," replied the peasant.

"After all," said the cardinal, rising, "nothing pays so good returns as good health."

TWO CABINET OFFICERS WATCH ALASKA ELECTIONS AND PROBE FEDERAL OFFICES

ATTORNEY GENERAL WICKERSHAM

SECRETARY NAGLE

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 8.—Great interest attaches to the elections that are to be held here soon for several local offices and the seat of delegate to congress. Secretary of Commerce and Labor Charles Nagel and Attorney General Wickersham are both in Alaska and will remain until after the ballots are counted. At the famous Treadwell mines, where thousands of miners are employed, charges of frauds were made and several scores of special deputy United States marshals sworn in to prevent illegal voting. Besides watching the election, the two cabinet officers are visiting various government stations and inspecting affairs of the federal offices. This is the first time in years that two cabinet officers have visited Alaska at the same time.

RIFLES WERE SEIZED

While on Way to San Sebastian by Authorities

BILBOA, Spain, Aug. 8.—Six thousand rifles were seized today by the authorities on board a tug which had chartered to go to San Sebastian where the anti-government demonstration was proposed to be held yesterday before the clerical leaders abandoned the manifestation. Local authorities at San Sebastian held that the Carlists were planning to take advantage of the Catholic manifestation to start a movement against the government. No statement, however, is made as to a party to the conflict who chartered the tug and loaded it with arms.

CITY IS QUIET

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Aug. 8.—The city is quiet. No further attempts at demonstration having been made. The troops, however, will remain in the summer capital for some time yet. The authorities express the greatest confidence that the fiasco of the anti-government manifestation marks the end of Carlistism and of any attempt at an insurrection in favor of the pretender, but they are plainly nervous as they fully realize the devotion of the peasant population of the Basque provinces. Sixteen priests and monks were among the persons arrested Saturday on charges of attempting to provoke disorder.

LOYAL TO VATICAN

ROME, Aug. 8.—The pope and Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, today received from Spain many telegrams expressing loyalty to the vatican in the conflict with Spain.

The telegrams were sent yesterday, having evidently been delayed by the Spanish authorities.

The telegrams encouraged the vatican to resist the anti-clerical movement in Spain, the leaders assuring the pope and Cardinal Merry del Val that the movement does not find deep root among the Spanish people.

TROUBLE THREATENED

LISBON, Aug. 8.—Portugal, like Spain, is almost on the verge of an open rupture with the vatican, due to friction over the governmental censure of the Roman Catholic archbishop of Braga for suppressing a Portuguese Franciscan newspaper without submitting the order to the Portuguese government for approval, and other incidents.

Danger also threatens the government from the side of the republicans on account of the refusal of the king to redeem the promise made by the government of amnesty for political offenders including the members of the secret societies involved in the assassinations of his father and brother. The government has been trying to appease the republicans by appointing prominent members of the party to important positions in the provinces. The monarchist press fears that this policy will enable the republicans to turn the machinery of the government against itself in future elections to the cortes, the results of Portuguese elections being largely swayed by the influences in control of the election machinery.

NO OFFICIAL NOTICE

MADRID, Aug. 8.—An official of the government stated today that the government has no confirmation of the report current in European capitals, that the pope has addressed a personal letter to King Alfonso asking the king to use his influence for a settlement of the conflict between the government and the vatican. He further denied that Spain had presented a protest to Austria against the conduct of Don Jaime, the Carlist pretender, who was an officer in the Austrian service.

BRITISH STEAMER BEACHED

London, Aug. 8.—Advices from Wick, Scotland, received today, report that the British steamer Indian struck a submerged rock during a fog, a hole being stove in her port side. She is beached at Sinclair bay. The Indian sailed from Shields, August 5, for New Orleans.

THE FISHERIES CASE

THE HAGUE, Aug. 8.—Henry C. Brown, former associate justice of the United States supreme court, was a listener today in the New Foundland fisheries case before the arbitration tribunal. United States Senator Root, continuing his summing up argument for the American case, argued that neither in 1783 nor 1818 did regulations exist regarding the time and methods according to which the fisheries should be conducted off Labrador and New Foundland and that during the negotiations for the treaty of 1818 the negotiators were actuated by the understanding that England could not frame regulations for the fisheries except in cooperation with the United States.

KING ALFONSO

Again on Board the Shamrock

COWES, Isle of Wight, Aug. 8.—King Alfonso again tempted fate by sailing aboard Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, disregarding the accident of Saturday when the Shamrock, with the king aboard, lost the topmast in the stiff breeze. The Shamrock, having repaired the damage, is again meeting its old rival of former seasons, the White Heather, in the race for the Commodore's cup. A. S. Cochran, American schooner Westward, which did not start in the races last week sailed under the handicap system, entered today in the race for the international gold cup which is sailed under the class measurement rule. The Meteor and Germania allow the Westward 6 minutes and 48 seconds in the 48 mile course. These three yachts, together with the Cyclone and Sussan, started in the race, the Cyclone getting across the line first with the American boat a close second. The Meteor made a bad start, being timed across the line six minutes behind the other boats.

STEAMSHIP IN DISTRESS

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 8.—The French steamship Salazie is reported in distress, 32 miles off Jervis bay, a port 55 miles from Sydney. A steamer was today dispatched to her assistance. The Salazie sails between Marseilles and Australian ports.

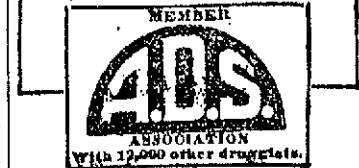

Is the best cream made for the skin. If you have a red, rough, blotched, or unsightly skin, try this great product of the American Druggists Syndicate.

You can use it for massaging wrinkles and for a sunken complexion, as it whitens and beautifies, is safe, harmless and does not grow hard.

No woman who values her appearance and who wants a smooth clear skin should let a day go by without trying it for the face, neck, arms and hands.

Get it for 25c. at any A. D. S. drug store.

Frank J. Campbell, 255 Central St.; Falls & Burkinshaw, 418 Middlesex St.; Houle's Pharmacy, 462 Moody St.; R. J. Lang & Co., 374 Merrimack St.; Wm. H. Noonan & Co., 305 Bridge St.; John H. O'Neill, Lawrence St. cor. Wamsley Routhier & Dalila, 632 Merrimack St.; Charles W. Trombley, 415 Bridge St.; Fred Howard, 197 Central St.; John T. Sparks & Co., 747 Lakeview Ave.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR WEEK

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—This is the real beginning of Knights Templar week in Chicago. A hundred thousand Knights were expected to arrive today, arrayed in full uniform for the 31st triennial convocation which was opened officially Sunday with divine services in Orchestra hall. Today's arrivals included English foremost sir knight, the Earl of Euston, grand commander of the great priory of England and Wales, and his party, who later will give a reception to the officers of the order. The day will be given over to receptions to the incoming knights and at 4 p. m. the annual dinner of the grand recorders and correspondent will be given at the Chicago Athletic club. Tomorrow will be the first of the "big" days beginning with the biggest parade ever engaged in by Knights Templars. It will require three hours to pass a given point.

Wednesday the competitive drills begin and Thursday and Friday will be devoted to drilling, boating, a regatta and an unorganized tour of inspection of Chicago. Headquarters officials today estimated the guests to number 500,000.

JOHNSON TO MEET KAUFMAN

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Australia, where Jack Johnson won the championship, will probably be the scene of his next encounter with anyone who seeks heavyweight honors. The champion announced yesterday that in all probability he would head for the Antipodes next summer following his theatrical engagements in Europe. Jack said that he had a number of flattering offers from Hugh McIntosh, the promoter. McIntosh is on his way to the British metropolis where he will unfold his plans for a fight in England or Australia. The title holder said that if Langford or Kaufman wanted a match all he need do was to put up the money.

TO PASS ON ENGRAVERS CASE

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—To assemble all the facts in the controversy between half a dozen engraving companies and photo engravers union, number 3, the superior court today appointed Elbridge R. Anderson, master, to take evidence. Mr. Anderson will receive $50 a day for his services and will probably report to the court in about a month.

When a strike was declared last month for the purpose of enforcing recognition of the union, Polom & Sundergren obtained an injunction from Judge Richardson who in his opinion said:

"The strike was ordered and made because the plaintiffs refused to sign articles of agreement and men left the employ because of fear of their standing in the union. The initiative of a strike ought to depend upon free action of employees. A strike ordered to unionize a shop goes much too far."

WILL FIGHT FOREST FIRES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—President Taft has authorized the use of troops to fight forest fires in Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

ASKS A PARDON

As Reward for Making Mathematical Discoveries

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 8.—Ascertaining that he has made mathematical discoveries which will have a sweeping influence on that science, Michael Angelo McGinnis, serving a ten year sentence for forgery in the Missouri penitentiary, has offered to demonstrate his discovery to any committee of mathematicians Gov. Herbert Hadley may designate if a pardon will be considered his just reward for success. It was learned today. His communication was sent to the governor through Dr. Simpson of Clarkson, Mo. Dr. Simpson says the discovery made by McGinnis is the reduction of the general equation of the tenth degree to an equation one degree lower. Among the discoveries of McGinnis are:

First: That for the general solution of an equation containing literal coefficients there also lies a general logarithmic solution for its corresponding numerical equation, thus establishing a general method for solving numerical equations by logarithms.

Second: That he has found the exact ratio of the diameter of a circle to its circumference.

Since the time of Euclid, centuries ago, the ratio has been supposed to be 3.1415 plus. McGinnis says he knows just what the "plus" is. He says he has discovered the exact root of all numbers and that "imperfect squares" will be no more.

McGinnis is a descendant of John Napier, inventor of logarithms.

"I have known McGinnis for years," said Prof. Greenwood, superintendent of Kansas City schools. "He taught mathematics at a college at Wichita, Kan., also in southern Missouri. A book of his on algebra, written, I am told, during a former term in prison, is a marvelous work. But for his use of intoxicating liquor this man would be an international authority."

"Mathematicians so far never have been able to solve literal equations above the fourth degree. McGinnis says he can work them in the tenth. European mathematicians say that they have proved it impossible to work them above the fourth."

BIG INCREASE IN EXPORTS

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The July statement of the board of trade shows a decrease of $600,000 in imports and an increase of $14,500,500 in exports. The principal changes in imports were decreased $10,000,000 in food stuffs and an increase of $5,000,000 in rubber. In the exports manufactured goods showed the largest gains.

Hour Sales All Day Tuesday

We have planned a series of sales for Tuesday. Every item advertised is extraordinary. Look the list over and see if you could earn money easier.

9 to 10 A. M.	10 to 11 A. M.
Your choice of all our Panama Skirts selling at $9.90 and $7.90.....	All our Dresses selling at $5 and $6, at....
3.90	2.90, 3.90
Large and small waist bands.

11 A. M. to 2 P. M.	$7.00 Slip-on Raincoats, gray and tan shades, all sizes.....
	3.95

2 to 3 P. M.	3 to 4 P. M.
Long, Loose Silk Coats, $12 to $20 styles, at.....	Your choice of 100 Suits selling at $15 to $25, tan, reseda, gray and Copenhagen.....
7.90	8.90
Here are bargains that you can not afford to miss.

4 to 5 P. M.
50 Coats in Serges, Sicilian and Rajah; coats that sell at $12 to $20. Choice.....	5.95

5 to 6 P. M.
$3.50 Bathing Suits in all sizes to 44, 3 dozen only in the lot, at.....	1.98

All Day We Will Sell Waists
That were $1.50 and $2.00, at.....	95c
And $4.00 Silk Petticoats.....	2.90

New York Cloak and Suit Co.

12-18 JOHN STREET.

CENSUS FIGURES

Will be Made Known About the Middle of October

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—By the middle of October, but scarcely before, the people of the United States will know their own numbers as revealed by the 13 census. The figures will not be given out until the count is entirely completed and minutely verified, and by that time every man who "keeps tabs" will know the total for himself, for the details for all such subdivisions as states, cities and counties will become known previously through the census office's announcements.

Some people think that Director Durand practically knows now the exact number of population, but he declares "really and truly" that he does not. If so disposed, however, he could ascertain approximately the number of people somewhat in advance of his announcement to the public. This could be done by means of the preliminary count of the schedules which is made necessary for the payment of the enumerators' salaries.

The enumerating districts for each supervisor's area are numbered, and it is intended that each of them should contain one hundred names. As soon as these are received they are turned over to counters and a virtually active statement is then made possible. Up to date the names in more than 55,000 of the 70,000 districts have been counted.

The process is moving forward rapidly, and when it is completed the population of the United States could be easily, by footing up the totals, arrived at. Mr. Durand, however, is not having the figures totaled, and he says that it is his purpose not to do so. He is not curious as to the outcome of his work. Nor will he make any prediction as to what the result will show. It is known, however, that the census office generally tallies the popular idea that there are about 90,000,000 people in the United States. Between the census of 1890 and that of 1900, there was an increase of about thirteen millions, and only a slightly larger increase would now be necessary to bring the figure up to the ninety million mark. This result is arrived at by a purely arithmetical calculation, and not by any compilation of the figures recently taken.

About three hundred nimble fingered young men and women are engaged night and day in determining the figure which, when the final compilation is made, will show the total population. All told, there are some eighteen hundred clerks employed in the census office in the compilation of all the facts gathered by the field agents in connection with the recent census; but, while the greatest activity is directed toward the ascertaining of the population, there is still much doing in other directions. Indeed, a large number of those at work in the population division are engaged in classifying the facts relative to the sex, age, race, and other conditions in connection with the people numbered. Also, there are many employed in the manufacturing, agricultural and mining branches.

The first announcements, however, will cover only enumeration figures, and these will continue for the next two months and a half. The sociological and industrial figures will come later, and will be announced as a rule in special bulletins prepared by the bureau itself.

Up-to-date, population figures have been given on two states only, Rhode Island and Oklahoma, but many announcements have been made for cities, towns and counties in various parts of the country. All the returns so far given to the public have been prepared to meet the especial demands of the localities affected. In Rhode Island, for instance, there is to be a reapportionment for legislative purposes, and in Oklahoma the franchise is involved. Texas has state laws affecting county administration, and has made a special demand upon the bureau. There also have been some extensions of a legal nature from various cities in Illinois, as from some other states. From this time forward, however, these requests will receive comparatively little attention, and as a consequence, the regular work of the bureau will proceed more rapidly.

The director's intention is first to tabulate the population of the large cities, and after the announcements for those centers of population shall have been made, the figures for the states will be given out as they are ascertained. The returns for all the counties of each state will be announced at the same time that the state figures are made public.

Many of the announcements are liable to be delayed beyond the time when they may be expected by the public. "This delay, if it occurs, will be due to the necessity for careful scrutiny of all the schedules. All of the enumerators are carried from three to four times, and if there is an error, or even if there is any circumstance indicating a possibility of an error, an investigation is ordered, and if necessary a correction is made. In two cities, evidence of fraud has been discovered, and in one, Great Falls, Montana, a prosecution has been undertaken for fraudulent enumeration. In Massachusetts, all of the figures have been withheld to accommodate the state in some of its own statistical work.

Contrary to the general opinion, all the counting of the people is done by hand. The tabulating machines, of which several hundred are employed in the office, are used only in classifications as to race, sex, and other conditions.

The census office is a busy place. The present force of clerks will be increased eventually to about 2000. There are two shifts of them, one working from 9 o'clock in the morning until 4:30, the other taking up the work at the latter hour and going forward until 11 o'clock at night.

Counting enumerators, special agents and supervisors, no fewer than 80,000 people will have been employed in the work of the thirteenth census by the time it is completed. So far about six million dollars have been expended upon it, and it is probable that the total cost will be about fifteen million dollars. Of this sum twelve million dollars has been appropriated by congress.

NEW COMPANIES

Have Been Formed in This State

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The following new corporations filed the required articles of incorporation last week with the secretary of state:

Doll's hospital, incorporated, of Boston, capital stock $10,000, "to carry on the business of manufacturing, buying and selling at wholesale or retail and of repairing all varieties of dolls, dolls' clothing and accessories, etc.," the incorporators being Allice V. M. Hockaday of Medford Hillside, Herman La-hue Brown and Elias Field of Boston; the Manhattan Grocery & Provision company of Boston, with a capital stock of $500,000, the incorporators being Henry T. Richardson of Brookline, Joseph H. Soliday of Dedham, Harry P. L. Partridge of Dedham, Geo. P. Holbrook of Milis and Bertha W. Glover of Brookline.

Investors' Laboratory company of Boston, capital stock, $50,000; Oneimus Medical company of Boston, capital stock $125,000; Massachusetts Junk Collectors' corporation of Boston, capital stock $5000; Loxley Sales company of Boston, capital stock $50,000; Hatfield Union Storage company, capital stock $5000; Marshall Supply company of Lynn, capital stock $25,000; Machinizing Art company of Pittsfield, capital stock $5000; Stearns & Waterman Co. of Boston, capital stock $50,000; Andrew M. Cusack Co. of Boston, capital stock $25,000; Atlantic Machine Screw company of Boston, capital stock $15,000; Interchangeable Rubber Wheel Co. of Boston, $50,000; Essex County Medical Institute Co. of Lynn, capital stock $20,000; Guildford, Kendrick & Ladd of Boston, capital stock $20,000; Moving Picture company of Massachusetts, Boston and New York, capital stock $10,000; New York Leather Co. of Boston, capital stock $50,000; T. H. Coyne Co. of Foxboro, capital stock $10,000; German Rubber Co. of America, Boston, capital stock $15,000.

FELL FROM WINDOW

CHILD BADLY INJURED WHILE AT PLAY

BOSTON, Aug. 8.—The childish play of two year old Theodore Paquette and his older sister, Florence, in a bedroom of their home, 24 Border street, East Boston, early last evening, ended fatally for the little boy, who is in a dying condition at the East Boston relief hospital.

In the excitement of play the little boy, to avoid being tagged, is said to have jumped onto a chair which was near an open window, and losing his balance fell into the yard below, a distance of about 15 feet.

The father and mother rushed out and picked the boy up and hurried to the hospital with him, where upon examination it was found he had sustained internal injuries.

A. O. H. NEWS

The report of the treasurer of Division 1, A. O. H., Brockton, read at a meeting last week, shows that during the past six months one thousand four hundred and twenty-five dollars was paid in sick benefits. A communication was received from State President John J. Rogers, urging the members to attend the Lowell convention and state parade. Carroll B. Deady and James Lucey are the official delegates from the division.

The Juvenile Cadets of the A. O. H. of Boston have voted to participate in the state parade in this city. Captain

Owen McGivern is in charge of Company A, and Captain Peter Dineen is at the head of Company B.

More than seven thousand tickets have already been sold or secured for the field day to be held at the Locust street grounds, South Boston, on Labor day, under the auspices of the Suffolk County A. O. H. At the regular meeting of the committee next Friday evening in Hibernian hall, B street, South Boston, the sub-committee on sports will report that the best hurdling teams and football clubs in this vicinity will compete that day.

A series of conferences with Chief Marshal O'Sullivan of this city on the final arrangements for the state parade on Aug. 24 is being held. The arrangements for the parade have been made on an elaborate scale. It is the purpose of the chief marshal to make the greatest procession of the organization in Massachusetts. Prizes are being offered to the officers of divisions and uniformed military companies of the state, for the largest in number and best in appearance of the visiting contingents in the parade.

The chief marshal has issued a circular to the presidents of divisions informing them that the line will be made up by counties.

All Hibernian military companies will appear in the military division, with Adj. Gen. John McCarthy of Fall River as commander.

Special places will be reserved for the members of the Ladies' auxiliary, who will ride in floats.

The state convention, to be held the day following the parade, will be opened with solemn high mass in one of the city churches. The celebrant will be the Rev. Philip J. O'Donnell, Boston, state chaplain of the order.

Aside from the election of state officers, the principal feature of the convention will be the address of State President Rogers, who will report on the deliberations and decisions of the Portland National convention.

MUNICIPAL BAND CONCERT

The City band gave an excellent concert on the South common last night, and several thousand people were present to enjoy the music. The program was a varied one and carried out in a manner which elicited much applause.

The GILBRIDE Co.

OUR AUGUST SALE OF Brass Beds, Enamel Beds, Bedding

BEGINS TODAY A Special Invitation Is Extended to Hotel Keepers, Proprietors of Lodging Houses and Other Institutions.

THIS IS THE YOUNGEST DEPARTMENT IN THE STORE AND IT HAS PROVEN ONE OF THE MOST SUCCESSFUL. AT THE VERY START WE LAID DOWN A POLICY—"THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE COMPATIBLE WITH THE VERY BEST QUALITY"—AND WE HAVE NEVER DEVIATED FROM THAT PRECEPT. BY ADVANTAGEOUS FOREHAND BUYING WE ARE ABLE TO START THIS SALE WITH VALUES THAT WILL LEAVE A LASTING IMPRESSION.

The Choicest Selections Ever Known In a Special Sale Are Here

ALL THE BRASS BEDSTEDS ARE CAREFULLY MADE AND FINISHED WITH THE NEW PROCESS OF LACQUERING BRASS ON A HOT SURFACE, WHICH IS PRODUCED BY AN ELECTRIFIED HEAT PASSING THROUGH THE TUBES OF THE BEDSTEAD AFTER THE PARTS HAVE BEEN ASSEMBLED AND THE BEDSTEAD SET UP. ALL THE BEDDING OFFERED IN THIS SALE IS MADE UNDER THE STRICTEST SANITARY CONDITIONS AND WE GUARANTEE THE MATERIAL TO BE JUST AS REPRESENTED.

The finest collection of Metal Beds ever brought to this section and at the lowest prices in this August Sale we ever heard of. This is the opportunity of a lifetime to buy a first class bed at the price of a cheap one.

WHITE IRON BEDS

- $3.50 All Iron Bedstead, straight feet.....$1.38
 - $5.00 Brass Trimmed Iron Bedstead.....$2.98
 - $6.50 Continuous Pillar, Extended Foot Bed.....$3.98
 - $7.50 Brass Rail and Brass Nap Iron Bed.....$4.88
 - $9.00 One Inch Brass Rod Continuous Post.....$5.98
 - $12.00 Bessemer Steel Bed, with heavy brass spindle.....$8.98
 - $16.00 Bessemer Steel Bed, with 3-4 inch brass rods.....$11.98
- And about 20 other different designs and prices.

IRON COUCH BEDS

- $7.00 Drop Side Couch Beds complete with mattress, August Sale.....$4.98
- $9.50 Sliding Couch Beds complete with mattress and pillows; can be separated and make two couches or two single beds. August Sale price.....$5.98

BRASS BEDS

- $22.50 Full 2-inch post Brass Bed, with seven fillers and double head rods.....14.98
- $35.00 2-inch post with 2-inch top rod and seven 1-inch fillers, heavy 2 1-2 inch T balls on corners.....22.50
- $49.00 2-inch continuous-post and heavy hucks, and seven 1-inch fillers.....28.00
- $55.00 continuous 2-inch post Brass Bed with 13 1-inch fillers and heavy T balls on each spindle, extra heavy hucks.....38.00

BED SPRING SPECIAL

All iron, guaranteed standard quality National Spring.....$2.49

THE ANNUAL AUGUST SALE OF BLANKETS

A yearly bargain occasion upon which we spend months in an endeavor to excel in quality and value-giving worth. A sale wherein the saving is not problematical but so unusual that you can note the price advantage at a single glance.

- 98c pair 10-4 Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border, only 2 to a customer.....19c each
- 98c pair 11-4 Full Size Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border.....79c pair
- $1.25 11-4 Extra Heavy Blankets in gray and white, with pink and blue border.....98c pair
- $2.25 11-4 Soft Finish Blankets, in gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.49 pair
- $2.50 11-4 Wool Finish Blankets in tan, gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.69 pair
- $3.00 11-4 Wool Finish Blankets, in tan, gray and white, with pink and blue borders.....$1.98 pair
- $3.50 12-4 Extra Heavy and extra large Blankets, in white and gray, in pink and blue border. Special.....$2.49 pair
- $4.50 11-4 Extra Heavy Beacon Blankets, silk bound, border.....$3.49 pair
- $7.00 11-4 Wool Blankets, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$5.00 pair
- $8.00 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$6.00 pair
- $10.00 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$8.00 pair
- $11.00 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$9.00 pair
- $12.00 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$10.00 pair
- $15.00 11-4 All Wool Blanket, white with pink and blue border. Our special.....$12.00 pair
- $1.25 each Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton, 98c each.....$1.25 each
- $1.50 each, Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton.....$1.25 each
- $2.49 each, Silkoline Puffs, filled with white cotton.....$1.98 each
- $3.00 Sateen Comforters, extra heavy.....$2.49 each
- $5.00 Best Quality Sateen Comforters.....$3.98 each
- $6.50 Down Puffs, full size.....$5.00 each
- $7.50 Down Puffs, full size.....$6.00 each

August Sale of Household Linens, Bed Spreads, Towels, Sheets and Pillow Cases

Prices reach their lowest level during this August sale. It's the one special sale to which our patrons annually turn for the coming season's supply. These prices will astonish you. They surprise even us.

Sheets, Pillow Cases and Spreads

- 89c, 81x90 Full Size Extra Heavy Sheets at.....69c each
- 98c, 81x99 Full Size Extra Heavy unbleached Sheets at.....75c each
- 19c Hemstitched Pillow Cases, at.....15c each
- 15c, 45x36 good quality Pillow Cases at.....12 1-2c each
- $2.00 Crochet Bed Spreads, extra weight, at.....$1.49
- $2.98 Marseilles Spread. Special price.....$1.98

TOWELS

- 17c Turkish Towels, good size at.....12 1-2c each
- 19c Turkish Towels, extra size, at.....15c each
- 25c German Huck Towels at.....19c each
- 12 1-2c Round Thread Crash Toweling, all linen, 9 1-2c yard
- 15c Pure Linen Crash with white, red or blue border, 12 1-2c yard
- 50c, 18x45 and 54 in. Scarfs and Squares to match, 39c each

All of our Fancy Linens, such as scarfs, squares, doilies and centre pieces, slightly soiled, will be sold at less than 1-3 of regular price.

TABLE DAMASK

- 50c, 60 in. good quality Table Linen at.....39c yard
 - 72 in., 98c extra heavy pure linen at.....79c yard
- With Napkins to match at $1.95 doz.

THE AUGUST SALE OF RUGS

Is the ONE supreme opportunity of the year where the savings are so strikingly magnetic that you owe it to yourself to anticipate your wants. Rugs of all sizes and patterns, contracted for months ago, are here, from one mill only; several mills of world-wide reputation are represented in this sale—Schofield, Mason & Co., of Philadelphia; S. Sanford & Son, Amsterdam, N. Y.; Bigelow-Lowell Carpet Co.; Alexander Smith & Sons, Yonkers, N. Y.; Firth Carpet Co., Farthcliffe, N. Y.; and other mills.

In order that other dealers cannot get any quantity of these rugs we will not sell over two Room Size Rugs to any one customer. These sale prices are lower than wholesalers can get them from the mills.

BRUSSELS TAPESTRY RUGS

- Made by Sanford & Sons, Amsterdam
- $7.75 6 ft. x 9 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$4.98
- $9.75 7 ft. 6 in. x 9 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$6.98
- Beautiful Patterns for Dining Room or Living Room
- $15.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. Rugs. August sale.....$10.98
- As is—NOT Mismatched—Rugs
- Genuine Full Five Frame Body Brussels Rugs
- Manufactured by Schofield, Mason & Co., Phila., Pa.
- 9 ft. x 12 ft., worth $32.50, August sale price.....$25
- Absolutely perfect in every way.

BIGELOW, LOWELL, AXMINSTER RUGS

- $25.00 8 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. August Sale.....$16.95
- $30.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. August Sale.....$18.50
- $3.50 30x60 Axminster Rugs.....$2.19
- $5.00 36x72 Axminster Rugs.....$3.50
- Slightly imperfect.

MATTRESS SPECIAL

Combination Mattress; heavy grade ticking, nicely made with cotton tufts. A regular $6.00 value. August sale price.....$3.98

OTHERS UP TO $20.00

Sensational Sale of HODGES' FIBER CARPET CO. RUGS

- Remember the copyrighted name Fiber on the genuine. Not "Fibre," which is an imitation.
- $10.00 6 ft. x 9 ft. Rugs. August Sale.....$3.95
- $12.00 7 ft. 6 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. Rugs. August Sale.....$5.95
- $14.00 8 ft. 3 in. x 10 ft. 6 in. Rugs. August Sale.....$6.95
- $15.00 and $18.00 9 ft. x 12 ft. Rugs. August Sale.....$8.95
- There are four different qualities of fiber and a lot of wool and fiber, all grades, are in this sale at the same price; so attend early if you want the plums. Lot of small rugs at 39c, 49c, 79c, 98c, etc., worth double.

Nervous? Sleepless?

Knocked out by hot weather? Sanford's Ginger will put you on the track again. It overcomes exhaustion, allays nervousness, centers the blood at the stomach and promotes refreshing sleep.

Sanford's

Ginger quickly checks disturbances of the stomach and bowels due to excessive heat, unexpected change of temperature, and unripe fruit, bad water or unwholesome food. Delicious, refreshing, strengthening and always healthful.

Look for the Owl Trade Mark on the wrapper. Test you get a cheap, worthless substitute. Everywhere the standard of purity, flavor and strength. A delicious combination of ginger, aromatics and French brandy. Sold by druggists and grocers everywhere.

TRAINS TO AND FROM BOSTON

SOUTHERN DIV.			WESTERN DIV.
To Boston	From Boston	Arr.	To Boston	From Boston	Arr.
6:48	6:50	7:00	6:48	6:50	7:00
6:57	7:00	7:10	6:57	7:00	7:10
7:06	7:10	7:20	7:06	7:10	7:20
7:15	7:20	7:30	7:15	7:20	7:30
7:24	7:30	7:40	7:24	7:30	7:40
7:33	7:40	7:50	7:33	7:40	7:50
7:42	7:50	8:00	7:42	7:50	8:00
7:51	8:00	8:10	7:51	8:00	8:10
8:00	8:10	8:20	8:00	8:10	8:20
8:09	8:20	8:30	8:09	8:20	8:30
8:18	8:30	8:40	8:18	8:30	8:40
8:27	8:40	8:50	8:27	8:40	8:50
8:36	8:50	9:00	8:36	8:50	9:00
8:45	9:00	9:10	8:45	9:00	9:10
8:54	9:10	9:20	8:54	9:10	9:20
9:03	9:20	9:30	9:03	9:20	9:30
9:12	9:30	9:40	9:12	9:30	9:40
9:21	9:40	9:50	9:21	9:40	9:50
9:30	9:50	10:00	9:30	9:50	10:00
9:39	10:00	10:10	9:39	10:00	10:10
9:48	10:10	10:20	9:48	10:10	10:20
9:57	10:20	10:30	9:57	10:20	10:30
10:06	10:30	10:40	10:06	10:30	10:40
10:15	10:40	10:50	10:15	10:40	10:50
10:24	10:50	11:00	10:24	10:50	11:00
10:33	11:00	11:10	10:33	11:00	11:10
10:42	11:10	11:20	10:42	11:10	11:20
10:51	11:20	11:30	10:51	11:20	11:30
11:00	11:30	11:40	11:00	11:30	11:40
11:09	11:40	11:50	11:09	11:40	11:50
11:18	11:50	12:00	11:18	11:50	12:00
11:27	12:00	12:10	11:27	12:00	12:10
11:36	12:10	12:20	11:36	12:10	12:20
11:45	12:20	12:30	11:45	12:20	12:30
11:54	12:30	12:40	11:54	12:30	12:40
12:03	12:40	12:50	12:03	12:40	12:50
12:12	12:50	1:00	12:12	12:50	1:00
12:21	1:00	1:10	12:21	1:00	1:10
12:30	1:10	1:20	12:30	1:10	1:20
12:39	1:20	1:30	12:39	1:20	1:30
12:48	1:30	1:40	12:48	1:30	1:40
12:57	1:40	1:50	12:57	1:40	1:50
1:06	1:50	2:00	1:06	1:50	2:00
1:15	2:00	2:10	1:15	2:00	2:10
1:24	2:10	2:20	1:24	2:10	2:20
1:33	2:20	2:30	1:33	2:20	2:30
1:42	2:30	2:40	1:42	2:30	2:40
1:51	2:40	2:50	1:51	2:40	2:50
2:00	2:50	3:00	2:00	2:50	3:00
2:09	3:00	3:10	2:09	3:00	3:10
2:18	3:10	3:20	2:18	3:10	3:20
2:27	3:20	3:30	2:27	3:20	3:30
2:36	3:30	3:40	2:36	3:30	3:40
2:45	3:40	3:50	2:45	3:40	3:50
2:54	3:50	4:00	2:54	3:50	4:00
3:03	4:00	4:10	3:03	4:00	4:10
3:12	4:10	4:20	3:12	4:10	4:20
3:21	4:20	4:30	3:21	4:20	4:30
3:30	4:30	4:40	3:30	4:30	4:40
3:39	4:40	4:50	3:39	4:40	4:50
3:48	4:50	5:00	3:48	4:50	5:00
3:57	5:00	5:10	3:57	5:00	5:10
4:06	5:10	5:20	4:06	5:10	5:20
4:15	5:20	5:30	4:15	5:20	5:30
4:24	5:30	5:40	4:24	5:30	5:40
4:33	5:40	5:50	4:33	5:40	5:50
4:42	5:50	6:00	4:42	5:50	6:00
4:51	6:00	6:10	4:51	6:00	6:10
5:00	6:10	6:20	5:00	6:10	6:20
5:09	6:20	6:30	5:09	6:20	6:30
5:18	6:30	6:40	5:18	6:30	6:40
5:27	6:40	6:50	5:27	6:40	6:50
5:36	6:50	7:00	5:36	6:50	7:00
5:45	7:00	7:10	5:45	7:00	7:10
5:54	7:10	7:20	5:54	7:10	7:20
6:03	7:20	7:30	6:03	7:20	7:30
6:12	7:30	7:40	6:12	7:30	7:40
6:21	7:40	7:50	6:21	7:40	7:50
6:30	7:50	8:00	6:30	7:50	8:00
6:39	8:00	8:10	6:39	8:00	8:10
6:48	8:10	8:20	6:48	8:10	8:20
6:57	8:20	8:30	6:57	8:20	8:30
7:06	8:30	8:40	7:06	8:30	8:40
7:15	8:40	8:50	7:15	8:40	8:50
7:24	8:50	9:00	7:24	8:50	9:00
7:33	9:00	9:10	7:33	9:00	9:10
7:42	9:10	9:20	7:42	9:10	9:20
7:51	9:20	9:30	7:51	9:20	9:30
8:00	9:30	9:40	8:00	9:30	9:40
8:09	9:40	9:50	8:09	9:40	9:50
8:18	9:50	10:00	8:18	9:50	10:00
8:27	10:00	10:10	8:27	10:00	10:10
8:36	10:10	10:20	8:36	10:10	10:20
8:45	10:20	10:30	8:45	10:20	10:30
8:54	10:30	10:40	8:54	10:30	10:40
9:03	10:40	10:50	9:03	10:40	10:50
9:12	10:50	11:00	9:12	10:50	11:00
9:21	11:00	11:10	9:21	11:00	11:10
9:30	11:10	11:20	9:30	11:10	11:20
9:39	11:20	11:30	9:39	11:20	11:30
9:48	11:30	11:40	9:48	11:30	11:40
9:57	11:40	11:50	9:57	11:40	11:50
10:06	11:50	12:00	10:06	11:50	12:00
10:15	12:00	12:10	10:15	12:00	12:10
10:24	12:10	12:20	10:24	12:10	12:20
10:33	12:20	12:30	10:33	12:20	12:30
10:42	12:30	12:40	10:42	12:30	12:40
10:51	12:40	12:50	10:51	12:40	12:50
11:00	12:50	1:00	11:00	12:50	1:00
11:09	1:00	1:10	11:09	1:00	1:10
11:18	1:10	1:20	11:18	1:10	1:20
11:27	1:20	1:30	11:27	1:20	1:30
11:36	1:30	1:40	11:36	1:30	1:40
11:45	1:40	1:50	11:45	1:40	1:50
11:54	1:50	2:00	11:54	1:50	2:00
12:03	2:00	2:10	12:03	2:00	2:10
12:12	2:10	2:20	12:12	2:10	2:20
12:21	2:20	2:30	12:21	2:20	2:30
12:30	2:30	2:40	12:30	2:30	2:40
12:39	2:40	2:50	12:39	2:40	2:50
12:48	2:50	3:00	12:48	2:50	3:00
12:57	3:00	3:10	12:57	3:00	3:10
1:06	3:10	3:20	1:06	3:10	3:20
1:15	3:20	3:30	1:15	3:20	3:30
1:24	3:30	3:40	1:24	3:30	3:40
1:33	3:40	3:50	1:33	3:40	3:50
1:42	3:50	4:00	1:42	3:50	4:00
1:51	4:00	4:10	1:51	4:00	4:10
2:00	4:10	4:20	2:00	4:10	4:20
2:09	4:20	4:30	2:09	4:20	4:30
2:18	4:30	4:40	2:18	4:30	4:40
2:27	4:40	4:50	2:27	4:40	4:50
2:36	4:50	5:00	2:36	4:50	5:00
2:45	5:00	5:10	2:45	5:00	5:10
2:54	5:10	5:20	2:54	5:10	5:20
3:03	5:20	5:30	3:03	5:20	5:30
3:12	5:30	5:40	3:12	5:30	5:40
3:21	5:40	5:50	3:21	5:40	5:50
3:30	5:50	6:00	3:30	5:50	6:00
3:39	6:00	6:10	3:39	6:00	6:10
3:48	6:10	6:20	3:48	6:10	6:20
3:57	6:20	6:30	3:57	6:20	6:30
4:06	6:30	6:40	4:06	6:30	6:40
4:15	6:40	6:50	4:15	6:40	6:50
4:24	6:50	7:00	4:24	6:50	7:00
4:33	7:00	7:10	4:33	7:00	7:10
4:42	7:10	7:20	4:42	7:10	7:20
4:51	7:20	7:30	4:51	7:20	7:30
5:00	7:30	7:40	5:00	7:30	7:40
5:09	7:40	7:50	5:09	7:40	7:50
5:18	7:50	8:00	5:18	7:50	8:00
5:27	8:00	8:10	5:27	8:00	8:10
5:36	8:10	8:20	5:36	8:10	8:20
5:45	8:20	8:30	5:45	8:20	8:30
5:54	8:30	8:40	5:54	8:30	8:40
6:03	8:40	8:50	6:03	8:40	8:50
6:12	8:50	9:00	6:12	8:50	9:00
6:21	9:00	9:10	6:21	9:00	9:10
6:30	9:10	9:20	6:30	9:10	9:20
6:39	9:20	9:30	6:39	9:20	9:30
6:48	9:30	9:40	6:48	9:30	9:40
6:57	9:40	9:50	6:57	9:40	9:50
7:06	9:50	10:00	7:06	9:50	10:00
7:15	10:00	10:10	7:15	10:00	10:10
7:24	10:10	10:20	7:24	10:10	10:20
7:33	10:20	10:30	7:33	10:20	10:30
7:42	10:30	10:40	7:42	10:30	10:40
7:51	10:40	10:50	7:51	10:40	10:50
8:00	10:50	11:00	8:00	10:50	11:00
8:09	11:00	11:10	8:09	11:00	11:10
8:18	11:10	11:20	8:18	11:10	11:20
8:27	11:20	11:30	8:27	11:20	11:30
8:36	11:30	11:40	8:36	11:30	11:40
8:45	11:40	11:50	8:45	11:40	11:50
8:54	11:50	12:00	8:54	11:50	12:00
9:03	12:00	12:10	9:03	12:00	12:10
9:12	12:10	12:20	9:12	12:10	12:20
9:21	12:20	12:30	9:21	12:20	12:30
9:30	12:30	12:40	9:30	12:30	12:40
9:39	12:40	12:50	9:39	12:40	12:50
9:48	12:50	1:00	9:48	12:50	1:00
9:57	1:00	1:10	9:57	1:00	1:10
10:06	1:10	1:20	10:06	1:10	1:20
10:15	1:20	1:30	10:15	1:20	1:30
10:24	1:30	1:40	10:24	1:30	1:40
10:33	1:40	1:50	10:33	1:40	1:50
10:42	1:50	2:00	10:42	1:50	2:00
10:51	2:00	2:10	10:51	2:00	2:10
11:00	2:10	2:20	11:00	2:10	2:20
11:09	2:20	2:30	11:09	2:20	2:30
11:18	2:30	2:40	11:18	2:30	2:40
11:27	2:40	2:50	11:27	2:40	2:50
11:36	2:50	3:00	11:36	2:50	3:00
11:45	3:00	3:10	11:45	3:00	3:10
11:54	3:10	3:20	11:54	3:10	3:20
12:03	3:20	3:30	12:03	3:20	3:30
12					